

Second Cattle Meet School Buildings Called For Tuesday Being Made Ready July 30th At 2 P. M. For Another Session

Called In View Of Fact That Some Owners Of Largest Herds Absent From The First Meeting

BY H. K. SANDERS

An enthusiastic meeting was held last Tuesday for the first preliminary meeting preparatory for the cattle show some time next September; but in view of the fact that some members who have the largest herds of cattle in the county were absent last Tuesday, it is thought best to call another meeting for Tuesday, July 30th, at 2:00 p. m., to complete arrangements, appoint committees, etc.

Any and all who are interested in the Person County cattle show are asked to meet at the Courthouse and lend their support to the promotion of the show by their presence and cooperation.

There are several reasons why Person County should have a cattle show:

1. We have the cattle in the County.
2. We need to let the people of this county and other counties know that we are producing purebred cattle.
3. The cattle show will help to advertise our surplus cattle to people who desire to buy same.
4. The cattle show will promote sale of these surplus cattle.
5. It will encourage a sportsmanlike fraternity among the owners of improved cattle for the further advancement of breeding for better cattle.

A prospective buyer has never yet asked for a pure milk cow. He always wants the best you have. The only way to have the best is to produce them; raise them on our own farms. While we have some scrub cattle in the county, the majority of our people want the best. The only way, as stated above, to have the best is to let the very best come to the buyer for cash, not back to the manufacturer, plant or for some other use.

A cattle show held in the interest of the promotion of better cattle for the county will have a tendency to let us know our people to desire better cattle.

The cattle exhibited at the show will not necessarily have to be purebred cattle. Some people in the county have purchased cattle for which they have had excellent production papers. A purebred cattle are desirable for the show, whether or not the owner has reproduction papers.

Every one in the county who is interested in this show is asked to be promptly at 2:00 P. M. July 30th at the Courthouse to complete organization. Your presence and your cooperation will be a big factor in putting on Person County's first purebred cattle show.

Davis Found Guilty Of Assault On Young Allensville Man

Woodrow Davis, Sentenced In County Court, Appeals To Superior Court

Woodrow Davis, charged with assault with deadly weapon with intent to kill came into County Court Tuesday to plead not guilty. He was charged with the cutting of Burley Gentry, young Allensville man, at Davis' home. Gentry was slashed across the back leaving a gash that was two inches in depth and eight or ten inches in length.

Davis did not deny the cutting, but denied that his intention was to kill. After hearing the evidence in the case, Judge Newton found him guilty of assault with a deadly weapon, thereby inflicting serious injury and sentenced him to serve two years on the roads.

The young man filed appeal and bond was set at $750.00, which was furnished. He is now at liberty awaiting the next session of Superior Court. Though wounded severely, Gentry was not out in any vital spot and is rapidly recovering from the effect of the injury.

Necessary Repairs Being Made For Opening Of Schools In The Fall

Everything is being made ready to start another school year in Person County, the first under the superintendency of Mr. R. B. Griffin, who took office on July 1st.

Boilers, furniture, doors, window lights, etc. are being repaired or replaced where such are needed.

It is understood that practically all the schools in the county will begin about the same time. No definite date has as yet been set, but it is thought that the fall term will open some time during the first week in September.

So far as can be ascertained the faculties in the various schools will remain about the same though there will be some few changes.

The County Board of Education and the County Board of Commissioners are even now deliberating the feasibility of entering into an expansive building program for schools in some sections of the county, the replacement of old buildings with new ones, and the making of necessary repairs in others.

Polio Cases Increase In Virginia Reports

Stringent Action Is Taken In Number Of Areas To Prevent Further Spread.

Richmond, Va., July 23.—Virginia's total of infantile paralysis cases reported since June 1 shot up to 207 today as 16 new patients were reported to the state health department.

The cases registered today were one each from Albemarle, Bedford, Brunswick, Buckingham, Fairfax, Fauquier, Gloucester, Halifax, Nelson, Pittsylvania and Tidwell counties and Roanoke City, and two each from Mecklenburg and Orange counties.

Bedford, Fairfax and Orange counties had not previously reported cases. General compliance with instructions from the health department against children congregating seemed to be the rule throughout the state.

A CORRECTION

In the advertisement of Sergeant and Clayton's appearing on Thursday, July 18, in this paper salt was quoted at 100 lbs. for 25c. This was an error on our part and we gladly make the correction. It should have read: 10 lbs. of salt, 25c.

Restaurant Closed For Selling Liquor

Rocky Mount Establishment Apparently First Place To Be Padlocked Under Control Act

Rocky Mount, July 24.—George T. Suggs, local restaurateur, today had the dubious honor of having operated what is believed to be the first place in the state to be closed as a "common nuisance" under the "padlock clause" of the new county liquor control act.

Suggs was convicted this morning of having in his possession illicit liquors "such as is prohibited and that by so doing he "has maintained a common nuisance" in recorder's court with Judge Ben H. Thomas, presiding.

Judge Thomas placed $100 fine and the costs upon the defendant and ordered the restaurant "closed by the police."

Suggs appealed to Edgecombe county Superior court and bond was fixed at $200.

The defendant was found not guilty of violation of a section of the new control act relating to possession of "illicit liquors for the purpose of sale."

Two negroes, allegedly employees of Suggs, however, were found guilty and were sentenced to the roads.

Alexander Hawkins Graham, now Lieutenant Governor of North Carolina, and who is seeking the Democratic nomination for Governor in 1936, was born in Hillsboro, North Carolina, August 9, 1890, the son of John W. and Maggie F. (Bailey) Graham. A. H. Graham, or "Sandy" as he is better known throughout the State, is the third in his family to achieve prominence in public life. His father, Major John W. Graham, after serving throughout the Civil War, was a member of the State Senate for five terms. His grandfather, William A. Graham, was United States Senator, Secretary of the Navy, Speaker of the North Carolina House of Representatives, Governor of North Carolina, Whig nominee for Vice-President in 1852, and afterwards appointed on various boards and commissions, many of which appointments he declined.

A. H. Graham was educated in private schools in Hillsboro, the Episcopal High School at Alexandria, Virginia, and graduated from the University of North Carolina with the A. B. Degree in 1912. During the next year he attended the Law School at the University of North Carolina, and the summer Law School in 1913, and after receiving his law license, attended Harvard Law School for one year.

Cotton Prices Will Be Boosted

Senator Bankhead Says No Justification For Cheaper Cotton

Washington, July 24.—A definite move to bolster a depressed cotton textile market was seen today in a statement by Senator Bankhead (D-Ala.) that there is no justification for cheaper cotton this season.

From another source came an assertion that the Senate agriculture committee's investigation of last March's break in the staple market probably will result in recommendations for market regulations to prevent drastic declines in the future.

Committee investigators have been at work here and in New York for several weeks. The break on March 11 sent the price of cotton tumbling to around 10 cents a pound, two cents below the value of government loans on last year's crop.

The price of cotton today was below the 12-cent point, and there have been fears of lower prices in the future, thus hurting the cotton textile goods market by discouraging present buying.

"It is reported that buyers of cotton goods have largely withdrawn from the market because they believe there is a prospect for cheaper cotton and cheaper cotton textile goods," Bankhead said in a formal statement.

"This is an unfortunate situation for the textile industry and is without justification. No one need to expect cheaper cotton nor cheaper cotton goods this season, but on the contrary textile buyers should recognize that the price is now probably at its lowest point."

Bankhead reiterated statements by members of the Southern cotton bloc that continuance of 12 cents a pound loans on the 1935 crop was assured, and added it was hoped the loan will be 13 cents.

COUNTY WILL APPLY FOR FUNDS TO CARRY ON BUILDING PROGRAM

Hog Prices Reach New 5-Year Highs

Eleven-Dollar Hog Appears On Chicago Livestock Market For First Time Since 1930

Chicago, July 23.—Hog prices at many points throughout the midwest today reached the highest figure in nearly five years.

The $11 hog reappeared on the Chicago livestock market for the first time since September 22, 1930. This figure, plus the $2.25 government processing tax made hogs cost buyers $13.25.

Unseasonably slim receipts, the result of last summer's drought and the government's hog curtailing program together with the announcement by the department of agriculture in Washington yesterday that inspected hog slaughter for the current market year will be the smallest in 25 years, were bullish factors over the midwest generally.

Trading at Chicago was fairly inactive on lighter weights and packing hogs. Prices were from 10 to 15 cents higher generally, and with spots up more.

Dictator's Fall Causes Wild Joy In Mexico City

Students Celebrate Jubilantly The Overthrow Of Tabasco Ruler

SEVERAL THOUSAND HANG DEPOSED MAN IN EFFIGY

Mexico City, July 24.—Mexican students today celebrated jubilantly the overthrow of Tomas Garrido Canabal, dictator of Tabasco state, as peasants in Tamaulipas State continued their bloodless fight to oust General Rafael Villarreal.

Several thousand students hung Garrido in effigy on one of the Capital's principal avenues this afternoon in token of the anti-church leader's downfall. Garrido's power was broken when President Lazaro Cardenas intervened to remove his protege, Governor Miguel Lastra.

Bells of the Mexico City Cathedral, the oldest in America, rang out for the first time in many years as the students, after hanging the effigy, paraded to the cathedral in continuation of their celebration.

Meanwhile, reports to the War department said complete order prevailed in Tabasco, which was placed under semi-military control after Gen. Miguel Henriquez, known to be loyal to the Federal government, took over as Tabasco military commander.

Agitation continued, however, in Tamaulipas, where peasants rising peacefully yesterday overthrew municipal councils in 22 towns and forced 14 others to withdraw their recognition of Villarreal as governor.

Reports from Ciudad Victoria, the capital, said an estimated 6,000 agrarians were massed there demanding Villarreal's resignation.

The governor himself hurried to Tampico to confer with Secretary of the Interior Barba Gonzalez who flew there from the capital to investigate the situation on behalf of President Cardenas.

Violent action by the peasants appeared threatened at Matamoros and other Tamaulipas towns but persons conversant with the state situation said they did not believe Villarreal could be overthrown by violence. They expressed the belief President Cardenas would ask the Federal congress to remove him after Barba Gonzalez' return from Tampico.

At Tampico the interior secretary conferred with representatives of the thousands of workers and peasants who asked Villarreal's removal, asserting he was "guilty of numerous crimes and immoralities."

The Tampico council also asked that he be ousted on the grounds that it was unable to work with him.

Belief that Villarreal's days were numbered was strengthened by reports that Emilio Portes Gil, president of the National Revolutionary (Government) party, was backing the movement against him. However, the governor said over the telephone that he would be able to "dominate the situation," and declared 600,000 supporters were ready to defend him "with blood and fire."

Commissioners In Session Wednesday Decided To File Tentative Application For School Buildings

AGGREGATES $170,000

The County Board of Commissioners decided Wednesday that they would file an application with the PWA for $170,000 to carry out a proposed building program among the schools of the county. This money, if received, will go toward erecting and equipping a fourteen-room school building at Helena, a fourteen-room building in the western section of the county, location to be decided on later, a six room addition at Roxboro High School, and the placing of adequate toilet facilities in Roxboro Central School.

The application that the county attorney will file with the PWA administration will be regarded as tentative. That is the Commissioners have not definitely made up their minds whether or not the county is able to undertake such a heavy burden at this time, but that by the time the application is made, studied and passed on they will have made their decision, and, if the funds are available, the program will be ready to proceed or be dropped, depending on the action of the commissioners.

The proposal is to apply for $170,000, forty-five per cent of which will be a direct grant under the five billion relief fund, and fifty-five per cent of which will be loaned to the county at four per cent. This fifty-five per cent amounts to $93,500 that the county would have to borrow.

'Cyclone Mack' Dies In South Carolina

Noted Evangelist Passes Monday. Funeral Held On Wednesday

Funeral services were held Wednesday at Bennettsville, S. C. for Cyclone Mack, Baxter P. McLendon, noted South Carolina evangelist who passed away Monday.

Cyclone Mack was noted in this state where he had preached on many occasions. Himself a convert from roughneck to righteousness, he was ever the friend of the sinner, with particular love for the man addicted to drink.

Regarded as the largest money maker in the evangelistic field, Billy Sunday excepted, Mack was dirt poor when death took him. He had given all his money away.

It is said that he anticipated his death for several years. On one occasion he wrote, "I am life tired." Back in 1928 when many ministers were fighting Al Smith because of his wet platform, Cyclone Mack refused to attack the candidate, attempting to show his congregations that the 18th Amendment was doomed.

Mr. McLendon had many personal friends in North Carolina, as well as elsewhere. Governor Bickett had him as a guest in the executive mansion when he was governor and Cameron Morrison was counted among the strong friends of the religious campaigner.

Mr. R. L. Perkins announced Wednesday that a free trip to the State Fair in Raleigh would be given to that person showing the largest number of pure-bred cattle at the Cattle Show to be staged here on September 4-5th.

Plans for the show are shaping up and it is expected that practically all of the owners of cattle in the county will want to enter. Mr. Sanders is calling a meeting for Tuesday, July 30, in the court house for all those who might be interested in entering cattle. Everyone is invited to attend this meeting.
