

THIS WEEK IN WASHINGTON

Washington, Sept. 9 (Autocaster)—The President, after a short vacation, is going on the road to sell the New Deal to the people of the U. S.

First on his list of goods is the Social Security Act, with old age pensions for everybody and unemployment insurance for industrial workers.

For everybody's benefit, the President can display the new Banking Act, increasing the Federal Reserve Board's control of credits; the act for the Federal regulation of public utility holding companies; the interstate bus and truck regulation act, and the billion-dollar appropriation for national defense.

Also, In Sample Case—

The bulkier item in his sample case is the $4,800,000,000 appropriation for Work Relief. It is calculated to appeal strongly to people of every section and class.

For the coal miners and the bituminous coal industry he can point with justifiable pride to the Guffey-Snyder Act, applying NRA principles to the soft-coal industry.

Those are only the major items of New Deal legislation enacted at the session of Congress just ended. There is still much unfinished business in both Houses.

Four Months From Now

Some of the New Dealers are insisting that all of those left-over laws and a few more must be enacted at the next session of this congress, which will begin next January.

The Supreme Court may also figure in the picture. It is expected to pass this Fall on some more of the New Deal legislation of the previous Congress, if not of this one.

The Congressional recess will not mean a long vacation for many of the members. Seven Senate Committees and eight of the House will carry on investigations of a wide range of public questions.

Surveying the congressional debris left lying around in the mad rush of the boys on Capital Hill to get back home, one item stands out. That is the failure to pass the Patman bonus bill over the President's veto.

THE BOOK

the first line of which reads, "The Holy Bible," and which contains Four Great Treasures

by BRUCE BARTON

THE CRITICISMS OF VOLTAIRE AND PAINE

The newspapers of New York and London, of Paris and Rome, to say nothing of the universities in those and other countries, would charter ships to rush scholars and photographers and telegraphers to that place if any new book by a disciple of Jesus were found.

In the eighteenth century, that vitriolic genius, Voltaire, spoke of the Bible as a short-lived book:

The Scripture was his jest-book, whence he drew Bon mots to gail the Christian and the Jew.

I have now gone through the Bible, as a man would go through a wood with an axe, and felled trees. Here they lie, and the priests replant them, but they will never make them grow.

If a modern American author writes a book which has a moderately good sale in this country, and a London publisher takes over an edition and sells it in England, the author thinks well of his efforts.

Sunday School by HENRY LESSON RADCLIFFE

TIMOTHY

International Sunday School Lesson for September 15, 1935.

GOLDEN TEXT: "Give diligence to present thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, handling aright the word of truth." 2 Tim. 2:15.

Lesson Text: 2 Timothy 1:1-14.

Second Timothy is the last writing of Paul the Apostle, as far as we know, at least, it is the last he wrote which we have today.

Timothy was a native of Lystra, a city in Central Asia Minor. During his first missionary journey Paul preached there, incurring the enmity of some who stoned him.

The pastoral epistles known as first and second Timothy, were addressed to Timothy, serving as head of the new faith at Ephesus, where according to tradition, he later met a martyr's death.

Most of our information about Timothy comes through Paul. In one of the selections of our lesson text he pays tribute to the genuine faith which actuated Timothy.

At that time the religious writings consisted only of the Old Testament, whereas today we are much richer in the possession of the New Testament as well.

Using the mails to defraud is unlawful unless you have a high-class lawyer to show you how.

Keeps Her Promise

CHICAGO ... Two years ago, in 1933 Mrs. Adena Miller Rich (above), wife of a Chicago stock broker, promised the late Jane Addams that some day she would accept the post as President of Hull House.

NEW PICTURES

(Opinions are based upon the reports of P. S. Harrison, noted New York critic, whose reviews serve as confidential guides to theatre men all over the United States.)

"Alice Adams" (RKO) Kathrine Hepburn and Fred McMurtry. Exceptionally fine entertainment in both production and acting.

"Top Hat" (RKO) Fred Astaire and Ginger Rodgers. Excellent! There is no doubt that it will satisfy the Astaire-Rodgers fans as much as their other pictures.

"Page Miss Glory" (Warner Bros.) Marion Davies, Pat O'Brien, Dick Powell. Despite a lavish production and of hard work by all the members of the cast, this never rises much above the level of fair entertainment.

"Harmony Lane" (Mascot) Douglass Montgomery, Evelyn Venabel and Adrienne Ames. "Harmony Lane" is fine entertainment. The plot has been based on the story of Stephens Foster and does not leave one depressed although his life was not a happy one.

"After The Dance" (Columbia) Nancy Carroll and George Murphy. Fair. The plot is far-fetched but holds the attention pretty well.

"This Woman Is Mine" (Paramount) with Gregory Ratoff. Fair. Provides some thrills by Ratoff, as lion tamer, entering the cage to put the lions through their tricks but Ratoff portrays an unpleasant character.

Refreshing Relief

When You Need a Laxative Because of the refreshing relief it has brought them, thousands of men and women, who could afford much more expensive laxatives, use Black-Draught when needed. It is very economical, purely vegetable, highly effective. Mr. J. Lester Roberson, well known hardware dealer at Martinsville, Va., writes: "I certainly can recommend Black-Draught as a splendid medicine. I have taken it for constipation and the dull feelings that follow, and have found it very satisfactory."

BLACK-DRAUGHT
