STORIES OF SUCCESS

SENATOR A. J. BEVERIDGE

The talent of success is nothing more than Joing what you can do well, and doing well whatever you do without a thought of fame Senator Beveridge is a typical self. success is begotter success is begotten of hard, unflinching work. Once asked what he considered the prime requisites for a young man's success, he answered, "First exergy, then determination." To these every thoughtful student of the life of this young farmer's son will add thrift and industry. Without thrift Senator Beveridge would never have saved his way to college nor been able to meet his life's emergencies.

Herbert Booth--Noted Evangelist

Rev. J. H. Barnhardt has closed a date with Herbert Booth to conduct a revival meeting in High Point beginning about the middle of April and continuing for two weeks or more. Mr. Booth is said to be one of the most gifted and effective preachers doing evangelistic work today, and is at present making a tour of the United States holding meetings which have been proving unusually successful. He is a sane gospel preacher, full of enthusiasm, attractive in his presentation of the message, strong in appeal, fair in his methods, and can easily command the respectful attention and sympathetic hearing of the entire com-

High Point is fortunate in seenring a man of Mr. Booth's ability to lead a campaign of evangelism. He is the son of General Booth of the Salvation Army and was himself for many years associated with his distinguished father in that work. Sometime ago however, upon the advice of his friends and agreeable to his own convictions, he severed his connection with the salvation army people to accept the larger opportunity which comes to him in the general field of evangelistic effort among the various denominations. His record has demonstrated the wisdom of thi step for everywhere he has gone his meetings have been notable for the numbers of people attracted to them by his preaching and for the large ersults attending his efforts.

The meeting here will be held under the auspices of the Washington Street Methodist church, but all the denominations are invited and urged to co-operate for the general good of the cause. Mr. Barnhardt presented the matter at the last meeting of the ntinisterial association and all the pastors present expressed themselves warmly as approving the meeting and heartily agreed to support it by every courtesy possible to extend. The brotherly and fraternal spirit existing here among the several pastors and congregations of the city is often the subject of favorable comment, and it is desired by the promoters of this special meeting that all may share in the results which may be obtained.

Owing to the large numbers of people who will desire to attend the meetings it has been necessary to secure a large auditorium, and the official board of Washington Street church has leased the commodious Pickett warehouse on Jordan street for the occasion. This will be provided with chairs and everything possible will be done with a view to the convenience and comfort of all who attend.

It is of interest to note that Mr. Booth has with him a helper who leads the service of song. This helper is a son of Gypsy Smith another famous evangelist of the day. The exact day upon which the meeting is to begin will be announced later, as will also other facts concerning local preparation.

IN THE SOCIAL REALM

(By I. I. P.)

The regular monthly meeting Locals and Personals of the Philanthropic Department of the Woman's Club was held Wednesday. The many reports showed much wide awake interest in the work and much actual ervice rendered during the past month. Interest was so aroused in the question of child labor that it was decided to ask that this be presented at the next general club. The head worker of the settlement work gave a splendid report. The attendance at Friendship Hall has doubled during the past month.

The hostess and Mrs. Richardson the president received in the hall and the Daughters were busy serving in selling, or serving in refreshing the many, guests who so generously contributed their aid till the sum of $47.00 was realized. This is clear gain, as all expense was assumed by the individual Daughters. The chapter is most grateful to Mrs. Harris for use of her beautiful home and furnishing and
