STORIES OF SUCCESS

CYRUS W. FIELD

The world's tomorrow waits on a young man's today. When Cyrus W. Field, builder of the great Atlantic Cable, began his business career as an errand boy in a dry goods store at $1.00 a week he did not see the tomorrow that would change the commerce of the world. Even then at the age of thirteen, his motto was Industry and Economy. Later in life when he had left the dry goods business as one of the most successful merchants in New York he could not remain idle. When after thirteen years' ceaseless toil, crossing and recrossing the ocean fifty times, the first successful message flashed over the great submarine cable, he proved for all time that persistency wins. Isn't "To Win" also your ambition? By a little economy and thrift we will have the responsibility with you. Start a savings account with us today. Tomorrow, its persistent increase by added savings, and our four per cent interest, and a timely investment may make you a capitalist.

Holding Off On Account Safety Of American Citizens

Special to Enterprise.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 10.—State departments refusal to allow armed Mexicans to cross the American border is construed today as the last step on the part of the United States to avoid complications which would necessitate rushing American troops to the border. It is authoritatively stated that the fear of an uprising endangers forty thousand American residents in Mexico prevents the dispatching of American troops to the border immediately, but that they are ready for field service at a moment's notice.

BOMBARDMENT IMMINENT

Tientsin, Feb. 10.—Revolutionary warships steamed into the harbor of Shanghai Ewan, directly east of Peking today, believed bombardment imminent.

Good Advice

New York, Feb. 10.—Stop complaining about high cost of living, pay cash for everything, buy through co-operative organizations, don't charge with your "necessary expenses" such items as summer vacations, motion picture shows, and the like, is the advice of Geo. K. Holmes, department of agriculture, statistics bureau to Republican club, this afternoon.

COLD IN NEW YORK

Special to Enterprise. New York, Feb. 10.—The thermometer today is at zero. It dropped 28 degrees in 12 hours.

Pope Objects To Low Necks

Special to Enterprise.

Rome, Feb. 10.—The Pope today ordered cardinals and other church dignitaries to decline invitations to attend social functions where women are permitted to appear in décolleté gowns.

Wednesday Afternoon Embroidered Club.

This club which began its meetings last fall, has been once the round of the members and has started on its second round of meetings.

Last week there was a delightful meeting with Mrs. Robert Bencini. After an hour spent with embroidering Mrs. Bencini served a delicious salad course, followed by hot chocolate and wafers. This week the meeting was with Miss Edith Bradshaw, at her beautiful home on South Main. After an enjoyable afternoon of sewing Miss Bradshaw served delicious refreshments consisting of salad, sandwiches, olives, and tea and wafers. The members of the club are: Mesdames, Ed. Millis and Robert Bencini, Misses Edith Bradshaw, Linnie Mann, Bessie Pitts, Clara Stanton, Robah Bencini, Clara Harmon, Millie Harmon, Marjorie Richardson, Marjorie Cottam and Annie Reddick.

Special to Enterprise.

Chicago, Feb. 10.—Leaders in movement for the nomination of Roosevelt by Republican convention, gathered today from 15 states. The conference was divided in two separate meetings one devoted to the discussion of

CHURCHES

We are consistent when our conduct corresponds to our profession. We are unwise and inconsistent when our practice does not accord with what we profess and believe. There are four things which we all profess to believe and do believe: viz. that there is a God, that the Bible is God's book, that we have immortal souls, and that we all must die.

To attend church on Sunday is certainly consistent with these great facts, which we all admit. Not to attend church is surely unwise and unjustifiable since these things are realities. Thoughtlessness, indolence, or some other form of self indulgence, force of habit and the example of others may lead to the inconsistent folly of staying away from church. We may not now realize the great mistake, but some day we will wonder how we could have believed their great feast and fail to attend church regularly.

Dr. Ross Coming

Illustrated Lecture at Auditorium It costs nothing to hear Dr. Ross, county superintendent of health, next Friday evening, February 16, at 8 o'clock in the Auditorium. The public is cordially invited.

The Doctor will give a health lecture illustrated with the stereopticon, and musical talent from the Woman's Club will lend itself to the pleasure of the occasion. This will consist of the double quartette: Mrs. Kephart, first soprano; Mrs. James Mellichampe and Miss Boyd, second soprano; Misses Vera Idol and Ethel Pickett, first alto; and Mrs. W. G. Shipman and Miss Genevieve Moore, second alto; and in addition an instrumental duet by Misses Boyd and Shattuck. Come and bring your friends.

STORE ROBBERY AT RANDELMAN.

The officers so far have been unable to apprehend the robbers who entered the stores of L. W. Lineberry & Co. and Smitherman Co. at Randleman Thursday night. The burglars failed to get into either safe.

NEWCOMERS.

There have been more new comers here during the past six weeks than ever before in the history of the town. The Enterprise alone assisted in locating six families. Build more houses.

STILL IMPROVING.

J. H. Petty receives word daily from the bedside of his daughter, Miss Kathleen Petty, who is at the Rex Hospital, Raleigh, having undergone an operation for appendicitis, and we are pleased to know that she continues to improve.

HIGH POINT WON.

In the game of Basket Ball last night at the Pickett warehouse, between the High Point High School boys and Jamestown High School, the home boys won by a score of 32 to 6.

The game was a good one and enjoyed by all.

FRUIT SHOWER MANUFACTURERS CLUB.

I desire to say that the notice sent to the paper yesterday was unauthorized by me. There will be no demonstration of any kind. As chairman of the committee on arrangements, I regret that the announcement was so misleading. The hours will be from 2:30 to 5:00 o'clock.

Mrs. Fred Eshelman, 4th Vice-President.

HOMICIDE CASE CONTINUED

The case against the Hill boys for killing their father was called in the Recorder's court this morning and at the request of the state was continued until next Tuesday.

Shakespeare Plays

Frank McEntee and Millicent Evison & Co. will appear in Shakespeare's plays at the school auditorium February 19th, afternoon and at night.

Matinee, 3:30, evening 8 o'clock Prices 50, 75, and $1.00. Seats on sale at Mann Drug Co. The Birmingham Age-Herald says: Frank McEntee played the part of the Danish prince with sympathetic effort. He brought out the pathos of the character and lost none of its dramatic possibilities. His enunciation was good, and his delivery had charm and grace. His elocution was considerably enhanced by a pleasing voice and a good figure. Millicent Evison as Ophelia shared the honors of the performance.

IN THE SOCIAL REALM

(By I. I. P.)

As-You-Like-It Club.

Mrs. Abram Cook, whose name has recently been added to the membership list of the popular As-You-Like-It Club, was hostess to the club and a few friends Tuesday afternoon. The four tables for the game of dominos were placed in two of the hostess' reception rooms of her private suite at the Elwood, where Mrs. Cook assisted by Mrs. E. T. Robinson, most graciously received the guests. The attractive apartments, the genial and cordial hostess and the game which is so popular as to almost be a fascination, all went to fill the afternoon with pleasure, a pleasure which was interspersed with another pleasure, which was equally as great—the gathering round the table in the dining room where the home banquets are served and where on the occasion a most elegant and delicious luncheon was served. The tall stalks of hyacinths with their numerous pink bells lent fragrance and beauty to the many courses in which the same color predominated. The favors were fragrant china and silver bon-bon dishes of odd shape. After the luncheon the rubbers were played and the club prize, a handsome hand-painted cake plate, presented to Mrs. Dee Pollock and the visitors prize, a crystal candle stick with filigree shade, won by Mrs. Lloyd Dodameade. There were sixteen present.

Civic Department.

The Civic Department of the Woman's Club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Henry White presiding. After the business program during which time several good reports were made, prominent among which was the report of Miss Ada Blair, chairman of the Junior Civic League.

At the close of the business program Dr. W. J. McAnally gave a most helpful paper on "The Dust Nuisance." Impressing upon his hearers that our death rate, 15 per 1000, might easily be due to the germs form dust. He urged the use of the moist dust cloth and the vacuum cleaner. The Doctor's paper was listened to intently by these ladies who are going to do all in their power to aid the health department to abolish all the evils of health, and join the physicians in making this the banner year in good health.

Literature Department.

The Literature Department of the Woman's Club will hold their regular monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Gordon Burnett, who will lead the meeting from the subject of American Literature and the topic of Ralph Waldo Emerson. The following program will be given: "His American Scholarship and Self-reliance. His Ideas of Independence and Inspiration"—Mrs. B. E. Moore. "Characteristics of His Poetry"—Mrs. C. C. Walker. Note Book Gleanings from Foreign Countries—Mrs. Charles Long.

Miss Robah Bencini has issued unique invitations for a Valentine party to be given at the elegant home of her parents on South Main street. The time, Wednesday evening. Miss Bencini is one of the most popular of the younger set, and the invitations are hailed with delight. Mrs. Cyrus Wheeler will entertain the W. O. T. Club next Tuesday afternoon at her home on Lindsay street.

Woman's Club.

One of the most important meetings of the year will be Wednesday afternoon. (Continued on page 2.)

The ladies are enjoying the delicious coffee served at the matinees.

SHOES OFF.

Regardless of the recent rise in leather and the advance of most all kinds of foot wear, my shoes have slipped off from the original price nearly fifty per cent. It would be better for me to keep them for another season only for the fact that they might be out of style next season and I don't want to hand out back numbers to my customers. They are good now, best styles and quality of all leather, men's, women's boys' misses' and children's high and low quartered shoes, my sales have increased each day since the beginning of this shoe sale and I find that one sale makes another, when a customer is well pleased he usually says so to his friends.

Come and see what I have to offer you.

The sale will last until the 25th if the shoes hold out.
