STORIES OF SUCCESS

PETER WHITE

Fortune may find a pot, but your own industry must make it boil. If any man ever earned the success of his life's labors, and won through determined industry, it was Peter White, the grand old man of Michigan. Born and reared in poverty at Rome, N. Y., this ambitious boy struggled through hardships until Fortune found a pot in the iron mines of the Upper Peninsula.

From that day success was his. But in the glory of wealth he did not forget the lean days of savings which forged the chain of his future prosperity, and his good right hand was always out to young men looking for a chance to rise.

For every young man today, Fortune holds a pot, but have you the industry to make it boil, and do you feel that had you better kindling you could create a quicker flame?

The way to get on is to save. The bank holds out to you the hand of good fellowship in aiding you to acquire this most important of all commercial habits—the habit of saving your money.

A savings account here is the surest insurance for progress and success.

Thrilling Experience!

Mr. Stehli, Passenger on Titanic, Gives Enterprise Experience Of Rescue

TWELVE MEN IN LIFEBOAT

Max Frolicher-Stehli, one of the proprietors of the Silk Mill here, who with his wife and daughter, Margaret, were rescued by the Carpathia, gives the following account to the Enterprise.

"We had left the saloon and retired in our stateroom, but none of us were asleep, when we were thrown to the floor of the stateroom. Putting on the few clothes we could find, we made our way on deck. The steamer was slowly sinking.

"The lifeboats were lowered. My wife and two women entered one of the first boats. Twelve including myself, were standing near. As there were no other women passengers waiting to get into the boats at that time, we were asked to accompany the women. While we got into the boats for safety's sake, all of us thought we would be able to return to the Titanic. The sea was calm. We were rowed by four members of the crew about 300 yards from the steamer.

"The steamer's lights were still burning brightly, and the picture, with the iceberg as a background, was most beautiful. The steamer slowly sank, the bow sinking first. The water was covered with small boats and rafts. The head of the boat sank first. Then there was a loud crash. The lights went out. Other people who left the boat later, say that she broke in two.

No Food or Lights on Boat

"After the boat had sunk, we began to search for food or other provisions. There was nothing edible on the lifeboats. We could not even find fresh water. Fortunately one man had some stimulants with him, which were given to the women. After drifting around for what seemed weeks, the Carpathia was sighted coming toward us. We had no matches or lanterns, and were not put aboard the rescuing ship until daylight.

"As soon as all the passengers had been taken aboard we were told we were going to New York. At 9 o'clock on Monday morning I sent a wireless to my brother-in-law.

(The wireless message sent by Mr. Frolicher-Stehli was received thirty minutes before the Carpathia docked.)

"The order maintained on the Titanic was what I would call remarkable. There was very little pushing and it was in most cases the women who caused the commotion by insisting that their husbands accompany them in the lifeboats. The men were very orderly. It was not until we had left the ship that many of the women showed fright. From thereon the air was filled with cries and the shrieking of women."

In the same verdict the defendant company was given judgment for $930 against the plaintiff in a counter claim for damages for breach of contract.

THE SERVICE AT NEW POST OFFICE.

So far Postmaster Ragan has sold 158 of the boxes at the new post office. These were engaged the first two days after the notice was given.

There are 528 boxes with very little room for more in case of demand, so it will be seen that with the growth of the city it will be only a few years before the facilities will have to be increased.

FREIGHT TRAIN DERAILED

Salisbury, April 19.—Fifteen freight cars were piled high and traffic badly delayed when an eastbound freight train was derailed two miles from Salisbury on the Asheville division of the Southern Railway, late this afternoon. ISMAY REQUESTS PERMISSION TO LEAVE FOR ENGLAND SERVED WITH ANOTHER SUBPOENA

New York, April 20.—Senator Smith, who is conducting the Titanic investigation said that Ismay asked him permission to sail today, aboard the Lapland for England. Smith said, "I told him under no circumstances could he leave this country now. In order that there might be no mistake, I saw to it that Ismay personally served with another subpoena to compel him to remain until the investigation ended.

Twenty-two of the crew who can tell a thrilling story that'll amaze the American people have been subpoenaed and these men will remain until the committee permits them to go. The committee wants to hear the story of the wireless assistant operator who was rescued, if he is not able to appear before the committee, they will go to hospital to interview him.

CHARGED WITH SAFE ROBBERY.

Durham, April 19.—Everett Crouch, the young white man charged with the robbery of the Hillsboro bank the night of April 12, is in the Durham county jail for safekeeping. The young man was arrested in Raleigh yesterday and carried to Hillsboro. When the case was called for a preliminary hearing this morning he asked for a continuance, and was placed under a $5,000 bond for his appearance at the hearing next Friday morning.

Crouch is a brother of Mrs. Fleming, of the famous Raleigh divorce case, and has been living in Washington with his father and sisters. He says that he has been out on this tramping trip for the past two weeks, and that his people have no idea where he was until he telegrapher his father that he had been arrested for safe cracking.

According to his statement he slept at the Southern railway coal chute, in East Durham the night the safe was robbed, and believes that the statement of the negroes, who look after the chute, will clear him of any complicity in the bank robbery.

The Enterprise was pleased to have a call yesterday afternoon from Mr. John D. Paylor, who has been confined to his room so long. His many friends will be pleased to know that he is able to be out again.

Miss Linnie Mann has returned from a visit to friends in Concord.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Norwood, of Raleigh, are visiting the family of Mr. J. Mat Sechrest and other relatives.

Capt. Leach, of Aberdeen, is here today.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

Pickett Warehouse Sunday Afternoon at 3 o'Clock

High Point people will assemble at the warehouse tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock for a Memorial service, Mr. Booth preaching a sermon on the Titanic disaster. This will be a memorable meeting in the history of the town and all who desire seats will have to go early.

Last Night's Sermon.

Mr. Booth's sermon last night was based on a text taken from the Fifty-third chapter of Isaiah, the fifth verse: "But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities, the chastisement of our peace was upon him and with his stripes we are healed." His address was an appeal to four classes of persons—the guilty, whose sins cry aloud for treatment; the unsanctified,

SOCIAL

Jonquil-Rook Party.

Tuesday afternoon Miss Blanche Bradshaw gave the prettiest kind of a demonstration of her much famed originality when she entertained the W. O. T. Club and other guests at a Jonquil-Rook party. The drawing room, library and hall were rich with bowls of these fragrant golden flowers holding high their lighter shaded cups, while in many partly obscure places there peeped the bright faces of the little dandelion. Attached to the pen and ink score "cards" were handpainted jonquils. The game which is fast taking the place of the much used "42" was most interesting, and though there were many high scores, yet Mrs. Wm. C. Jones and Mrs. Leak, of Rockingham, guest of Mrs. Farris, made the highest scores and were presented with half dozen handsome china plates—the one bread and butter plates, the other dessert—each set being exquisitely handpainted with jonquils.

In the two course collation in the serving of which the hostess was assisted by Miss Edith Bradshaw, the yellow color predominated, and many of the relishes were moulded in the form of the flower. The players at the six tables were: Mesdames Alvin Parker, Cyrus Wheeler, Jos. Cox, William Jones, James Farris, Thomas Gold, Alfred Caldwell, Chase Idol, Charles Hauser, Dorsey Brockett, Cecil Prince, Edward Hutchinson, Otis Mendenhall, Gilbert Clark, Bascom Hoskins, William Snow, William Hayes, Bayard Cummings, Mrs. Leak, of Rockingham; Mrs. Abercrombie, Misses Louise Wilson, Helen Brockett, Mary Alexander, I. Irvin Paylor.

Large crowds are attending the Booth meetings at the warehouse and Mr. Booth is pleasing and benefitting his hearers.

Miss Ailine Long, of Graham, is visiting Mrs. Chas. Robbins.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Moon this morning a daughter.

Miss Anna Mead Michaux, of Greensboro, is visiting Mrs. Dr. J. R. Reitzel.

Miss Estelle Webster, who underwent an operation at the High Point hospital, is convalescing rapidly and is now at the home of her sister, Mrs. Al Caldwell.
