GIVING HIM TAFFY.
may please him, but try serving him a dinner without ice and see how quickly his demeanor will change. It is annoying to the housewife to be without plenty of ice during the warm months. No iced deserts or toothsome ice cream, no crisp vegetables or tempting butter without good ice. Let us serve you—we do it at a fair price. The quality of our ice and system of delivery is the BEST.

The company is this week filling an engagement at the Elk's Auditorium, Winston-Salem, and is highly recommended by the manager here as well as the daily papers. Last week and week before they filled a weeks engagement at Durham and Raleigh and the company was highly recommended to Manager Simmons by the managers there and he has been quite fortunate in securing them.

Winston-Salem, N. C., Daily Journal, Aug. 13th, 1912, says:

The crowd at the Auditorium last night highly appreciated the Minstrel performance and especially the singing of Miss Burnum in both her spot-light and minstrel number, taking an encore in the latter. Billy Lighted took the house by storm in his dancing specialty. He is one of the four famous American dancers, so recently featured with the American Minstrels.

A CARD

The dentists of the city wish to convey their thanks to Mayor Tate for his very kind and courteous treatment of the visiting dentists, his remaining up for the late trains and his most cordial address of welcome. The visitors seemed to enjoy their stay, and left with a pleasant impression of High Point's people.

Misses Bessie and Mary Alice Tate are visiting their aunt, Mrs. A. L. Holton at Culpepper, Va., on their way home from Seabrook, N. H., where they spent a month with Miss Louise Briggs, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Briggs.

Pensions Carry One Hundred and Sixty Millions

WOUNDED MEN IMPROVING.

Mr. Busbee and Mr. Morton, who were injured by the explosion of the infernal machine are improving and will be out again soon. Mr. Busbee is still at St. Leo's hospital.

SERIOUSLY BURNED

From the Spencer Crescent of yesterday we learn of a bad explosion of gas in the hour house in Salisbury shortly before noon. A gas jet was left burning in the vault of Sheriff McKenzie's office the night before. During the night the gas was cut off from the mains, later turned on, while the jet of course was still open and so the vault became filled with gas. When Mr. E. H. Miller, the Register of Deeds, entered next morning he struck a match and a terrific explosion occurred. Mr. Miller was blown across the room, and all the exposed parts of his body badly burned. He was picked up in a half-conscious condition and medical aid at once given him. Deputy Tolbert was also injured, but not so seriously. Their many friends hope their injuries will not prove serious.

THE HIGH POINT-WINSTON ROAD.

The situation seems to be that the efforts of the Committee are unavailing to secure the amount of funds from the Retail Merchants that is necessary to make their larger subscriptions available. The facts are, the total amount subscribed by the 44 Retail Merchants to date is less than $400,000. Of this amount, half has been subscribed by three members, leaving 41 members subscribing $200 or less than $500 each.

Considering the fact that the Retail Merchants will derive a direct benefit from the building of the road, it would seem they should come forward at once and subscribe the $100 necessary to insure the building of the road, and they will thereby secure a large addition to their customers.

Several hundred dollars are available when they have raised a total of $500,000, but is not available until they do that. It is to be hoped the association will take the matter up at once and see that the balance of the $500 is raised, balance of the $500,000 is raised. We have a reputation at stake in this matter, and it is the duty of each one of us to do our full duty toward High Point.

THE PROPER SPIRIT

J. Matt Hedgecock says that if the Ford Company will build their plant here he will give them a two acre site and agree to buy the first 1913 model out.

Work is busily going on on J. F. Hayden's house on Washington street. Mr. Weston, of Greensboro, is the architect. The house is of pressed brick of strictly colonial design, with large white pillars in front upholding the roof of the piazza. On the west side of the porte cochere, and over the back porch there will be a large screened sleeping room. This new home will combine good architecture with modern convenience, and will add greatly to the appearance of Washington street.

SOCIAL

(By I. I. P.)

Mrs. C. D. Smith Honors Guests
Most enjoyable in every respect was the progressive seven-up party given Monday evening by Mrs. C. D. Smith in honor of her attractive house guests, Miss Sallie Causett and Miss Rosa Singer, sister and cousin of the hostess.

Quantities of those beautiful field flowers—the rods that are so tall and golden, made the home-like reception rooms most attractive. The visitors were presented by the hostess who early in the evening directed the way to the tables on the left veranda, where the game of fun, seven-up, was played for an hour or more, and where that beautiful book, The Masters Violin, given as prize, was awarded Dr. Thurman Mann, who in turn presented it to Miss Lizzie Whitehurst, of Greenville, and guest at the hospitable home of Mrs. A. Sherrod. The little broken bank, and doll of a darkly lined skin, given as booby prizes, were awarded Miss Cara Stanton.

Ice cream, cake, mints and grapes made up the tempting menu served the following guests who were delighted to meet such charming visitors: Misses Clara Stanton, Hazel Briggs, Edith Bradshaw, Bessie Pitts, Clara Harmon, Mildred Harmon, Berta Lindsey, Lizzie Whitehurst, and Messrs. Bob Amos, James Griffith, Menece Stanton, Chas. Amos, Robert Sechrest, Ernest Wall, Walter Chandler, Archie Sherrod, Drs. Thurman Mann and A. F. Clayton.

P. P. Club.

Miss Violet Johnson was the charming young hostess Tuesday afternoon to the P. P. Club and a number of in and out of town visitors. The game of "42" of which the rudiments are so like an other interesting game, was the pastime chosen for the jolly crowd. In cutting for the club prize, which was won alike by Misses Clara Steele and Emily Brooks, the handsome vase went to Miss Clara Steele. Miss Henrietta White won the box of candy given as visitors prize.

Block cream, cake and mints was served to the following members and guests: Misses Maud Owen, Clara Gurley, Clara Steele, Louise Ingram, Leona Muse, Nellie Muse, Dorothy Snow, Sara Haynes, Emily Brooks, Thelma Wineskie, Evelyn Shippett, Odell Peacock, Idella Haynes, Catherine Zollicoffer, Louise Reitzel, Cornelia Robertson, Margaret Kirkman, Irene Walker, Henrietta White, Katherine Harmon.

THE ROSE THEATRE.

All you lovers of G. M. Anderson, you have a treat in store for you today at the Rose. In the shape of one of the finest western pictures of the age, "A Story of Montana," in which Mr. Anderson appears in his famous characterization of Broncho Billy. This is an interesting picture of Montana and will gain the approval of every one that sees it, we have gone to a big expense to secure these pictures and in order to come clear on them we are compelled to raise the price to the small sum of ten cents, we have on two pictures today that have cost us $20 outside of our regular service and as we want everyone in High Point to see them. Why we have only raised the price just 5 cents, this will just clear our expenses for the day—we are trying to arrange to secure all the special releases of the General Film Co. and put them before the High Point public at a price that will enable all to see them, the pictures we have on today are specials by the General Film Co. and are costing us 10 dollars per reel to secure them and we want to state right here that no matter what feature we have on in our theater the price will never be over 10 cents, just enough to defray the extra expense of securing them. We would very willingly put the price at 5 cents but we would lose money on them, from this on we have closed a contract with the General Film Co. to furnish us with a special picture every Saturday if possible and we run them on this date in order to let everyone see them.

The second picture for today is a feature release by the Melies Co. entitled "The Cowboy Kid." This is a photoplay which will appeal to every lover of western life showing the exploits of eight year old "Danny" the youngest cowboy in the world.

The Rose will be open from 3 until 11 p. m.

The price will be 10 cents to all.
