

ROXBORO HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

Editor-in-Chief, Margaret A. Perkins Assistant-Editor, Jean Morton

We've got a newcomer in our neighborhood. He seems so quiet, old fashioned, and good;

We should idealize this professor in his chair. Oh, don't let us forget that wavy hair;

He wisely hides his heart from you and me. He has known quietness to be a necessity.

Through every happy line I sing, I feel the tonic of the spring. The day is like an old-time face,

An old-time face—an old-time chum Who rises from Georgia to come And lure us over to the land of France.

Where she has trained R. H. S. students That they might have a chance.

I see across the school room planks This dark-haired lady in view. Her personality is of highest rank;

Last Friday evening the Boomers entertained at the home of Miss Mary Lee Elmore at Ca-Vel Circle.

Last Friday-morning Mr. Nims' section of the sophomore class presented Mr. Robert Burns, well known city attorney, to the student body.

When we assembled in chapel Tuesday morning we had quite a surprise. First, Mr. Jones had taken Mr. Davidson's place.

ket," accompanied by Margaret Hannah Critcher at the piano. Second, to our astonishment and joy, he introduced "Happy" Bill Cope, who entertained us for fifteen minutes by playing on the accordion, banjo, guitar, piano, and also by singing.

Seniors, you'd better be getting ready for that Junior-Senior Banquet that is to come off soon. We Juniors are going to give you a swell time.

Helena Cushman, star reporter of Junior class, is back in school after an absence of two days due to injuries received in an accident Tuesday night.

Where Lacy Winstead left his hat Friday night. Why Bick Long and D'Arcy Bradsher insist upon robbing the cradle.

Why Marie Spencer likes to be called "Silly Creature." Why Marjorie Thomas's mother was mad at her Saturday night.

Whom Anna Catherine Love's present crush is. Where Gordon Carver went Friday night.

Why Matt Long doesn't like Roxboro girls. Why Dick Puckett is called "Otha P. P. Puckett."

Whom Louise Warmack, Anna Catherine Love, and Dorothy Riley dated at the party Friday night.

What male has at last learned to out wisecrack Margaret Perkins. Why Reade Gentry wants to be a "knight."

What happened to Bick at the hospital, what he did Thanksgiving, and what "splat" means.

Why the president of the B.O.O.M. club isn't speaking to a certain blue-eyed Junior.

Since Robert Hester has come into light, who will be next on the list. Ask him whom he escorted to the movies Friday evening.

When did Bick begin cradle robbing. Why Virginia Whitten felt so out-of-place Monday afternoon.

Where James Brooks got such a huge handkerchief.

The Helena High school team won three games last week. Easter Monday's game was played against Hurdle Mills High nine.

On Wednesday Roxboro was met on Roxboro's diamond. Helena won by a score of 9 to 8.

Resolutions of Respect

The members of the Mary Hambrick Missionary Society of the Edgar Long Memorial Church, Roxboro, N. C., wish to express their appreciation of the life and character of their friend and loyal member, Mrs. C. G. Nichols, whom God in his infinite wisdom saw fit to remove from her earthly home on March 22nd, 1934.

Be it therefore resolved: First. That in the passing of Mrs. Nichols our society has lost one of its faithful members and that we feel forcibly our great loss.

church and her Lord. Third. That we strive to live the example she set before us, for hers was a loyal soul, hers was a royal service and her "own works shall praise her in the gates."

Fourth. That we extend our heartfelt sympathy to her loved ones in their hour of sorrow. Mrs. K. L. Street, Mrs. S. D. Broadwell, Mrs. M. A. Stewart. C. Y. Tison, Hyde county agent, reports a growing interest in 4-H club work.

Several recent meetings were well attended and prospects look good for starting several important new projects. Doctors have been counting the pulse by watches ever since 1690.
