STORIES OF SUCCESS

CYRUS W. FIELD

The world's tomorrow waits on a young man's today. When Cyrus W. Field, builder of the great Atlantic Cable, began his business career as a errand boy in a dry goods store at $1.00 a week he did not see the tomorrow that would change the commerce of the world. Even then at the age of thirteen, his motto was Industry and Economy. Later in life when he had left the dry goods business as one of the most successful merchants in New York he could not remain idle. When after thirteen years' ceaseless toil, crossing and recrossing the ocean fifty times, the first successful message flashed over the great submarine cable, it proved for all time that persistence wins. Isn't "To Win" also your ambition? By a little economy and thrift we will halve the responsibility with you. Start a savings account with us today. Tomorrow, its persistent increase by added savings, and our four per cent interest, and a timely investment may make you a capita'ist.

The Situation in Mexico Admitted To Be Serious

Special to Enterprise.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—While denying orders issued to state militia to proceed to the border the war department today admitted such orders had been prepared and were awaiting Gen. Wood's signature. Orders are thus prepared to save time in case of necessity. The department will not send troops unless conditions in Mexico City reports the revolt apparently sweeping over Mexico. Rebels control railroads and telegraphs north of Mont Rey.

EX-MAYOR BUFFALO DEAD

Special to Enterprise.
Buffalo, Feb. 9.—John N. Adams, former mayor of Buffalo and former merchant died today of apoplexy.

Want the Best

Glasgow, Feb. 9.—Winston Churchill, at a luncheon today, declared that England intends to maintain naval supremacy of the world regardless of the opinion of any other nation.

Raleigh Aroused

Raleigh, Feb. 8.—That Raleigh has a search and seizure law as stringent as Asheville's was the announcement made tonight at a meeting of 400 citizens to form a Law and Order League, and that this law should be evoked was the unanimous sentiment of the meeting. The league was formed with the adoption of constitution by-laws and election of officers. The officers are: Dr. Charles Lee Smith, president; W. H. Williams, vice-president; T. B. Eldridge, secretary; John Pullen, treasurer. Stinging addresses were made by N. B. Broughton and others.

Japanese Will Build Eighteen War Ships

Special to Enterprise.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—The navy department officials today are hopeful that the Japanese announcement that she will build 18 new warships including eight

FORTY-ONE NEW LAWYERS.

Raleigh, Feb. 8.—Forty-one young men, four of them minors, secured license to practice law in North Carolina at the present term of the Supreme court. Out of the class of 51 only ten failed. The full list of the successful applicants follows:

Arthur A. Bunn, Vance county; Elery G. Brown, Columbus; Goodman H. King, Union; Lawson R. Pierce, Iredell; Paul W. Gay, Northampton; Walter L. Spencer, Hyde; Junius J. Goodwin, Wake; William L. Knight, Northampton; Wheeler Martin, Jr., Macon; Raymond R. Moore, Catawba; Walter R. Bauguese, Ashe; Lindsay C. Warren, Beaufort; Clayton Moore, Martin; Bennett Nooe, Jr., Chatham; Lennox P. McLendon, Anson; Cyrus D. Hogue, Orange; Frederick M. Vals, Virginia; Thomas S. Long, Hyde; Edwin L. Gavin, Sampson; Walter L. Currie, Moore; Cyrus M. Johnson, Wayne; Franklin T. Dupree, Harnett; Jesse E. Carpenter, Randolph; Milton B. Ignatius, state of New York; George A. Marrow, Iredell; George T. Willis, Craven; Lawrence McD. Scott, Beaufort; Robert E. Whitehurst, Craven; Levi W. Ferguson, Forsyth; Brooks Paindexter, Forsyth; George A.

Scores Of Lives Lost

Special to Enterprise.

Madrid, Feb. 9.—There are alarming conditions in Southwestern Spain where thousands of acres are inundated. Scores of lives have been lost. King and Queen left today for the scene. It is reported that the King will take personal charge of the work.

BROKAW INCORPORATES.

Raleigh, Feb. 8.—The Fairview Park Company of High Point was chartered today with $50,000 capital by W. G. Brokaw, the noted millionaire, who has a fine lodge, Fairview, near High Point; W. R. Byford of Charlotte and L. D. Norwood of Salisbury. Real estate improvement, maintenance of parks, hotels, selling mineral water, maintaining light and power plants are among the powers specified. Other charters are for the Leach-Morman Hardware Company (Inc.), Star, Montgomery county, capital $20,000, by Ernest Leach and others; the Wadesboro Hardware Company of Wadesboro, capital $25,000, by B. G. Covington and others, and Ramsaur Brothers Company, Fayetteville, capital $25,000, by Herbert Ramsaur and others to automobile and mercantile business.

(The Fairview park property is located 8 miles south of High Point and is one of the most attractive private estates in the South. Mr. Brokaw has spent a great amount of money on it and we expect will continue to improve it. It was given out recently that Mr. Byford had purchased for Mr. Brokaw a large tract of land in Mecklenburg county but we do not know that the incorporation of Fairview has any hearing on that deal.)

Dreadnaughts, might induce Congress to regard more seriously the department contention that the United States must maintain supremacy in the Pacific by additional ships.

Sparrow, Jr.; Mecklenburg; Campbell B. Fetner, Mecklenburg; James F. Head, New Hanover; Herbert C. Allen, Buncombe; Ernest W. Leary, Chowan; William T. Shore, Mecklenburg; Robert M. Gantt, Cleveland; William C. Coughenour, Rowan; Emmett C. Willis, Wilkes; Edgar W. Pharr, Mecklenburg; William O. Gaffney, Mecklenburg.

Gompers Shows Feeling

Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—Almost weeping with anger with what he said was climax of an effort to humiliate him Gompers made plain to Justice Wright today rather than apologize to the court for alleged contempt. He faced round day's tormenting merciless cross-examination by one of "prosecutors" appointed by the court in renewed proceedings growing out of the Bucks case.

High Point Takes Lead

When High Point gets started on anything there is no stopping until success is assured. Somehow, this year the town got busy about the schools and started them on a way to be the best in the State, and they will not stop short of it. And Wednesday evening at a meeting of the trustees it was voted to send our Superintendent to the meeting of the Department of Superintendence of the National Educational Association which meets in St. Louis, February 26-29.

This, we believe, is the wisest action that could be made by our Board for the further improvement of our schools. It is but a just recognition of our Superintendent's faithful services, and we know he is just the man to get all that is in it out, and return filled with enthusiasm and with many valuable ideas for the improvement of our schools.

His attendance upon this meeting will be an excellent advertisement of our schools and a declaration to the State that High Point proposes to keep up with the educational procession and get her share of the benefits of these great educational gatherings.

STILL PROGRESSING

The intimacy growing between the High Point Academy of Medicine and our city schools is for the betterment of our people, and there is certainly no surer sign or a growing community than the interest taken by one and all of our physicians in the physical welfare of our children. And it does one good to see our schools going on daily toward better things.

The following is a program of talks to be delivered by members of the High Point Academy of Medicine to the different grades of the city schools:

- Dr. Claude Reitzel, 4th grade, Elm street school, February 12.
- Dr. J. T. Burrus, 5th grade, Elm St. school, February 13.
- Dr. J. R. Reitzel, 6th grade, Elm St. school, February 14.
- Dr. J. A. Turner, 5th grade, Main St. school, February 15.
- Dr. C. S. Grayson, 6th grade, Main St. school, February 16.
- Dr. W. G. McCain, 4th grade, Main St. school, February 19.
- Dr. G. F. Duncan, 7th grade, Main St. school, February 20.
- Dr. Skillings, 7th grade, Main Street school, February 21.
- Dr. W. M. Jones, 8th grade, Main St. school, February 22.
- Dr. A. A. Mendez, 8th grade, Main St. school, February 23.
- Dr. D. A. Stanton, 9th grade, Main St. school, February 26.
- Dr. McAnally, 10th grade, Main St. school, February 27.

Shooting at Asheboro

Being told by George Cox to leave his premises Tuesday night about ten o'clock, Ewart Hathcock said that he would go when he got ready; a few minutes later a bystander carried Hathcock off to a neighbor's house—Cox had shot him through the head with a 32-calibre pistol the ball entering the cheek just above the roof of the mouth and continuing its way to the back of his neck where it lodged.—Courier.

W. C. RUSSELL DEAD.

W. C. Russell who has been Superintendent of the Franklinsville Mfg. Co., for a great many years died at his home in Franklinsville yesterday. He was a competent mill man and was well known by many of our readers who will regret to learn of his death.

It will pay you to attend the remnant sale at Alexander's Saturday and Monday.

"Fruit Shower" At Manufacturers Club

On Monday afternoon the Young Woman's Missionary Society of the M. E. Church, will conduct a Fruit Shower at the Manufacturers Club, for the benefit of the Winston-Salem Orphanage. The festivities will begin at 4 p. m. and continue until 5.30 p. m.

Ladies are invited to bring anything in the way of fruits, either canned, preserved or otherwise. Good Old St. Valentine will superintend the occasion, and there will be four of High Point's most beautiful and gracious young women attired in a special costume, furnished by St. Valentine himself, who will make glad the hearts of all who attend by serving to them delicious refreshments, the menu being as follows:

Pimento Sandwiches.
Minc'd meat and olive sandwiches.

Jackson Square Coffee, New Orleans style.

After-dinner mints.

The interior of the Club will be beautifully decorated in accordance with the wishes of St. Valentine. Mr. C. B. Payne, will assist the young ladies in serving the refreshments, he having charge of the making of coffee, and who is now in the city in the interest of a coffee that is fast becoming as famous as was old Any Jackson himself, in the Battle of New Orleans, from whose monument and park located in New Orleans, in memory of this great fighter, was named.

A great treat will be in store for those who attend the fruit shower.

AT THE EAGLE.

In addition to the very pleasant feature of serving delicious coffee and cakes to the ladies at matinees, the manager wishes to call attention to the superb show now on the boards. Miss Miller, singing, comedienne, needs no introduction here, having appeared here before and is one of the best in the business.

Millar Bros. diorama is a wonderful production. B. F. Kieth of Boston, Mass., says of this act "the Millar Bros. diorama is genuine novelty simply great." It will be remembered that Mr. Keith is the greatest vaudeville manager in this or any other country.

Gus Hill, of New York, another man high up as a manager of big houses says, "Millar Bros. diorama is by far the best I ever saw. One of the finest acts on the vaudeville stage."

Locals and Personals

Now is the time to get busy on that house you expect to build.

Workmen have begun on Mr. W. G. Burnett's house on Johnson avenue.

The Industrial Club will soon be in their new quarters in the Sherrod building.

Please send in early any notices you may have for Saturday's paper.

Mr. Wash Charles, father of Mr. R. C. Charles, is reported ill at his home a few miles north of High Point. Mr. Charles is in his 89th year.

High Point is not going to make any noise about it but the authorities are getting busy to break up a few places here in which originates trouble.

Miss Clara Cox, who is a member of the council of the Woman's Clubs of the State has returned from Greenville, N. C., where she attended a meeting of the council. The meeting was a very pleasant one indeed.

E. H. Farris has gone to Raleigh on business.

Rev. W. R. Ware was here this morning.

R. R. King, Garland Daniel and Col. Fry were here this morning en-route to Asheboro.

See the beautiful display of china in Alexander's window at half price. Saturday and Monday.

W. M. Nissen, of Winston, has been here for the past few days at the bedside of Mr. Charles.

Mrs. Langhenour, of Wauhsonton, is here on account of the illness of Mr. R. C. Charles.

A. B. Sinclair the well known and popular representative of the Adams Elting Co., is here calling on the trade.

UNSOPHISTICATED CHILDHOOD.

The following poem by Mr. Walker has won great admiration and commendation from Mr. Haynes. Mr. Walker is also the author of several other poems and short stories that will appear in this paper later on:

"Whosoever shall humble himself as a little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of Heaven." Matt. XVIII, V. III.

Thou art not learned, dear my child,
In lore of any school,
Yet all thy words and all thy ways
Proclaim the sage a fool

Thy speech is not of Greece and Rome,
Nor ages dim and gray,
But how thy native graces tell
The glory of today.

Unknown to thee the mystic names,
Orion, Saturn, Mars,
But oft at night thy spirit dwells
At home among the stars.

Thy life is like a budding flow'r
That drinks the morning dew;
Unto the sky that bends above,
Reflecting back the blue.

Thy heart that never knew a creed,
How pure and unbeguiled!
And God who mocks the mind of man,
Will hold thee undefiled.
