Society Notes

MRS. MANGUM ENTERTAINS AT DELIGHTFUL PARTY
Mrs. B. B. Mangum entertained at a delightful party on Tuesday afternoon when the Tuesday Contract club met at her home with several other guests. Two tables were placed in the living room, which was very attractive with bright autumn flowers. Tallies were counted and for club high Mrs. Elizabeth Noell Masten was awarded handkerchiefs; to Miss Mary Harris for visitor's high, handkerchiefs were also presented. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Henry Walker and Miss Claire Harris served a delicious chicken plate with ice tea, ice cream and cake. Mrs. W. J. Snyder of Farmville, guest of Mrs. E. V. Boatwright, was invited in for refreshments.

MISSES RICHMOND AND BRADSHAW HOSTESSES AT KITCHEN SHOWER
Misses Mildred Richmond and Sue Bradsher gave a surprise kitchen shower Monday evening for Mrs. A. F. Nichols.
The numerous gifts of the invited guests made the shower a heavy one and the only sign of depression was on the part of Mrs. Nichols coming from under the packages piled upon her.
After the gifts had been displayed Misses Katherine Hatchett and Sue Merritt Richmond aided the hostesses in serving delicious punch followed by a sweet course.
In return Mrs. Nichols showered the guests with a profusion of thanks as they left her enjoying her surprise as a reality.

KNUTT-CLAYTON
The following announcement will be read with much interest by a large circle of friends in the county and state:
Mr. and Mrs. William M. Knutt announces the marriage of their daughter
Velma Sue
to Mr. Pross Thomas Clayton
on Wednesday, August the second nineteen hundred and thirty-three.

CELEBRATES 4TH BIRTHDAY
Thursday afternoon from 4 to 5 o'clock, little Miss Martha Brooks Short was hostess to a number of her friends at her home on Court Street, in celebration of her fourth birthday. A color scheme of pink and white was carried out in decorations and refreshments. Following a number of games, ice cream and cake were served. Suckers were given as favors. Many attractive gifts were presented the hostess by the guests. Mrs. Short was assisted in entertaining the little folks by Mrs. Robert Whitfield.

ENTERTAINS WITH BRIDGE PARTY ON WEDNESDAY
A lovely party was given on Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. W. C. Bullock entertained the Wednesday Bridge club. The living room was cosy with roses and other summer flowers placed in attractive places over the room. Contract was played at two tables and several progressions were enjoyed. Mrs. Curtis Oakley was presented with hose for high score and Mrs. Jim Vaughan was given an unique gift for low score. The hostess served fried chicken with accessories, ice tea and cookies.

MRS. ARCH MOORE HOSTESS AT LOVELY LINEN SHOWER
Mrs. Arch Moore was hostess at a lovely linen shower for Miss Marianna Nicks, whose marriage to Rev. Raymond Wilson, of Hollow Point, Tenn., took place Sunday.
Miss Nicks is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. S. F. Nicks of this city and is a graduate of Duke university.
About 40 guests were present to enjoy the evening and they assembled about half an hour before the honoree, who upon her entrance was greeted by strains of Lohengrin's wedding march. Miss Katherine Hatchett was at the piano.
After being greeted by her hostess and friends, two contests were given the guests who were seated at individual tables with place cards of miniature brides.

Two small sons of the hostess, Rufus and Chancey Moore, entered the dining room singing "Friends" and carrying a large basket of gifts which was presented to the bride-elect.

The bride's table was very pretty with its lace cover and centerpiece of varied colored petunias and graceful ferns.

LITTLE MARY CARSON WHITE HOSTESS AT PRETTY PARTY
Tuesday afternoon from 4 to 5:30 o'clock little Miss Mary Carson White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. White, Jr., was hostess to a number of her friends at her home on Broad Street in celebration of her second birthday.
A color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the refreshments. Following a number of games ice cream and cake was served to guests which included, little Miss Myrtice Clayton, Elizabeth Clayton, Eva Saunders, Marion O'Brian, Jealeen Barlo, Gene Cozart, Leon King, Stanley Hobgood, Marvin King, Ruffin White III.
Mrs. White was assisted by Shirley King in entertaining the little folk.

NICKS-WILSON
The wedding of Miss Mariana Nicks and Mr. Raymond E. Wilson was characterized by simplicity and charm. The ceremony was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents Sunday, Sept. 24, at 2:30 o'clock. The bride's father, Rev. S. F. Nicks officiated.
Prior to the ceremony Miss Hatchett played "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms" and "I Love You Truly." As the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" was played the bride and bridegroom entered together. McDowell's "To A Wild Rose" was played during the ceremony.
The home was decorated for the occasion. White dahlias and ferns were used. Candles in silver holders added much to the decorative effect.
The bride was attired in navy blue with all blue accessories. She wore a shoulder corsage.
Mrs. Wilson is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. S. F. Nicks of Roxboro. She received her A. B. degree from Duke University in June 1932.
The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Wilson of Kerrville, Tenn. He was educated at Lambuth College and Duke University, and is now pastor of the Huntington Circuit in the Nashville Conference.
Following the bridal trip the couple will be at home in Hollow Rock, Tennessee.
