Mr. Anderson Timberlake made a talk on "The Boy Scouts of America." He traced its history in Roxboro, and gave facts to show its Prof. Davidson and Mrs. Nie progress during the past year. He also gave numerous illustrations of the value of scouting to a boy and the Rotary Club was very much impressed with his talk.

L. T. Heffner gave a brief resume of the industrial development of the U.S., showing that our im-ports and exports were a vital fac-ureside at the joint meeting of tor in our development. He stated preside at the joint meeting of tor in our development. He stated that by creating "good will" at home and abroad that this would go a long ways toward assisting us to receive the desired ratio of imports and exports. He also illustrated the part that Rotary could have in this program.
