COMMISSION.

The railroads' desire to have the whole matter referred to the Interstate Commerce Commission is doubtless based on their belief that if we foolishly agree to this procedure, it will practically close the doors against us for years to come, for the reason that the numerous classes and commodities to be investigated and adjusted to and from so many parts of the country, would involve great expense and years of delay, with the final result that the people would probably cease to press their claims and allow the complaint to die.

In a subsequent article, I shall endeavor to treat on the sovereign rights of our people and outline plainly a procedure which our Legislature can take, which will in a measure at least bring substantial relief and benefit to our state as a whole.

In the meantime, I again urge that every right thinking citizen of the state lend his influence towards a quick and permanent organization of his section into an active branch of the Just Freight Rate Association, so that when the time arrives we may with one accord assert our rights in safeguarding every commercial interest of our state.

Respectfully,

Fred N. Tate, President,
Just Freight Rate Ass'n. of N. C.
