HIGH POINT AUTO PARTY MEET WITH SERIOUS ACCIDENT

There was a very serious auto accident yesterday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock about 3 1/2 miles from Greensboro, near the Hiatt place, and about two miles east of the Millis farm, in which Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Wilson and A. T. Beaver, of High Point, and Mr. H. C. Fortman, travelling salesman for John Duer & Sons, Baltimore, were severely injured. Yesterday being a holiday quite a number of people were out picnicking and attending the ball games at Greensboro and Winston. Mr. Wilson made up a party and started to Greensboro. At the place designated above, the auto struck something in the road which caused a sudden turning. Mr. Wilson, who was driving the machine, tried to right it, when the machine turned over and then turned back again, throwing the occupants out, all of them striking on their shoulders and heads. The front of the machine was turned towards High Point, with axles bent, steering gear broke and otherwise demolished.

Two of the occupants were rendered unconscious. Mrs. Wilson and Mr. Fortman, Mr. Wilson was unconscious for about an hour. As soon as possible the accident was made known to some neighbors and very soon there was plenty of help from Mr. Hiatt's family and others, who brought bandages and liniment and did everything in their power to alleviate the sufferings of the injured. Mr. Farley went out in his machine and brought the party in, reaching the city about 6 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were attended by Drs. Turner and Jones at their office and Mr. Beaver and Fortman by Dr. Stanton at the Elwood.

News of the accident spread very rapidly over the community and there were many inquiries as to the condition of the injured. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were able to go to their homes early in the night.

The Injuries.

Mrs. Wilson—gash over eye, cut on cheek and forehead, arm and hand sprained.
Mr. Wilson—Three gashes on his head and face, back sprained.
Mr. Beaver—Collar-bone broke, large gash on left side of head, bruised on hands.
Mr. Fortman—gash over eye and bruised in several places on face, bruised about the body.
From what the Enterprise could learn none of the injuries will prove permanent and it is hoped that few scars will be left. Mr. Wilson will probably have to remain in bed three weeks, while Mr. Beaver's broken collar-bone will keep him away from business two or three weeks. Mr. Fortman hopes to be able to go home tomorrow night.
The accident is the worst that has occurred among the automobilists here and the occupants of the car are fortunate that they came out as well as they did.

DR. BURRUS RETURNS.

Dr. J. T. Burrus, who has been in New York attending lectures and doing special work at the Polytechnic for several weeks, returned home Sunday, after a very profitable stay at this famous institution.

NEW ADS.

Allen Brothers—Exclusive agents for High Point of the Red Cross Shoe.
N. H. Silver—W. L. Douglas Shoe.

The Philanthropic Department of the Woman's Club will meet with Mrs. W. H. Ragan Wednesday afternoon.

DEATH OF PENN PICKETT

The sympathy of the people of this entire community goes out to Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Pickett on account of the death of their eldest son, William Penn Pickett, which occurred at the sanitarium at Montrose Sunday evening about 6 o'clock. The remains were brought home yesterday afternoon, accompanied by John Pickett, J. M. Harrell and James Hilliard, who were with deceased at the time of his death.

William Penn Pickett was born in High Point, December 18th, 1886, and was consequently in his 24th year at the time of his death. He was educated in the city schools and afterwards held a position at the Commercial National Bank. About two years ago he had an attack which disclosed symptoms of tuberculosis. Since that time he has fought bravely and patiently for improvement without avail. Last summer he spent some time in the mountains of North Carolina and some of the time this winter at Montrose. His strength was not equal to the battle and on Sunday evening he passed peacefully away.

Penn Pickett was a bright, promising boy, full of life and hope, and was a favorite at home and among his many young friends. His demise is a sore affliction to the family and their many friends in the community sympathize with them in their deep sorrow. He was a Christian boy and died with the full hope of a better resurrection.

The funeral services were held this afternoon at 3 o'clock from Main Street M. P. church, conducted by Rev. A. G. Dixon and Rev. W. R. Lowdermilk. The attendance was large and the floral offerings very beautiful.

DAVIDSON WINS

Davidson won in the annual debate from Wake Forest in a spirited contest for the silver cup before a large audience in Greensboro yesterday. The base ball honors had been lost to Davidson but they came out long on oratory.

Until next Easter Monday, when the Presbyterians and Baptists will again send forth their best orators with the sole purpose of providing a permanent resting place for the trophy.

The question "Resolved, That the Legislative Initiative and Referendum Should Be Introduced in Our State Governments," was one that has puzzled the ablest statesmen of the country for a generation and the manner in which the debaters presented the four able arguments was a distinct credit, not only to them, but to the colleges which they represent. In upholding the affirmative Messrs. H. B. Jones and J. B. Eller, of Wake Forest, presented the subject in a forceful and eloquent manner, and though vanquished by Messrs. W. H. R. Campbell and D. A. Lynch, they were not without glory and in the demonstration that followed the announcement of the judges, Hon. J. C. Buxton, W. P. Bynum and R. M. Douglass, they received just as much of an ovation as did the victors.

NOTICE.

Attention is called to the ordinance about sweeping the sidewalks in front of the business houses.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKERS

The speakers for the next annual commencement of the High Point High School have been secured.

Right Rev. Robert Strange, of Wilmington, Bishop of East Carolina, will preach the sermon on Sunday morning, May 8. Prof. E. C. Brooks, of Trinity College, Durham, will deliver the annual address on Monday evening, May 9. The school and the city are to be congratulated on such good fortune. It is not putting it too strong to say that Bishop Strange is not surpassed in this country as a pulpit orator. He is especially strong in talking to young people. His sermon will surely be an event to be remembered.

Prof. Brooks is one of the two or three most prominent and influential school men in the state. After a brilliant record as a school superintendent, he was called to Trinity College to organize the new Department of Education, where he is doing some really constructive work for the educational development of North Carolina. He is editor of North Carolina Educator, a monthly journal which is a worthy exponent of the teaching profession of the state.

SATURDAY NIGHT CLOSING.

Sunday morning one week ago all the pastors in town called attention to the propriety and to the advisability of closing all stores and shops not later than nine o'clock on Saturday nights. This would be a great relief to all the working forces in all the stores, and now that we are just at that season when all the merchants are closing earlier in the evenings any way, why not all make an effort at an early Saturday closing as well.

The merchants would sell just as many goods and the people would be just as well supplied as with the present arrangements.

A great deal of loafing and hanging around on the streets would be broken up and people generally would get to their homes earlier. Nothing that we can think of would help to increase the attendance at Sunday school and at the church services more than the early Saturday closing. It will be good for the merchants and good for the trading people, and all can begin to get ready Saturday night for the Sunday service.

RECEPTION TO-NIGHT

The reception of the Manufacturers Club tonight will be from 9 to 11:30. All the members and their families, together with lady visitors are cordially invited. Music by the Italian Band, one of the best in the state.

STILL BEARING FRUIT

When the State Missionary Society met here last year the Enterprise presented each lady, about 400 of them, with a book of High Point. At the meeting at Oxford last week a score of ladies mentioned the matter again and gave evidence of their appreciation of this handsome souvenir which has been doing good work for our city.

TRIED TO BURN OUT FARMERS' GROCERY STORE

Early Sunday morning fire was discovered in the Farmers' Cash Grocery Store, in the Simmons block, on Main street, recently opened by Mr. W. F. Hackler, who came here from Roanoke. The fire companies responded promptly and extinguished the flames. There was considerable damage to the stock by the smoke and water and the walls of the building were blackened and charred in places. There is considerable evidence that it was a case of spite work or down right meanness by some one and the officers are now working on a clue with the hopes of running down the guilty parties. An entrance was made at the back door by breaking two glass near where the key hung, securing the key and thereby having free access to the store. From the back door to the center of the room there were drops of gasoline on the floor, showing that the parties used gasoline with which to start the fire.

Mr. Hackler came here only a short time ago and was doing a good business. He had a small amount of insurance on stock and fixtures, fortunately, which he had applied for only a few days before. He will open up business again as soon as the loss is adjusted.

FOUND IN RIVER

TRAGEDY IN RANDOLPH

Asheboro, March 28.—The body of Martin Luther was found by Jesse Luther and Rufus Easter in Uwharrie river today. This young man disappeared from home on November 10, 1909, and had never been heard from since. He was tracked to the river and the river was dragged for several weeks, but nothing could be found and it was believed by many that he had run away or had been enticed from home.

A reward of $200 was offered for him. He evidently committed suicide and it is thought that it was on account of his people insisting on his going to school.

REVIVAL SERVICES.

The revival services at South Main Street M. E. church continue through this week. Rev. J. H. West came in on train No. 46 yesterday and preached last night. His discourse based on Peter's failure as a fisherman when the Master was absent and his marvelous catch when the Master was present, was full of inspiration and spiritual suggestiveness. The revival starts off well and we again extend a hearty invitation to every one to come and enjoy the services with us.

Services at 3 p. m. and 7:30 p. m.
Rev. J. H. West, of Wadesboro, will be in on train No. 46, arriving here at 5:55 and will preach tonight. Come early and join heartily in the song services. Everybody come and take an active part in the good work.

AT THE EAGLE.

The show at the Eagle tonight is exceptionally good. The O'Connor Sisters character, singing and dancing, is fine. The best since Maude Kramer.

New Fitzgibbon, a violinologist, this act is out of the ordinary and simply fine.

The entire show last night including the Wild West picture; "On the War Path," received unstinted applause by the large crowds attending.
Of course you like the Blind Boy's music.

EASTER BASEBALL

A large crowd was out to see the interesting game yesterday between the Pleasant Garden High School and the local High School team. The visitors were the victors in this game, the score being 17 and 6.

Gibsonville Went Down Before Whitsett.

In the presence of 400 people, Whitsett defeated Gibsonville in a one-sided game at Whitsett yesterday afternoon. Four innings the contest promised to be a warm one, but in the fifth the Whitsett boys jumped on Christopher, and from that time the result was never in doubt, the final score being 10 to 0 in favor of Whitsett.

Lafayette Won Game on Carolina's Errors.

Winston-Salem, March 28.—One thousand people saw Lafayette college defeat Carolina University here this afternoon 6 to 1. It was a pitcher's battle and but for Carolina's errors, the contest would have been close. The feature, besides the twirling, was a home run made by Duncan for Carolina. The University team is especially weak at third.

Score: R. H. E.
Lafayette ... 000 000 501—6 4 1
University ... 010 000 000—1 3 6
Batteries: Demott and Matson; Hedgepeth, Stewart and Poole.

Trinity Defeats Amherst.

Durham, March 28.—Trinity defeated Amherst here today in one of the most sensational games ever played on the home played a fast game. Gantt, although he allowed several hits, kept them well scattered and pitched a steady game. The batting of Judge was phenomenal, while Henry's catching was a decided feature.

Score: R. H. E.
Amherst ... 000 000 000—0 6 2
Trinity ... 000 100 000—1 2 3
Batteries: McClure and Henry; Gantt and Flowers.

Quakers Defeat Davidson.

In the presence of 1,800 enthusiastic supporters of the opposing colleges, Guilford repeated her former triumphs over Davidson in the annual athletic event at Cone park yesterday—score, Guilford 7, Davidson 4.

The game clearly demonstrated the fact that Guilford has a team that will make the other colleges hustle for the championship. Every man worked with a will and while there were numbers of instances where the fielding was loose, the determination and effort was always shown.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
Guilford ... 103 003 000—7 10 6
Davidson ... 020 200 000—4 7 1
Batteries: Barnes, Shore and Stewart; Bailey, Booe and Mattison.

Summary—Two-base hits: Stewart, Whitaker, Benbow, Doak and Klutz. Stolen bases: Benbow 2, Whitaker 2, Booe and McClure. Struck out: By Shore, 2; Bailey, 5; Barnes, 1. Sacrifice hits: Shore, Davis. Bases on balls: Off Barnes, 4; Shore, 1; Bailey, 3. Time of game, 1:45. Attendance, 1,800. Umpire, Beusse.

LOST—Pocket-book containing about $13.00. Finder will be given a liberal reward.—J. A. Smith, 500 North Main street.

LOST—Pocket-book between the graded school crossing and the Presbyterian church, last Saturday night, containing $7.00 in all. Reward if returned to this office.

Precision!

A word explains it—precision—so perfective, so systematized that no single detail of the manufacture is left to chance.

Accuracy—so positive that each bit of boning must take its place without a hairbreadth's deviation in one model or a million.

They lace in front. Think what that means—the class' back—correct poise—beautiful lines—ease of adjustment with absolute comfort. The proof is in the fitting.
