STORIES OF SUCCESS

CHARLES F. CHICKERING

The surest way not to fail is to determine to succeed. Determination brings success when great talent without it fails. The big Boston Chickering piano factory, covering an area of more than a city block, is a lasting monument to the sterling qualities of a man determined to win. When as a boy young Chickering caught the tink of his father's anvil pounding melody from a white hot horseshoe, he resolved to give to the world an instrument that would judely impress the harmony that was vibrating in his soul. He saved his earnings, and the achievement of this sturdy Chickering piano maker is today world history.

And so it is with every one who has the handling of money—success comes only by saving—saving is a check on extravagance, and a means to independence.

A saving account in this bank will help you in a hundred ways. Deposits in our savings department are protected by all the assets of the institution, and the smallest depositor is treated as courteously as the largest.

Great Allen Trial Now On-Trouble May Develop

Special to Enterprise.

Wytheville, Va., May 2.—With the jury complete the common-wealth today began to fight for the death penalty of Floyd Allen Judge Staples confined his statement to the jury to concise recital of the law, and the possible verdicts. The special prosecutor followed.

Wytheville, May 2.—Special Prosecutor Wiyor, demanded that Floyd Allen pay with his life for the Hillsville murders. The prisoner, still on a stretcher, writhed under the lawyers' statement. Wiyor asserted that one outlaw was over heard to say after the murders, "Let's kill every damn one of them."

Following is the jury in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Floyd Allen, indicted for the murder of William M. Foster, Commonwealth's attorney of Carroll county:

George J. Repass, farmer.

J. B. Unberger, farmer.

Frank E. Nelms, merchant.

W. M. Buchanan, farmer.

J. Stanges Brown, farmer.

Charles P. Buck, farmer.

Greek R. James, farmer.

J. B. Hartman, farmer.

Stephen Bourne, farmer.

J. M. Blessing, livaryman.

C. W. Dickey, merchant.

W. T. Williams, salesman.

BANK PRESIDENT INDICTED.

Cincinnati, O., May 2.—Charged with willfully misappropriating $33,000, E. L. Calbreath, a former president of the second National Bank was arrested today.

BRITISH INVESTIGATION BEGINS.

London, May 2.—British inquiry to determine the responsibility of the Titanic tragedy was opened today, and it is announced will be of a sweeping scope.

ISMAY SLIPS AWAY.

New York, May 2.—After concealing his movements and inspiring the announcement that he was ill in a hotel, J. Bruce Ismay, president International Mercantile Marine Co., sailed at noon today for England on the White Star Liner Adriatic, with four officers who were lost on Titanic.

HOMER DAVENPORT DEAD

New York, May 2.—Following a brief illness Homer Davenport, the well known artist, and cartoonist, died in this city today.

MAY RECALL BRYCE

London, May 2.—It is rumored that Ambassador Bryce may be recalled as a result of the publication of Taft's letters to Roosevelt, discussing reciprocity, especially Taft's statement that reciprocity would make Canada an adjunct to the United States. The English are also embittered about Titanic investigation and criticism English steamship management.

ALL HOPE ABANDONED

Halifax, May 2.—The last hope of more Titanic bodies would be recovered was abandoned today, a message from Minia that no new bodies and no sign of any.

PENROSE OUSTED.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 2.—The Republican state convention wiped out the Penrose machine control, but politicians today said that Penrose has not given up hope of regaining prestige. He figures that William Flynn and Roosevelt ascendancy is only temporary and he hopes to defeat new leaders in the next contests.

THE GREAT FLOOD SITUATION.

New Orleans, May 2.—Having worked down the valley leaving death and desolation in its wake the crest of Mississippi floods was reached in Louisiana, flooding the rich cane country rendering thousands homeless. One thousand men are engaged in strengthening the levees at danger points. Governor Sanders today reached Torras, where the levees went out yesterday. He is directing work of carrying for the refugees. The government food supply is running short. Over 5,000 are reported living on rafts with live stock.

DECLARE THEY WONT VOTE FOR TAFT

Boston, May 2.—Col. Roosevelt still has 18 of the 30 delegates to the Republican national convention despite his request that the eight delegates at large vote for Taft. All declared they would vote for Roosevelt.

TAFT IN AUGUSTA.

Augusta, Ga., May 2.—Taft today joined Augusta in the homage to the memory of Major Archibald Butt, the Titanic victim. The President was the principal speaker. The city is in deep mourning.

RULES REGULATING VEHICLE TRAFFIC

On All Streets Within the City Limits.

1. All vehicles, whether horse drawn or power driven, must keep to the right side of the street.

2. When meeting other vehicles, always turn to the right.

3. When passing or overtaking other vehicles from the rear, always pass to the left of said vehicle. If there is not sufficient room to do this, stay behind and avoid possibility of accident.

4. When other vehicles desire to pass you from the rear, move over farther to the right and give sufficient space if practicable.

5. When turning corners, keep to the right and do not make short turns in toward the left hand side of the street.

6. Stop no vehicles along Main or other streets where traffic is congested unless there is room for both front and rear wheels to be placed against the curb. Stop heading in toward the curb thus occupying twice the space necessary.

7. Automobiles, motor-cycles and other power driven vehicles must also carefully observe all requirements of the ordinances governing their use on the streets of the city, a few of which are herewith enumerated:

Speed limit on any street not to exceed ten miles per hour.

Speed limit turning corners not to exceed five miles per hour.

Signal from horn to be given just before arriving at or turning corners.

Two front and one rear light to be burning 30 minutes after sunset.

8. Pedestrians will please not stand or congregate in the streets. The sidewalks are for their use.

The state law, as well as the city ordinances, governing the above regulations will be rigidly enforced by the police department in the future and all persons are requested to co-operate with us in our endeavor to prevent accidents and injuries.

Respectfully,
Fred N. Tate, Mayor.

High Point

It is very gratifying to note the many improvements going on in the city just now. It is noticeable in every direction. The contractors are all busy and there is enough work already planned for active operations until fall. Contracts amounting to over $100,000 have been let or the plans are in hand ready for bids. It looks like we will break the record within the next twelve months.

With these private improvements we note also the public improvements which are responsible directly or indirectly for the private improvements because we cannot have one without the other to any considerable extent. When a city gives public conveniences of the right kind the outside is not only attracted but it encourages home people to widen out and make improvements.

Let us keep this in mind and prepare for the future. We will soon have to have larger school facilities and we must begin to prepare to extend the good streets, water and sewerage. There are two plans by which the most of this work may be done and in a city that is growing to the extent that our city is, it is well to look ahead and be ready to act at the proper time. This work has been done in the past and will have to be done in the future by those who want to see the town grow and are willing to help bear the expense. By those of our citizens who have with much civic pride provided for the building of the town gradually putting improvements where they were most needed and trusting to the ultimate result of such progress.

Let us keep up the record we are now making, taking care that we will be prepared at all times never to go backward for the lack of those things necessary to our growth and development.

The Car Line

Go out on East Green street and see how rapidly the car line is coming towards Main street. It will do you good. This line will be of vast benefit to the people in that part of the city as well as to the town. It will mean convenience to our citizens and great development to that end of the city.

NOTICE.

Fred N. Tate, Mayor.

4-4t.

Senator John H. Bankhead was here today at noon on No. 36, en route to Washington. Senator Bankhead who is Mr. Underwood's national campaign manager, was returning from Georgia and Florida. He was very jubilant over the results in these states, having gone over-whelmingly for Underwood. Mr. Varner, his state manager, accompanied Senator Bankhead, who claims North Carolina is going to fall in the Underwood column.

Prominent Visitors

PHILADELPHIA MERCHANTS COMING

Z. Walser, Esq., of Lexington, was here this morning.

WE KNOW

And you know there are people who read this paper that need Pianos

We also know these people prefer a high grade piano. To secure such a piano buy it from the old-time firm of Chas. M. Stieff. And the day will never come when you will realize you have bought an inferior instrument.
