LOCAL WAREHOUSE VICTIMIZED BY FORGER

Winstead Warehouse Pays Out Sum To Person On Bogus Bill

IDENTITY NOT KNOWN

The latest model in highway robbery or forgery made its initial bow to Roxboro's tobacco market on last Friday morning. When the clerks at the Winstead Warehouse went to check over the day's sales and they found that their balance checked up approximately $265 short, naturally they got busy to discover the error, but they found no error. In checking over their records they found, however, that they had made out two checks, one for $120 and the other for something over $140, but they had no record of any such sale. This brought on more talk and when the matter was finally cleared up it was found that someone had made out a bogus floor bill, presented it to the cashier, collected his money, and skipped. It was the first time that this sort of racket had ever been tried on the Roxboro market, although we understand that it is quite a common practice on other markets. At this writing nothing has been learned as to the identity of the person or persons who got the money. Apparently they were men well versed in the art of extracting funds from warehouses without leaving any tobacco to show for their money. At any rate, unless the men are caught, the warehouse stands to lose the entire amount.

Things Are Going Strong at Edmondson

We are happy to tell you we sold our house full Monday for the best price we have seen for ten years. It made us feel good indeed to see the happy faces of the farmers. We would advise you to sell your tobacco as early as you can. Of course, we hope prices will continue good but when it is selling like it is now we think it a good time to sell and what is just as important, when you get some ready come to Edmondson's Warehouse, where you can rest assured everything possible will be done to get you the highest market price. On Monday, Nov. 27th we have the first second sale following the smallest house in town, which will enable us to sell our entire floor full on that day. Sales made at Edmondson Warehouse on Monday of this week:

O. T. Evans	590	41.43	244.48
W. Duncan	512	38.27	195.16
Willie Walker
& Lawson	360	43.30	155.84
Billy Warren	524	35.60	186.64
Hester Long & Co.	404	39.00	156.64
Thomas Wilborn
& Owen	416	43.57	181.26

Give us a trial and we will convince you that South Boston is the place and Edmondson's Warehouse the place to sell your tobacco. Your friends, Edmondson Warehouse, D. H. Conner, W. C. Warren, H. G. Clarke.

Conference Year Ends

Rev. J. F. Herbert, pastor at Long Memorial Methodist Church for the past two years, will leave on Wednesday morning for the session of the North Carolina Methodist Conference at Durham. The conference opens on Wednesday night for organization and the celebration of the Lord's Supper, the latter being the opening event of the conference each year. The N. C. Conference comprises something like six hundred delegates, lay and clerical. The Presiding Bishop, Edwin Dubose Mowson, who is the senior bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will assign at the close of the conference just about 280 Methodist pastors to their charges for the incoming conference year. Long Memorial Church will send its minister to the annual conference to report a successful year, from all outward evidences. He will report that all the financial obligations are met, including all missionary assessments for the home and foreign field.

New Attractions

We take pleasure in announcing that The Courier has contracted for the cartoon, Mut and Jeff, and this will appear regularly each week exclusively in The Courier. Along with this comic will appear "The Fact Finders," another weekly strip which will interest and instruct both the old and young. Like all progressive newspapers, expense is not considered when we can make our paper more interesting and valuable to the home. Watch for Mut and Jeff every week.

ROXBORO MARKET HAS GOOD WEEK

Sales Last Until Dark On Monday, and Prices Reach New Heights

SALE AVERAGED PRACTICALLY $23.00

The town was glad to welcome so many farmers who were here Monday with tobacco, and especially glad that almost every man who had tobacco on sale was highly pleased with his prices. The buyers surely did stay on the job, bidding as anxiously for the last pile as for the first. An honest comparison will show that there is no reason for not selling your tobacco in Roxboro, especially if you live in the County, and want to help build up your own County.

The total sales amounted to 150,000 pounds, in round numbers, and made the high average of $23.00. If these prices continue throughout the season, and there is no reason why they should not, then the farmers are going to be in better shape than for many years. They will not only get a profit out of this crop, but they will pay off many of their obligations, and begin to feel like life is worth living after all.

What Is Your Plan?

A hundred a month for twelve months is a good start. For the newly married youngster it provides his widow with something to carry her over a difficult period of readjustment. For the man of some estate it provides an income for the family while the estate is being settled, thus avoiding the possibility of loss by forced sale of securities. For the young unmarried man just starting out in business it provides an affectionate testimonial to his mother or sister. We have a policy to suit your individual needs. SATERFIELD INS. Barn Destroyed By Early Morning Blaze

The town was startled early Monday morning by the fire alarm. The fire was down at the northern extremity of town, in an old barn belonging to Judge Pass. This building was being used at the time by Mr. O. W. Long, proprietor of the North End Service Station, as a storage house. The building itself was not of much commercial value, but Mr. Long had a considerable amount of feed stored in it. This was a complete loss. The origin of the fire has not been determined at this time.

Harvest Value Festival

Tobacco is selling good, the best in several years, but that is no reason why you should not save every dollar possible, and if you will read the large spread of Leggett's we believe you will find some bargains.

Presbyterian Church

The usual services will be held in the Presbyterian church on next Sunday; the building, which was damaged by fire, has been completed save as to some painting. You are cordially invited to attend these services.

KIWANIS ADDRESSED BY ROBT. P. BURNS

Local Attorney Was Principal Speaker At Meeting On Monday Evening

PLANNING FOR LADIES' AND CHARTER NIGHT

Principal speaker of local Kiwanis Club last Monday evening was Robert P. Burns, local attorney, who stated that the functions of the Kiwanis club should be at least three, namely: building of a better community, the stimulation of fellowship, and the inspiring of honor among men. Mr. Burns pointed out that the motto of Kiwanis is "We Build," and urged that civilization progresses only so fast as the minds of men advance; that fellowship among her citizens had always been an outstanding feature of Roxboro but that the local club should foster the continuance of such fraternity; that honor between men in their dealings with each other is desired above all things and is the greatest asset that any organization, community or nation can possess. In closing the speaker urged that each member pledge himself to bringing these things about at least among the members to the end that the local Kiwanis club might be the very best one in being. Charter and ladies' night was changed from Monday, Dec. 11, to Friday night, Dec. 8th, at which time the District Governor, Oxford Kiwanis club, and members of other clubs will be present. Guests for the evening were, Dr. E. J. Tucker, James Hilton and Eugene E. Thomas.

Mrs. Nannie Wilson Died Last Saturday

Mrs. Nannie Wilson, age 93, died at her home in Summerfield on Saturday morning, Nov. 18. Mrs. Wilson was the mother of our townsman, Mr. C. T. Wilson, and had a number of friends here, as she has visited her son. Several months ago Mrs. Wilson fell and broke her leg, and since that time had not been able to walk but very little. Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson attended the funeral services which were held in Summerfield.

Seriously Injured In Auto Accident

Miss Erma Rogers, daughter of Mr. I. S. Rogers, of near Prospect Hill, was seriously injured in an automobile accident on last Thursday. The accident happened on the Prospect Hill road, and as soon as discovered Miss Rogers was taken to the hospital in Durham, where reports yesterday morning stated that she was somewhat improved, though still in a very serious condition. Miss Rogers is the niece of Mrs. G. L. Allen of this city, and is well known here, where she has visited quite often.

Official Family Dinner

A dinner will be given tonight at 6:15 in the basement of the First Baptist Church to all of the officers of the church and the auxiliaries—the Sunday School, W. M. S. and B. Y. P. U. This official family is composed of some seventy odd workers representing every phase of the church life. That a good time is in store for those who attend, need not be stated.

Correction in Scholarship Honor Roll

The name of Naomi Daniels was inadvertently omitted from the second honor roll (average 90%) for scholarship (during the second month). This correction is gladly made. G. C. D.

Oxford Singing Class

The singing class of the Oxford Orphanage will give their annual concert in Roxboro on Friday, Dec. 1st. This event is looked forward to by the music lovers here, because it is really a worth while concert. We will give fuller account in our next issue.

JOIN

The Red Cross drive is on in this town and County, and we sincerely trust every one who can possibly spare the dollar will join. For the past two years this County has fallen down on its quota, but we are hoping for better things this time. You will find a booth stationed at the post office and one in the Peoples Bank. Don't refuse the ladies, but hand over your dollar—and smile as you do so.

Walter F. Whitt Dies Suddenly

Mr. Walter F. Whitt, age 40, died suddenly at noon on Sunday at his home in Salisbury. He was a native of Roxboro, and for many years was connected with the post office department here. He had made his home in Salisbury for the past several years, where he was state distributor for Dewalt Products company, of Lancaster, Pa., and Porter Cable company of Syracuse, N. Y., and was also connected with the Hedrick Automobile Co. He is survived by his wife and one son, Walter F., Jr., also his mother, Mrs. H. J. Whitt, five sisters and four brothers, all of whom live here, except one brother, Mr. F. B. Whitt, of Montgomery, Ala. Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon at Providence church and interment made in Providence cemetery.

Attending Conference

The Methodist Conference is in session in Durham this week, and all of the Ministers of the Methodist denomination in the County are in attendance. From Roxboro there is no change expected, save as to Rev. S. F. Nicks; if we mistake not, he has been on the Brookside circuit six years, and we are fearful that we will lose him; Rev. J. F. Herbert and Rev. E. B. Craven are expected to be returned, as they have only been on their charges for two and one years, respectively. Personally, we would love to see all of these good men returned, for they are a benediction to any community. Messrs. J. A. Long and R. L. Harris are the delegates from the Long Memorial Methodist church.

Following this the Governor delivered an address to the Rotarians, dwelling on the things Rotary stands for, and the great opportunity which at this time is presented to Rotary. It was a magnificent address and undoubtedly will strengthen the club in its many activities. Saturday Night Ends Second Period In Tight Race For Awards

LESS VOTES AFTER SATURDAY; WORK NOW

All Candidates Listed Have Remarkable Chance Of Winning, But Final Showing May Depend On What They Do By Saturday Night

Last Saturday marked the end of the first period in the big "Christmas Club Cash Offer" Campaign just launched by The Roxboro Courier. Now watch the candidates plunge toward the automobile goal! And for the other awards! There is time for many other candidates to jump in and outstrip those already running. New ones are coming in every day. Folks, it is going to be an unparalleled race, with interest waxing hotter and hotter and thrills galore for everybody. To say that the announcement of The Roxboro Courier "Christmas Club Cash Offer" Campaign in which HUNDREDS OF DOLLARS worth of elegant awards are to be given away absolutely free to ambitious workers struck a popular chord, is putting it mildly. To give such wonderful awards in exchange for spare time efforts in helping this newspaper increase its subscription list is unheard of at this time in this vicinity.

Attractive Extra Offer

The following extra vote offer is made for early workers and as a special inducement for more members 282,000 EXTRA VOTES will be given upon EACH and EVERY $30 CLUB of both new and old subscriptions turned in from Monday, November 20, until Saturday, Nov. 25. These votes are in addition to the regular votes allowed upon each subscription, and you are not limited to the number of $30 CLUBS you may secure. Get as many as you can. Enter Your Own Name The campaign is just starting. All one has to do is first enter his or her name as a candidate for one of the awards. Then secure a receipt book with which to obtain subscriptions. Votes will be issued upon all subscriptions secured, and upon the end of the campaign these votes will be counted and the awards awarded to the best vote getters. Simple, isn't it? And big pay, too. All Will Be Paid One of the most attractive features of this "Cash Offer" Campaign is that all will be awarded for the part they take in helping to make the campaign a success. No one will work without pay. In order that each and every one may earn something for the time and effort spent, those who do not win one of the regular six awards, will be paid a cash commission of TWENTY PER CENT upon all the money secured and turned in by them, provided they remain active and turn in at least two subscriptions each week they are in the campaign. The liberal commission allowed makes it possible for anyone to enter the campaign, and make a nice sum of money during his or her spare time.

Notice Candidates

One of the rules of the campaign is that all candidates must make a cash report at least twice a week, Wednesday afternoon by 6 o'clock, and Saturday evening by 9 o'clock. The campaign manager will always be in the campaign office at this time. If it is impossible for you to come to the office, you may mail your report. Be sure it is post-marked not later than Saturday, November 25th.

How To Win

The best way to go about winning one of the beautiful awards offered by The Courier is to get a quick start. Make your decision right now and become identified with the "Cash Offer" Campaign today by simply filling out the nominating coupon appearing in this issue and mailing it to the campaign manager in care of this newspaper, and you will be sent a receipt book at once.

Notice

Miss Knott desires the presence of every woman in Roxboro with children of kindergarten age to meet her at Woman's Club room at 8 o'clock Thursday evening.
