Woodsdale, N. C., RFD. No. 1

Dear Santa Claus:
Being that Christmas is drawing near, I thought I would write you a few lines and maybe you would hook up your Reindeer to the sleigh and carry the toys away to all the little poor children over the way. Carry all the one so dear a little Christmas cheer and may they have a Happy and joyful New Year. Please bring grandpa and grandpa lots of good things to eat. Don't forget my little first cousins, Simon, Rober, Early and Ivy Green. Bring Simon a saw, hammer and some nails, and some things to eat. Bring the others something nice to eat and their father and mother something nice too. Bring my mother and aunt Nora a box of snuff. You will have to come in the door as our chimney is quite small. Bring some apples, oranges, sugare plum and candy. Don't forget my second cousins, James, Jack and Elmer Watson. Bring them something nice and their mother and father, also.

Remember all my other uncles, cousins and aunts that live far away. So

I guess my letter is long enough so goodbye. I remain as ever, your pal, Erma Bowes
