MISSING A FINE OPPORTUNITY

This good County, like every one of the other ninety-nine in the State, has entirely too many tenant farmers. We doubt if there is a county in the state with more good, honest tenant farmers than will be found here, but there are too many of them; while they are good men, honest and true, hard working and worth while citizens, they would be worth much more to their community, and would have a feeling about them they never will have until they own a farm of their own.

CLEAN-UP WEEK

Looking back over the ten years of our town we find that the last time the town was behind a "Clean-Up Week" was in 1924. It is known as "Clean-Up Week" that same kind of a movement is needed here today. It is the good women of their organizations that it and see that our town is cleaned up.

are poor advertisers for Roxboro. Let's have a "clean-up" week, and if a week is not long enough make it two weeks. Politics must be mighty dull in and around Raleigh, as we have not seen a single new candidate for the Senate in several weeks. true our regular Raleigh correspondent does tell us that there is a possibility of General Brummitt throwing his hat into the ring for governor. However, we doubt this, as Mr. Brummitt was a candidate for a few months at the last gubernatorial election, and posed as a candidate from the East--this time the candidate will come from the West.

Again the Governor has batted 100 per cent. He has appointed our good friend, Mr. Capus M. Waynick, editor of the High Point Enterprise, assistant chairman of State highway. The chairman, Mr. E. B. Jeffress, has been ill for several months, and it was thought wise to name some one to act, and no man in the State could have been found more capable in every way than Capus Waynick. We congratulate the Governor on his wise selection and feel sure he will have no occasion to regret his choice.

FARM NEWS

KERR-SMITH VOTE

The most important news we have for Person County farmers this week is in regard to the Kerr-Smith referendum. There are eight meetings scheduled in the county for this week to discuss this matter, as well as other subjects. The County Agent would like for it to be possible, for every grower in the county, including all landowners and all tenants, to be present at some one of these meetings, in order that he might understand thoroughly just exactly what he will be asked to vote for. No vote will be taken at these meetings. Each and every contract signer will be notified by mail of the day selected for the voting just as soon as the day is decided on by the committeemen, and a voting place in each township has been decided upon.

MEANS OF KERR-SMITH REFERENDUM

The Agricultural Adjustment Administration, acting under the powers bestowed by President Roosevelt, agreed to stand by the farmers who wished to sign tobacco reduction contracts in an effort to reduce production in order that the farmers might receive a living wage for their crop. Since the powers conferred on the Agricultural Adjustment Administration did not make it possible to control those who did not sign contracts, and thus left the way open for them to produce enough tobacco to flood the market with more than the manufacturers could take, and thereby bring the price down to the old ruinous level, two Congressmen, Messrs. Kerr and Smith, introduced a bill in Congress asking that a tax be put on the non-signer, in order to discourage him from raising so much tobacco. These two Congressmen did this at the earnest insistence of the contract signers. However, the bill stated that the regulations contained therein should be in force and effect for one year only; and that if the contract signers and others interested wished this tax to be continued for the year 1935, then they must vote either for or against the tax.

In submitting this question it is the desire of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration that tobacco producers shall have possession of all available facts to guide them in reaching a decision. The choice lies with the tobacco producers and the Adjustment Administration is in no sense seeking to impose its views upon farmers to influence their decision. Do tobacco producers want the mechanism afforded in the Kerr-Smith Act as a supplementary control to the current efforts under the Agricultural Adjustment Act? Tobacco farmers have had one season's experience with the type of control embodied in the Kerr-Smith Act. It is for the tobacco farmers to choose. It is hoped that tobacco producers will examine fully all the facts and reach a decision based upon considered judgment as to whether the Kerr-Smith Act is needed to assure the attainment of the objectives of the tobacco adjustment program.

fully all the facts and reach a decision based upon considered judgment as to whether the Kerr-Smith Act is needed to assure the attainment of the objectives of the tobacco adjustment program. ALLOTMENT CARDS There is an opportunity for those who will not need all the pounds on their cards to sell their excess pounds to those who need them. We shall be glad to assist in the transfer of these pounds. Those who have excess to sell can bring their cards to this office, and the pounds can be sold to those who come here to buy.

TERRACING We feel that the farmers are very much interested in saving their farms by terracing, but they have probably been so busy stripping and marketing tobacco, saving the corn crop and other pressing farm work that they have not as yet signed up enough acres to justify us in putting the matter of getting a terracing outfit before the County Commissioners. If anyone wants terracing done by a county tractor, please write the County Agent or come to the office and state the exact number of acres that you think you will want, at a cost not to exceed $2.50 per acre. Some of our best farmers have written us, but have not stated a definite number of acres. We want figures that we can submit to the County Commissioners. They need definite information before they can take this matter under consideration.

LESPEDEZA The following interesting comments on lespedeza have been received: R. D. Bailey: "Lespedeza is the best soil improver I ever used. My pastures this year have been fine."

George Mitchell: "I seeded six acres in lespedeza. Got a good stand and mowed several tons of hay. Lespedeza produces more hay and is less expensive to grow than any similar crop. For a worn-out poor soil I would always recommend lespedeza."

J. I. Brooks: "I like lespedeza very much as a soil builder and crop improver. Corn that was planted after lespedeza stood the dry weather better."

Tom Clayton: "Lespedeza is as good a soil improver as I have ever used except old-fashioned or pink clover. However, it goes so I could not grow pink clover, but I can grow lespedeza on any of my land, even the poorest. For a man who has a poor, rundown place, I recommend it beyond any other soil improver to put his land in a more fertile condition."

J. B. Clayton: "Best land improver I have ever used. For our lands where red clover will not grow without limestone I think this is the best lespedeza that can be put on the land."
