Sell Person County
TOBACCO
In Person County
And We All Will Be Benefitted

The Roxboro Courier

Sell Your
TOBACCO
In Roxboro
"No Better Market In The State"

ESTABLISHED 1881. PERSON COUNTY'S OLDEST AND BEST NEWSPAPER. UNDER SAME MANAGEMENT AND OWNERSHIP FOR 50 YEARS.

J. W. NOELL, EDITOR | HOME FIRST, ABROAD NEXT | $1.50 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE.

VOL. II. | ROXBORO, NORTH CAROLINA, WEDNESDAY EVENING, JANUARY 9, 1935 | NUMBER 2

KIWANIAN WIVES TAKE CHARGE AND SAY WHAT'S WHAT

Misses Esther Walker And Rebecca Hunter Present Several Piano Numbers

MR. FARRELL GIVES DINNER

ROXBORO HI-Y CLUB ENTERTAINS FRIDAY

Songs, Toasts, Speeches Are Order Of The Evening

FREE ! FREE !

ABSOLUTELY FREE —

Joyner Chevrolet Co. Showing New Cars

With No Radical Changes In Body Appearance Many Improvements Made

NEW ENTERPRIZE FOR ROXBORO SUGGESTED

A Little Co-operation Needed For Cannery; Big Possibilities

ROTARY CLUB HOLDS INITIAL ME'TING OF YEAR

MR. W. H. LONG, JR. DIES SUNDAY NIGHT

Funeral Services Conducted From Home Tuesday Afternoon

Mr. W. H. Long, Jr., aged 63 and for many years a citizen of Roxboro died at his home on Lamarr St. Sunday night at 9:50 o'clock. Mr. Long had been in ill health since the first of November of last year and had been confined to his room since the fifteenth of that month. The cause of his death was neuritis with complications. He had been gradually sinking since November until the end came on Sunday night.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lillian J. Long, two sons Willie T. Long of Washington, D. C. and Mack L. of Roxboro, one daughter Mrs. William D. Long, of Hurdle Mills, N. C. William T. Long and Mrs. William D. Long were the children of Mr. Long's first wife, the former Miss Minnie Lenora Williams, and Mack Long is the son of the present wife who survives him.

Funeral services were conducted from the home on Lamarr Street Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by Rev. J. E. Hebert of Edgar Long Memorial Church and Elder [illegible] Herndon of Durham in charge of the services. Pall-bearers were Messrs. [illegible] A. M. Long, R. J. Oak, Charles Stewart, J. Wyatt Monk, [illegible] Woodall. Honorary pall-bearers were Messrs. J. T. Wade, Hugh Stewart, Norman Long, B. G. Clayton, Dr. G. W. Gentry, and Dr. A. [illegible] Shotzal. Flower bearers were Misses Hessie Long, Lacy Long, Frances Long, Sherman Long, Callie Long, Zack Long, Ralph Long, [illegible] Long, Charlie Du[illegible] Long, Jr. and Jule Long. Interment was made in [illegible] cemetery near Bushy [illegible]. Mr. Long also survived [illegible] Mrs. Z. P. Long of [illegible] Mrs. C. E. Long of [illegible] Mrs. H. I. Long of Bur[illegible] Mrs. A. A. Long of Dur[illegible] Mrs. T. I. Long of Menom[illegible] Mrs. Jennie L[illegible] Mrs. Garret[illegible]

FARMER'S EXCURSION TO WASHINGTON CITY

More Places Of Interest Will Be Visited By The Party

MAYNARD MANCUM DIED SUNDAY NIGHT

Summary Of Health Activities In Person County For 1934

Report Shows Person County Is Progressing In Health Education

ONE OF THE LEADING HARDWARE STORES

Plymouth & Dodge On Exhibition

BOY SCOUTS HELP

Travelers Insurance Co. Represented By Knight's Ins. Agency

MR. SANDERS IN RALEIGH

Mr. H. K. Sanders left Monday for Raleigh where he will attend a four days session of County agents.

Professor Lucien Rudaux, distinguished French astronomer, will take you on a trip to Venus Mars and Jupiter in an unusually fascinating illustrated story in the American Weekly (issue of January 13) the magazine which comes with the BALTIMORE AMERICAN. Buy your copy from your local newsdealer or newsboy.

THANKS TO MRS. CLAYTON

Our good friend, Mrs. Emma Clayton of Rougemont, responded to our little want ad and sent us another copy of the issue wanted. We appreciate the kindness of our friends and return thanks for same.

The New Oldsmobile

Along with the other new cars of the 1935 line shown last week was the new Oldsmobile. When Mr. Griffin, of the Griffin Motor Co., took over this line a few months since it was comparatively unknown here but today you see quite a number on the streets, and it is one of the cars to be reckoned with. You can see these new cars at the Griffin Motor Company place on Depot street.

Infant Dies Tuesday

Jerlene Thomas, fifteen-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thomas of Woodsdale, Rt. 1, died Tuesday at 11:30 a. m. She was buried in the Thomas family burying ground near her parents home this morning.

Visits Fayetteville

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Davidson returned last night from Fayetteville to which city they were called on account of the death of Mrs. Edgar Allen Poe, Jr., a sister-in-law of Mrs. Davidson. Mrs. Poe died Sunday night after a brief illness of pneumonia. She was formerly Miss Louise Butler, of Fayetteville.

All Job Printing done by expert workmen at The Courier shop.