

HearD about TOWN

Of course, we are delighted that the Bishop returned our good friend Rev. J. F. Herbert, to Roxboro. He has been here for only two years, but that is long enough for every man, woman and child in these parts to have fallen in love with him; he has done a great work in our town and we trust the four-year rule will not work when he has served this community that length of time. But while we are rejoicing in having Brother Herbert back with us, it is a great disappointment that we could not have Rev. S. F. Nicks return to us; he has served the Brookside charge six years, we believe, and it was doubted that he would be returned, still, we hoped to the last that such might be the case. He has been sent to Cedar Grove circuit.

We told you so! Early in the season you will remember we told you to keep your eye on the Roxboro tobacco market, and when the season closed you would find it well up in the front with the best. Well, on last Friday one of the houses here had a good big sale, and it averaged better than $25.00 for everything on the floor. Get wise to the fact that you make nothing by carting your tobacco off to other markets.

Monday sure did remind us of the old days; wagons were standing out in the street—and our policemen did not say a word about blocking traffic—waiting for room to get in the warehouse. It was a good day for the merchants, and for the tobacco farmer, also, for prices just kept climbing. Talk about the "good old days," that was one of them and we are hoping for many more of the same kind.

Business is simply humping in this good town, every day from Monday until Saturday, and one of our best merchants told us that his business last Saturday was the best day he had ever had, and he has been in business here for quite a spell. You could hardly get waited on in any of the stores, and they all had extra clerks, too. President Roosevelt's plans has surely put the old wheel to turning in these diggings.

For quite awhile there has not been a vacant residence in town, and today we do not believe there is a single vacant store room here. We call that a good record, and it shows that others are looking to Roxboro as a place to live and do business.

Are you thankful for the many blessings you are enjoying today? If so, what about showing it in a material way by making a liberal contribution to one of the orphanages in the State. They are all hard pressed, and turning away children with no home, no one to love or care for them, every day, and all they ask is that you give the proceeds of one day's work, that is, if you earn $1.00 a day give a dollar, if you earn $2.00 then give $2.00, and so on, even if you earn twenty, or fifty dollars. You can not make a better investment, and you will feel better for having lent a helping hand to so worthy a cause. Try it.

Looking Back Ten Years

Fourteen Bales Sell For $1900: Mr. Andrew S. Turner of Alton, Va., favored us with a call yesterday afternoon. Mr. Turner had just delivered 14 bales of cotton to the Roxboro Cotton Mills for which he received $1900. He says there will be more than a thousand acres in his section planted to cotton next year.

St. Mark's Church Thanksgiving Day: Our friends will be glad to know that we are planning to have service in our new church on Thanksgiving Day. The church is not yet complete, but we are going to have Thanksgiving service in it, even though we have to wear our overcoats and kneel on the rough, unfinished sub-floor.—(Rev. J. L. Martin was rector of St. Mark's at this time, and he is most pleasantly remembered here by his numerous friends.—Ed.)

Hall-Brooks: A quiet wedding of interest was solemnized at home Saturday a. m., at 8:45 o'clock. The contracting party being Miss Alma Virginia Hall and Mr. Broadus G. Brooks, of Raleigh. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a wedding tour to Jacksonville and Miami, Florida.

Thos. Frazier at the Planters Thursday: Mr. Thomas Frazier sold a load of tobacco at the Planters warehouse last Thursday and was more than pleased with his sale. His best grade brought him $60.00 per hundred, and he says better grades of tobacco are higher on the Roxboro market.

Mr. Isaac Blalock sold a one-horse load of tobacco at the Planters warehouse here last Thursday and received a clear check for $319.90 for the load.

Contract Breaker Jailed: Oxford, Nov. 23.—Sandy Bradsher, Person county farmer, today was under sentence of 30 days in jail for contempt of court for violating an injunction issued by Judge W. A. Devin, of superior court, forbidding him selling his tobacco outside the Tobacco Growers Cooperative association. Bradsher was sentenced yesterday when it was testified in court that he had continued selling tobacco to independents after the order was issued. Hubert Eppes, also of Person county was fined $50 on a similar charge.

Sunday School Lesson

By Rev. Charles E. Dunn
PAUL IN EPHEBUS

Lesson for Dec. 3rd. Acts 19 and 20
Golden Text: Matthew 5:10

Ephesus was the capital of the Roman province of Asia. An important center of commerce, art, and religion, its crowning glory was the famous temple of Diana, one of the seven wonders of the world. In this pagan community, notorious for its faith in magic, Paul carried on a long, eventful ministry. At first he taught in the synagogue, but because of opposition he withdrew to the school of Tyrannus, and there taught and preached for two years. So favored was he by God's Spirit that he was able to perform miracles of healing and exorcism.

Naturally enough, when certain Jewish exorcists learned of Paul's success in casting out evil spirits, they were encouraged to imitate him. The consequences, however, were so disastrous that the Ephesians became panicky, and a very valuable assortment of books on the magical arts was publicly burned. The Christian faith, as a result, gained in prestige and influence, spreading rapidly throughout the whole province. So many converts indeed were won to Christ that the tradesmen who sold silver shrines of Diana suffered a serious loss of business, and therefore in alarm, organized a noise and turbulent demonstration against the apostle.

But to get a complete picture one must supplement the account in Acts by a study of the references to Ephesus in Paul's letters. Here we learn that he was prostrated by a severe illness (2 Cor. 1:8); that he was apparently condemned to a combat with wild beast in the arena (1 Cor. 15:32); and endured other painful trials (1 Cor. 4:11). His mission was a success but he himself, as in other places, suffered greatly. Yet how unconquerable is his spirit! Read carefully his appealing farewell address, in Acts 20, to the Ephesian elders. Here we feel the contagion of one of the "bravest, noblest, and tenderest of men."

Paul had now labored in four of the provinces of the Roman empire. He now journeys to Jerusalem, bearing a collection for the poor.

Officials, Private, School and College Groups To Convene

Called Upon to Meet at Same Hour Tuesday Afternoon, Dec. 12, to Consider Program of Institute of Government

Chapel Hill, Nov. 29.—All city, county, state, and federal officers and employees, all groups of private citizens, and all high school and college students are asked to assemble at designated meeting places in their respective communities on Tuesday, December 12, from 1:30 to 2:30 o'clock, when complete details of the program being launched by the Institute of Government will be presented for consideration, according to a statement issued here today by a group of representatives of the public officers of North Carolina.

The statement, which said the meetings would "consider a governmental program of far reaching importance to the people of North Carolina," was signed by 45 officers of 22 groups of public officials.

Public officials were asked to assemble informally in the city halls and county courthouses of their respective governmental units. Private citizens were asked to assemble in their respective meeting places, and high school and college students were requested to meet in their respective assembly halls.

Guarantee of Funds
Addressed to "the public officers and private citizens of North Carolina" through the press, the statement pointed out that the results of the united efforts of the groups that have called these meetings "have thus far brought a guarantee of $50,000 to the officers, citizens, and students of North Carolina to carry on for a period of three years the governmental program they have inaugurated through The Institute of Government."

This guarantee, it was explained, is made on the condition (1) "that the official leaders of all groups of officers and citizens show their faith in their own program by agreeing to contribute annually to its support any amount of their own choosing from $1 a year up and (2) that they join together in asking the rank and file of officers and citizens to do the same thing, (3) if contributions of officers and citizens are sufficient to support this program, then at the end of three years the $50,000 guarantee instead of going back into the pockets of the guarantors, becomes a $50,000 gift toward a permanent endowment to enable officers, citizens, and students of North Carolina to perpetuate the work of the Institute of Government.

Leaders Comply With Terms
"We have complied with the first condition of the guarantee by agreeing to contribute annually to the support of this great governmental program," the statement said.

Use This Laxative made from plants

Theodor's BLACK-DRAUGHT is made from plants that grow in the ground, like the garden vegetables you eat at every meal. NATURE has put into these plants an active medicine that stimulates the bowels to act—just as Nature put the materials that sustain your body into the vegetable foods you eat. In Black-Draught you have a natural laxative, free from synthetic drugs. Its use does not make you have to depend on cathartic chemical drugs to get the bowels to act daily. Now you can get Black-Draught in the form of a SYRUP, for CHILDREN.

RIDING IS BELIEVING

The only way to be satisfied that Plymouths and Dodges, products of Chrysler Motors, Inc., are superior cars is to ride in them, and you will recognize the riding and driving ease and qualities of the higher-priced car.

Three reasons why you should buy a Plymouth, a Dodge, or some product of Chrysler Motors:

Floating Power, Olite Springs, and longer wheel base.

Safety Steel Bodies and Hydraulic Brakes for insurance of safety in riding.

Oil Filtration for motor protection.

Come in and let us demonstrate these and other reasons why it would be best to buy a Chrysler Product.

Baptist Churches Prepare For Enrollment

In the Baptist churches of North Carolina preparation for the Annual Enrollment is nearing completion. On or near December 3 it is expected that the churches will observe Loyalty Day. Rev. L. V. Coggins of Semora is leading the movement in the Beulah Association which embraces Person and Caswell Counties.

In this program North Carolina is keeping step with other states in the Southern Baptist Convention. There is, however, a new emphasis this year in North Carolina. In the enrollment in North Carolina the members of the churches will be asked first of all to give themselves in service, and then asked to undertake to contribute a definite amount for the support of the local expense of the church and for the objects fostered by the denomination. These objects are Missions, foreign, home and state, Christian Education and benevolence, with the exception of the orphanage. This last named institution depends for its support upon once-a-month offering in the Sunday schools and a Thanksgiving offering.

In order to provide for a real dedication, a double card has been distributed among the churches, part one challenging each member to give himself and part two to give of his income.

Reports indicate that the enrollment this year will be unusually successful. It is believed that this success will be due to the fact that the appeal is made not only for funds but for personal service as well; that the spirit of unity in the churches as well as in the denomination at large has never been finer; and that the people on the whole have more which they can and will give. Recently the State Convention met in Greensboro, and the reports of that meeting indicate that the Baptist people are united and face the future with high courage.

There are at present 2375 churches in the state and on the rolls of these churches about 440,000 members.

A number of Jackson county farmers are planning to harvest black locust seed this fall because of the healthy demand and the excellent crop in the mountain area.
