ICE

Should ice wagons fail to call, please phone our office and we will have them stop. We beg to caution all our patrons to see to it that they secure proper weights. If you experience any trouble in this line or otherwise from our drivers, you will confer a favor by immediately notifying our office. Remember, if you do not do this, we have no other means of correcting the trouble. YOU CAN SAVE FROM 10 TO 20 PER CENT BY PURCHASING ICE COUPON BOOKS IN SIZE OF 500 POUNDS UPWARDS, and in addition help us materially improve the service. This method both eliminates the trouble of making change and drivers handling the cash.

WELCOME SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS

A Personal Word to Every Voter of High Point

For two weeks I have endeavored as best I could to lay before the citizens of High Point the actual facts regarding the proposed BOND ISSUE FOR THE PEOPLE and the lasting benefits which each and every citizen of our city must undoubtedly receive if the bonds are voted next Tuesday. Every section of the city has been taken into consideration and the facts placed before all the people who desired to know more about the city's affairs.

I desire in this letter to reiterate and emphasize a few statements previously made by me, and while a large majority of the voters are favorable to every issue of our campaign, I hope and believe the vote can be made almost unanimous if the people generally will think carefully of their welfare and future prosperity in connection with these important matters.

With an absolute guarantee that the tax rate and the tax values will not be increased on account of the bond issue; with the further guarantee that your insurance rates will positively be still further reduced where fire protection is afforded, and with the still further assurance that the money will be expended in pushing the improvements to streets, fire protection, etc. out into the several sections of our city which have waited so long and so patiently for these great benefits, it does seem to me that no citizen should for one moment hesitate to do his duty in this most important matter.

As to the ability of our city to care for this additional bond issue, there can be no doubt. Our past history in this respect should be taken as an evidence of what we are now, and will be able to do. For the past two years the city has kept absolutely within its income, and has been able by proper business methods and good management to continue some improvements, and there is sufficient money in the bank today to meet all interest payments this summer with still a large amount of taxes to be collected, which will meet every demand until the new taxes begin to come in next fall; and this of course does not include the sinking fund of $7,000.00 now in the bank drawing interest for the people, which is to be applied in wiping out our very first bond issue of more than 20 years ago.

The city was never at any time in the past, in as safe and sound condition to issue bonds for improvements and meet its obligations as it is today, and any citizen can learn these positive and gratifying facts by making for himself a careful examination of the city's books.

For the sake of your families, your homes, your schools, your town, do your duty like men and forever silence the demagogues and little politicians, who for personal spite and political prestige are attempting to mislead the voters by base slanders and contemptible misrepresentations of the affairs of our town.

Regarding my own candidacy I hardly think it necessary to notice or deny the miserable slanders and falsehoods told and printed about me. The people know me, and my efforts in behalf of the city and all its people is an open record, of which I am not ashamed. If re-elected your mayor, I pledge my untiring efforts and constant attention to duty with the hope of helping, in some material way, every citizen of our splendid little city.

Please remember the two big rallies at the Warehouse Saturday night and Monday night next. Good chairs will be provided for every person, and no voter can afford to miss either of these meetings. You will hear things which will make you sit up and wonder why this bitter fight should have been made on us and against your interests at this time.

I sincerely hope you will come and bring every voter with you, and enjoy some fine speeches by a number of our citizens.

Sincerely yours,
Fred N. Tate.

THE FOUR VOTING PRECINCTS.

MR. MATTON'S CONDITION

Mr. George A. Matton, who had a serious attack of illness Monday while at the store is better today, we are pleased to state. Dr. J. A. Turner and Dr. Stokes made an examination last night and they do not think an operation is necessary just now and may not be under continued improvement. The many friends of Mr. Matton hope to see him out again soon.

KILLED BY TRAIN

AWFUL DEATH OF YOUNG MAN.

Special to Enterprise.
Winston, April 26.—Death from internal injuries received when his body was literally crushed between a box car and the engine of a freight train at Rural Hall yesterday afternoon came to Mr. Leonard C. Irvin at the Twin-City hospital last night about 11 o'clock, after a period of intense suffering lasting from 2.30 o'clock until the end came. The body was at once removed to the home of Mr. A. E. Messick in this city, Mrs. Messick being an aunt of the unfortunate young man.

Mr. Irvin was a brakeman on the road between this city and Mt. Airy, having been at work only a short time, supplying for the regular brakeman, Mr. Spaulding. It appears that he met with the horrible and fatal accident yesterday afternoon, while attempting to couple the engine on to a car at Rural Hall, in some way failing to get out of the way in time, and being caught between the great locomotive and the car, with the result that his stomach was so badly crushed that he died within less than 12 hours.

YOUR POLL TAX

IS YOUR 1910 STATE AND COUNTY POLL TAX PAID?

Sometimes we forget and think we have paid our poll tax when we really have not. If you are a poll tax subject, please see for your own satisfaction just how you stand on the books and give this important matter attention TODAY.

Every voter should be in shape to vote next Tuesday and we will take it as a personal favor if you will not only look after your own poll tax in necessary, but that of your friends and neighbors as well.

Mr. Parrish has the books. Please see him at once and confer a special favor on the friends of the present administration and the BOND ISSUE FOR THE PEOPLE.

FOR MURDER

TRIAL OF WATKINS WHO KILLED BUNTING BEGINS TODAY.

Special to Enterprise.
Asheville, April 26.—After successive postponements for almost two years, the second trial of E. C. Watkins, former constable of Black Mountain township, 15 miles from this city, who is charged with the killing of John Hill Bunting, of Wilmington, N. C. in July, 1909, opened in the superior court here this morning.

At the time of the killing of Bunting Watkins also shot and dangerously wounded Paul Collins, of Hillsboro.

The tragely attracted much attention at the time, both of the young men, who were spending vacations at Black Mountain, being well known in their respective communities.

At the first trial, which resulted in a disagreement of the jury, Watkins' defense was that he had shot in self-defense, believing that the two men were about to attack him in the dark after he had been called by the proprietor of the hotel to quell a disturbance which they were alleged to be making.

REV. W. C. TYREE OF OXFORD MAY ACCEPT PASTORATE

Says the Durham Sun:
Rev. Dr. W. C. Tyree, of Oxford, who is assisting Rev. O. W. Triplett, pastor of the West Durham Baptist church, in conducting a series of protracted meetings, has received a call from High Point to become the pastor of the First Baptist church of that place, and it is likely that he will accept. Rev. Tyree is well known in Baptist circles in the state, formerly being pastor of the First Baptist church of Raleigh, which pastorate he resigned to make his home in Oxford. Last week he came to Durham to assist Rev. Triplett in the evangelistic services he is holding at the West Durham church.

HOUSE TO HOUSE VISITATION.

Arrangements are now completed for taking the Sunday school census of High Point on next Friday morning between the hours of 8 and 10 o'clock. It is the purpose to have a home visitor in company with a visiting delegate to call at every home in the city between those hours. In so far as reasonable we ask that the lady of the house be at home and kindly answer the simple questions that will be asked you. Nothing but the kindest motives are intended and no wrong use will be made of the information given.

NO LIST OF DELEGATES TODAY.

We had hoped to publish a list of the delegates to the Sunday School Convention yesterday, but could not get it ready in time. By this time the list would not be approximately correct. We have to make so many changes. Some delegates whose names were sent in are not coming and others are coming in their place, so we cannot publish a list today that would be at all correct.

Those expecting friends will have to keep on the lookout for them. Your committee is very sorry not to give this list to the public, but we have done our very best.

Yours for the committee,
A. G. Dixon.

THE BIG CONVENTION OPENS

Large Number of Delegates Arrive--Session Begins This Afternoon at 3.30

BY MAMIE BAYS

Every indication points to a very auspicious opening of the State Sunday School Convention this afternoon.

There is no Christian organization that reaches so largely and so effectively the masses of the people, in all churches and in all lands, as does the Sunday school. While it is true the Sunday school was organized primarily in the interest of children and young people, its influence and effective work have not been confined within this limit. No gathering of Sunday school workers held today which does not emphasize the fact that some of the most successful among the leaders in this cause and the adherents thereto are found in the person of men and women, and in the calendar no lower class among young people. These, however, as a result of their interest in this great movement for young people and as a result of their constant association with young people have remained young in spirit themselves.

The Sunday school as an organization which knows no limit of denomination or territorial

Additional to the splendidly arranged program which will be presented during the regular sessions of the convention which begins this afternoon, there will be a number of conferences on different methods of Sunday school work which will prove of inestimable value to the delegates in the work which they are doing in their home churches. These conferences will be held after the close of the afternoon sessions of Thursday and Friday, and will be conducted by leaders of ability and experience. Different churches of the city have been designated as the places of meeting of the conferences.

The first session of the convention will be held this afternoon and will consist of a song and devotional service which Mr. and Mrs. Charles Butler, of Springfield, Ill., will conduct, an address of welcome from Hon. E. N. Tate, Mayor of High Point, the response to this address from F. S. W. Dameron, of Burlington, and the annual address of the president of the State association, Rev. R. M. Andrews, of Henderson, who is the president, will speak on the subject, "The Value of a Vision." Mr. Andrews identified with Christian work among young people, and he will be heard with special interest upon this occasion. He is pastor of the Methodist Protestant church in Henderson.

Rev. C. N. Tyndale, D. D., of Fayetteville, and Rev. C. W. Byrd, D. D., of Asheville, will be the speakers at the session to be held this evening. Dr. Tyndale has chosen as his subject, "The Power of the Blood of Christ," and Dr. Byrd will speak on the theme, "The Material of Which the Church is Built, and How to Prepare It."

After the close of the session this evening, the delegates will spend an hour in social intercourse.

Mr. J. Van Carter, general secretary of the State Sunday School Association, deserves much credit for the successful work done in the interest of this convention. He has been untiring in his efforts, and in addition to his official work, he has given to the local committees much valuable aid in their work.

Pickett warehouse has been decorated attractively for the convention. Red, white and blue which are not only the national colors, but are the colors of the International Sunday School Association as well, have been used in the decorations, and additional to these, are mottoes and banners, which are of special significance to Sunday school workers wherever they assemble.
