ROXBORO MARKET AVERAGES $23.28 FOR SEASON TO DATE

Market Has Sold More Than
Two And One-Half Million
Pounds Through
Friday's Sale

With 2,684,651 pounds which brought $625,134.87 at an average of $23.28 for the season through the sale of Friday the Roxboro market points to a new high in sales for this season. From the very first it was evident that buyers on the Roxboro market were determined to keep abreast the markets surrounding us and as the season has advanced prices have advanced and Roxboro is right along with them.

One thing is evident from the above figures, which, by the way, are absolutely authentic and that is that the Roxboro market brings just as much for tobacco as any other market, and, in some cases, it has been known to bring much more.

A grower stopped a staff correspondent of this newspaper on the street the other day and said that, though he had been selling some on other markets, his tobacco was Roxboro bound from now on, for he had found that this market paid just as much, if not more, for his tobacco and he was saved a long haul. These testimonials are not unusual, for more and more farmers are learning that Roxboro is the place to sell.

With four modernly equipped warehouses operated by wide-awake warehousemen and buyers representing every major company Roxboro offers many advantages over other surrounding markets and is the logical place to sell your tobacco.

Here's What A Perfect Protection Policy Will Do

- $4.00 for each day that you are wholly disabled and confined to the house.
- $2.00 for each day that you are wholly disabled but not confined to the house. (These benefits begin on the FIRST DAY and continue for a period of six months jointly.)
- $100.00 every month commencing after six months of continuous disability, and payable thereafter as long as you are totally disabled, for fifty-four months.
- Your premiums will be waived by the company during the period benefits are paid under No. 3, and for so long thereafter as you are totally and continuously disabled.
- (No deductions will be made from the face of the policy for any of the above benefits paid.)
- $10,000 payable to your beneficiary at your death from natural cause.
- $20,000 payable to your beneficiary in the event of your death from accidental causes.
- Liberal cash loan extended insurance values as shown in the policy. We can write a policy from $500 up. KNIGHT'S INSURANCE AGENCY.

VISITING IN RICHMOND

Mr. C. E. Davidson, manager of the Western Union, is spending several days in Richmond with his sons and their families including his little granddaughter, Betty Jean, and grandson, Charles Edward, III.

KILLER SITS DOWN TO EAT IN ROOM WITH DEAD BODY

Clutching the rusty pistol in his coat pocket, licorice-skinned Van Joyner sat down hard in the chair and his head pitched forward—dead, four bullets in his skull.

It was dinnertime Sunday. When the police arrived, Tom Fletcher, another Negro, was sitting at the table eating with one hand and pointing his pistol at the dead man with the other.

There were four empty cartridges in Tom's revolver and the hammer had been snapped on the fifth shell.

Van's body still was sitting in the chair, bent forward so far that his head touched the floor between his legs. One slug had ranged downward through his head and had come out at his chin.

When Coroner Waring lifted Van's shoulders, he found the bullet lodged in his chest, between his sweater and his coat. The coroner had to cut away the coat to free Van's arm and the pistol from his pocket.

"Mit" Joyner, Van's brother, was admitted to the room. He took one look at his brother's body, at the congealing blood on the floor. He turned to the coroner. "Let me take off his shoes," he said. "Mit's" own shoes were tattered.

Outside, a gaping crowd of Negroes

Ward's Tobacco Tags At Roxboro High School

The Ward's Tobacco Tags will be at Roxboro High School, Friday night, November 22, sponsored by the Daughters of America.

Come bring the whole family, and spend an evening of good, clean entertainment.

Admission: Adults 25c, children 15c. Time, 8:00 P. M. at the Roxboro High School Auditorium.

INVITATION

I want to announce to all of my friends that I have moved my Cafe to 209 Mangum Street. It is on the main entrance from Roxboro to Main Street, Durham. It is right in front of the fire station, where the shooting gallery was. I am always glad to see my friends from Roxboro. Roxboro seems more like home to me than any place I have ever been.

Angelo Kondaglanis.

Methodist Revival Closed Sunday With Night Service

Twenty Taken Into Church
During Series Of Services
Conducted During Week

Rev. J. F. Herbert, pastor of Long Memorial Methodist Church, brought to a close the series of services that he has been conducting at his church with the Sunday evening service. Beginning with Sunday, November 10th, Mr. Herbert had been preaching each evening, except Saturday, throughout the week, holding two services on Sunday. The fine messages that he had prepared for the series and the excellent singing led by Rev. L. S. Holloway of Duke University had attracted fine crowds throughout the week.

At the Sunday morning service the pastor baptized ten children into the church, and during the series ten others were received by letter or by profession of faith, making a total of twenty members received.

His inspired messages caused his audiences to leave the church at the end of each service with much food for thought in the application of his words to their own lives. It was an excellent meeting and the pastor is to be congratulated that he has been able to wind up a most successful four-year pastorate at Long Memorial with such an inspirational series of services.

Judge Bears Down On Law Breakers In 2-Day Session

Recorder Sends Ten To Roads,
Fines Others, Frees Two
In 2-Day Session Of Recorder's Court This Week

Judge W. I. Newton administered heavily in dishing out punishment to law breakers in the two-day session of Recorder's Court held here Tuesday and Wednesday. Ten men were sent to the roads as follows: four for larceny, four for an assault with a deadly weapon, and two for driving automobiles while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

Trying thirty cases in all the Court found sufficient evidence for conviction in twenty-eight of them, freeing two defendants, both charged with reckless driving.

Four defendants fell victims to the new Driver's License Law, in that they had them revoked before they received them. One, convicted of driving while drunk, received instructions to turn his driver's license over to the Clerk of the Court when it was received. He was prohibited from operating an automobile for twelve months. The remaining three, convicted of reckless driving, were fined and their licenses revoked for a period of six months.

Ten were found guilty of illegal possession and fined from $10.00 to $15.00. Five were found guilty of assault with deadly weapons and fined from $15.00 to $50.00. One defendant was found guilty of carrying concealed weapons and fined $20.00.

City Tags Will Be Green and Black For Coming Year

1936 Tags Of Green Letters On Black
Background To Go On Sale
December 1st

Roxboro city tags for 1936 will be made up in colors of green and black, the letters being green placed on a black background. These will correspond with the state tags, according to information obtained at the city office.

Sale of these tags will begin on December 1st, but automobile operators will not be required to have them until January 1st, 1936. However, all motorists residing within the city limits of Roxboro are urged to buy their tags before the first of the new year, as the law will be rigidly enforced after that date.

Kitchin Harris Suffers Severe Fire Loss Sunday

Prominent Farmer Loses Home
With All Contents When Fire Destroys Structure

Mr. Kitchin Harris, prominent farmer who lives on the Roxboro-Virginia highway about four miles east of Roxboro, had the misfortune to have his home burned late Sunday afternoon. The origin of the fire is unknown, as neither Mr. Harris nor any of his family were at home at the time of the conflagration.

The exact time of the fire is not known, though it is understood that it must have caught some time in the late afternoon. Some passers-by said that they saw no sign of fire at about 5:45 P. M. Sunday afternoon when they went by, but in a few minutes the blaze was discovered. The entire structure was a total loss, it burning to the ground. Nothing within the building was saved, as the fire had made good headway when discovered.

It is understood that the loss is partly covered by insurance.

Protest Faulty School Busses

Grand Jury Says Transportation System In Granville Is "Deplorable"

Condemnation of six school busses is recommended by the Granville county grand jury, which has sent to the State School Commission a set of resolutions terming the school transportation system in Granville "deplorable."

The trucks recommended to be condemned serve schools in Stem, Berea, Oak Hill, Creedmoor and Stovall. Two are 12 years old, two are eight years old and the other two are seven years old.

Claude Gaddy, assistant secretary of the State School Commission in charge of transportation, admitted last night that the school bus equipment in Granville county "is not what it ought to be," but said that Granville has been getting the largest number of bus replacements of any county in the State.

"When the State took over the school system in 1933, Granville's school bus equipment was a pile of junk," stated Mr. Gaddy. He emphasized that new busses are being sent to Granville as fast as the State can purchase them.

Resolutions sent to the commission by the grand jury follow:

"W, the grand jury of Granville county, have made a thorough investigation of the transportation system of the Granville county schools, and find the following deplorable conditions: Many busses are having to leave home by light early in the morning because of having to make two long trips. The busses do not get all the children back home in the afternoon until almost dark. Two trips would be permissible when the roads are good and the trips short, but no bus should have to leave for the first child until 7:30. This situation, we understand, is brought about because of the elimination of busses by the State School Commission. In 1932-33 there were 63 busses which were turned over to the State. In 1934-35 the fleet was reduced to 56. This year the fleet has been reduced to 42 with the prospect, as we understand it, for only two more new ones, making 44."

"The grand jury recommends that the six trucks be condemned because their mechanism is unsafe to transport children."

RETURNED HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Dr. W. H. Adair returned home Sunday from Watts hospital where he underwent an operation the first of last week. He is reported to be recovering nicely and it is expected that he will be out in a few days.

Second School Month Ends As Teachers Get Pay

$14,178.30 Paid For Teachers'
Salaries; $297.50 To Truck
Drivers; $280.00 To The Janitors

$14,755.80 has already been paid out or will have been paid out in the next few days to teachers, truck drivers and janitors of the schools in Person County for services given during the second month of the school year, which ended Monday, November 11.

Of this amount $14,178.30 went to pay 172 teachers in the county. The two agricultural teachers are paid from a different fund and their salaries are not included in this amount. $297.50 was paid to 35 truck drivers for bringing children to school and delivering them home again in the afternoon each school day in the month. $280.00 went to 14 janitors of the schools in the county.

Splitting the total amount paid to teachers for services one can readily see that each teacher is paid an average of $82.43, while truck drivers receive an average pay of $8.50 per month. The janitors average salary for services in the Person County schools amounts to $20.00 per month.

Taking the twenty per cent increase that was granted teachers this year over last by the 1935 session of the General Assembly figures show that the average salary has jumped from $65.95 to its present level of $82.43, or an average increase of $16.48.

Methodist Pastors Leave This Week For Conference

Annual Conference Will Meet
In Wilmington Beginning
On Wednesday

All Methodist Pastors in Person County, a part of the North Carolina Conference, are making preparations to attend the annual conference of the church which will meet in Wilmington, N. C., on Wednesday. The sessions of the conference will last thru next Sunday.

Rev. J. F. Herbert, pastor of Long Memorial Methodist Church, is winding up his four-year pastorate here, which is the usual period assigned to any Methodist minister. However, regardless of denomination, it is the universal hope that the conference will see fit to return Mr. Herbert and his family to Roxboro and to Long Memorial again this year. He has done a splendid work as leader of this church and has been actively interested in other phases of civic life, and it will be with regret that Roxboro sees him leave, should he not be returned to his pastorate here. Every possible effort and influence is being extended to have him come back again next year.

So far as this office has been able to ascertain the other Methodist ministers in Person County will be returned, none of them having completed their four-year pastorates. It is the hope of all that these fine pastors will be returned to their present charges for at least another term.

NEW MOVIE - MAKING IDEA MAKES HOLLYWOOD DEBUT

Hollywood, Nov. 17—The most unusual movie premiere in Hollywood's history was staged tonight.

Limousines cavalcaded up in front of the Beverly Christian Church. Instead of a super-super spectacle, the audience saw a simple, 66-minute film tersely discussing the subject, "Are We Civilized?"

As a final dissimilarity, the image was thrown on a regulation size screen but a vest-pocket projector, using 16-millimetre film—the "home movie" camera size—instead of regulation 35-millimetre negative.

The picture was the first product of a new movie-making idea in Hollywood.

"Our pictures will not be aimed toward the general public," said Edwin Carewe, the producer. "We are making them expressly for use in churches, schools, and for similar organizations."

"That means that, while they will be entertaining, they will be educational sometimes, and clean all the time."

The producer said researches show that about 25,000,000 people in the United States never go to the mov-

CCC Camp Corps Begin Terracing Work In County

Work Started On Farm Of W.
A. Whitfield Of R. No. 3. Interested Farmers Urged To Join Soil Conservation Association.

By H. K. SANDERS

The CCC Camp at Oxford has recently begun work on the farm of Mr. W. A. Whitfield, of R. No. 3, near Somerset Mill, building outlets of the terrace lines built by Mr. W. A. Whitfield with the Person Terracing Unit.

The members of the CCC organization are opening the outlets of the terraces into the woods or water channels, and they expect to build regular dams at the mouths of these terraces where needed to prevent further soil erosion. They have done considerable work in stopping gullies on Mr. Whitfield's farm. When the work is completed Mr. Whitfield should have a farm properly terraced, with splendid outlets, for the prevention of Soil Erosion on his farm.

If you desire similar work on your farm, the present plan is for you to join the Person County Soil Conservation Association at the Countys Agent's office. This makes it possible for the CCC Camp Technician to call on you regarding a system of Farm Management that will fit in (Continued On Page Four)

County Health Nurse Addresses Bethel Hill High Students

Mrs. Ruth O'Briant Delivers Fourth
Address In Series Of Vocational Guidance Lectures.

On Tuesday morning, November 12, Mrs. Ruth O'Briant, County Nurse, gave the fourth of a series of vocational guidance lectures to the students of Bethel Hill High School. With enthusiasm for her profession, Mrs. O'Briant discussed nursing in a manner which was very interesting and instructive. Red Cross nursing, emergency nursing, and nursing on a Floating Hospital were phases of her discussion. Speaking from experience, Mrs. O'Briant described a typical day in Red Cross nursing. "If," said Mrs. O'Briant, "you want a life filled with service, beauty, sweetness, hardship, and joy, the field of nursing stands as a challenge to you."
