

SALE OF FARM LAND

Under the authority conferred upon me by that deed of trust executed by Richard Bailey and wife, Louisa Bailey, to me as Trustee on February 20th, 1924, and recorded in the Person County Registry in Book 5, Page 221, default having been made in the payment of the bonds secured thereby and at the request of the holder thereof, I will on Monday, October 8th, 1934, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash at twelve (12) o'clock noon, at the courthouse door in Roxboro, N. C., the following land conveyed by said deed of trust to-wit:

One tract containing fifteen acres, more or less, situated to the North of the Roxboro and Allensville road, about three miles from the town of Roxboro. Said tract of land is bounded on the North by lands of John Ed Perkins, on the East by lands of Sam Wilson, on the South by lands of Jordan Bailey, and on the West by lands of Sam Wilson. This is that tract of land deeded to Richard Bailey by J. C. Pass by deed recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Person County in Book 21, page 369, reference to which is hereby made for full and accurate description of said tract of land.

Also one tract of land containing fifty-four acres, more or less, situated, lying and being to the North of the Roxboro-Allensville road, about three miles from the town of Roxboro, in Roxboro Township, county of Person, the same being the place on which Richard Bailey now lives, and being bounded on the North by lands of Sam Wilson, on the East by E. E. Bradsher and A. A. Burch, formerly Mon Robertson place on the South by Jordan Bailey, and on the West by Sam Wilson. On this tract there is a prior mortgage, same being executed to the North Carolina Joint Stock Land Bank of Durham, recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Person County in Farm Loan Book 1.

Said sale will be made subject to a first deed of trust on tract No 2 and subject to any unpaid taxes. Purchaser will be required to deposit 10 per cent of bid price as an evidence of good faith.

This September 5th, 1934.

R. P. Burns, Trustee.

Coming Attractions At The Palace

BROADWAY HIT NOW IN FILMS, STARS CROSBY

Acknowledged the premiere show of the current Broadway season "She Loves Me Not," the smash stage hit, is coming Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 15-16, to the Palace Theatre in the Paramount picture version, starring Bing Crosby and Miriam Hopkins, with Kitty Carlisle featured.

With a distinguished supporting cast that includes Warren Hymer, Lynne Overman, Judith Allen, Vince Barnett and George Barbier, "She Loves Me Not" brings to the screen the fanciful tale of wild escapades in a Princeton dormitory that has convulsed Broadway audiences for months.

The story depicts the escape of a night-club dancer from the scene of a Philadelphia murder, her concealment at Princeton and her subsequent entry into motion pictures with a wild fanfare of publicity, and at the same time develops a tender romance between Bing Crosby, as a student, and Kitty Carlisle, as the dean's daughter.

Elliot Nugent, who was responsible for the highly successful "Three Corners Moon," directed "She Loves Me Not," which features several brand new tunes by Rainer and Robin and Gordon and Revel, including "Love in Bloom" and "I'm Hummin', I'm Whistlin', I'm Singin'."

"Romance in the Rain" Indoors and Out!

Not all of the romance in "Romance in the Rain" takes place out of doors, under the pelt of rain. Nor even in a shower room. Behind the scenes of a modern magazine publishing office, revealing the inside workings and intimate methods employed by romantic and love magazines, the romantic episodes are carried on, forming the basis of "Romance in the Rain." This Universal romantic comedy with music comes to the Palace Theatre for Special Shows next Friday night and Saturday morning.

This uproariously funny comedy, teeming with action and bristling with excitement, moves fast. Featuring scenic background and sets of unusual brilliance, this picture is said to be one of the most colorful of the year.

Contrasting with the busy, exciting scenes in the publishing offices is a beautifully appointed penthouse atop one of New York's largest skyscrapers, where the romantic interest takes place.

Roger Pryor and Heather Angel, the screen's newest love team, are featured along with Victor Moore, Esther Ralston, Ruth Donnelly, Paul Kaye and others.
