President Wilson Cuts off Huer- ta's Supply of War Munitions

President's Order Expected to Have Important Bearing on the Situation.

Washington, D. C., July 23.— President Wilson has determined no faction in the present Mexican revolution shall obtain arms or ammunition from the United States, and that neutrality must be observed in its strictest sense.
This was the interpretation of the neutrality laws decided on by the President today after conferences with Senator Bacon and Representative Flood, chairmen of the two Congress committees on Foreign Relations.

Although the Mexican rebels have been getting no arms heretofore, today's developments mean the Huerta administration will be deprived of the privilege previously given to the Madero Government and the United States will treat all sides alike in the present dispute.

The situation was precipitated by the repeated complaints of the Constitutionalists and their sympathizers in this country that if the United States did not virtually assist the Huerta Government by selling to it munitions of war a termination of hostilities would be possible.

Sentiment in favor of a new policy grew in Congress to such an extent that today a canvass of the Foreign Relations committees in both houses showed there would be little objection to repealing the joint resolution of March 14, 1912, giving to the President discretionary power to prohibit exportations of arms or munitions of war to countries where domestic violence exist, but permitting him to sanction the sale of war supplies to the legally constituted Government of any such country.

Blow to Huerta's Plans.
For the present, the Administration will issue orders to its agents everywhere to keep arms from entering the rebellion-torn country.

This will interfere materially with the plans of the Huerta forces, since orders for large supplies of arms and ammunition are said to have been placed recently with firms in the United States.

The President canvassed other phases of the Mexican situation with Senators Bacon and Flood, who said later no action of any kind or pronouncement of policy was likely until after Ambassador Wilson had conferred with Administration officials here.

Acting Secretary Roosevelt conferred on the situation with Rear Admiral Frank E. Beatty, commander of the Fourth division of the Atlantic fleet, who has just returned with his flagship, the Minnesota, from a tour of duty in the Gulf of Mexico.

SOUTH CAROLINA MADE A DISTRICT

Washington, D. C., July 24.— President Wilson today issued an executive order making South Carolina a separate internal revenue district and taking it out of the eastern part of North Carolina.

Owing to the passage of a law last year limiting the service to 63 districts, it was necessary to consolidate the two Iowa districts into one before creating a separate district for South Carolina.
The order goes into effect upon the appointment of the new collector.

Although the order cut in the district under the supervision of the eastern North Carolina collector in half it will not reduce his salary, as no increase was made about the $4,500 when South Carolina was added October 1 last.

Lamar Goes to Court But Is Not Arrested

Mystery in Forwarding of "Wolf's" Indictment to the Capital

Washington, D. C., July 23.— After notice to his counsel to produce him in court, David Lamar, the "Wolf of Wall Street," today appeared before Anson H. Taylor United States Commissioner, to face a Federal indictment found against him in New York and forwarded here for service. Lamar had expected such action and was prepared to give bond.

For some reason, however, no warrant was issued for his arrest, not even the seals were broken on the indictment, which was sent back to New York. Lamar went free.

Mystery shrouded the whole proceeding. No hint was given of the charge in the indictment, nor was any cause assigned for the failure of the Government to act. United States District Attorney Wilson said:

"There is nothing pending against Lamar in this jurisdiction; that is all I can say."

It was asserted the only method by which Lamar can discover the nature of the charge is by going to New York and surrendering himself. This he has no intention of doing for the present, being engaged here on work for the Anti-Trust League.

Lamar continues to be amused rather than perturbed at the proceedings. Day and night he haunts the Congressional Library poring over records and financial manuals and arranging data for possible suit to be brought to recover the $83,000,000 alleged to have been taken irregularly from the stockholders of the Union Pacific Railroad.

FOR BIGGER SUPREME COURT.

Washington, D. C., July 24.— Two more Justices for the Supreme Court were proposed in a bill today by Representative Rupley of Pennsylvania. It would provide for a Chief Justice and ten Associate Justices.

CARNEGIE BOMB PROVED ONLY TO BE JUICY CHEESE

New York, July 24.—The mystery of the "bomb" sent to Andrew Carnegie yesterday in care of the secretary of the Carnegie corporation was solved today. It was a juicy cheese enclosed in a small proof case of zinc, a Scotch cheese, according to an expert called into conference after the bureau had definitely determined that the "bomb" contained neither nitro-glycerine, dynamite or other deadly explosives. On a vacant lot officials of the bureau of com-bustibles fired four bullets from a safe distance through the box before they opened it.

SAYS REVOLUTION IN SPAIN GROWS SERIOUS

Madrid, July 24.—Travelers arriving here from Portugal today declare the present revolutionary movement in that country to be of a most important character and that even supporters of the Republican government consider the situation most serious.

Next Tuesday the Rose will run special pictures for the benefit of the fire department.

English Case Goes to Jury

Lurton English Will Probably Know His Fate by Tonight.

Asheboro, July 25.—At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon the court had heard the evidence in the trial of Lurton R. English, for the killing of John Armstrong, and States Attorney E. D. Steele opened the argument. He was followed by T. J. Gold and J. T. Brittain for the defense. The court adjourned until 9.30 this morning, when ex-Judge Bynum reopened the argument for the state. He was followed by Messrs. O. L. Sapp and T. A. Spence for the defense, Solicitor Hammer closing for the prosecution at 4 o'clock. Judge Long's charge to the jury was very complete. The jury will take the case about 6 o'clock.

The Busy West End

If our readers will take a ride around the west end of High Point they will be surprised at the growth of that section. Aside from the extensive improvements of the Southern Power Co. the Pickett Cotton Mill has caused the construction of a large number of houses affording homes for the operatives. A number of nice stores have also been built to supply the increasing trade.

The new Carolina and Yadkin River Railway Co. too is building a "Y" and a large construction force is on the ground.

Then too the new Highland Cotton Mills, the construction of which began some time ago, is well under way, and workmen are now working on the second story of the big structure which it is hoped will be completed and in operation in early fall, the big water tank is already completed and the construction of nine tenement houses by the company is also under way.

In the west end, an especially along the Southern Railway Belt Line, are an excellent number of factory sites, this section is growing rapidly as a great factory center.

NEW ORPHANS HOME OC- UPIED

A number of orphan children, about 20 in all, now occupy their new home, the new Methodist Protestant Orphanage. The children came from Denton, the seat of the old home. They are a happy bright little band. The Home is in charge of Superintendent H. A. Garrett. High Point will take a pride in this splendid institution.

court there were four cases against the Southern Railway for violating the Sunday law. The cases were prosecuted by City Attorney Williams. One case was dismissed, two continued and in one case the railroad company was found guilty and Judge Edmonds imposed a fine of $500.00.
It was alleged that on Sunday, July 13th, the railroad company operated freight trains from Spencer through the city on which there was no live stock or perishable goods which was in violation of the statutes.

U. S. May Repeal Neu- trality Law With Mexicans

Proclamation Prohibiting Importation of Arms Across Border Being Considered by Administration Officials—Rear-Admiral Beatty Is Called to Capital.

Repeal of the neutrality proclamation prohibiting exportation of arms to Mexico is being considered by the administration as the next step in the Mexican situation. Conferences between President Wilson and congressional leaders were planned today for a discussion of the proposal, to which many leaders have given their approval.

A partial canvass of the house and senate foreign affairs committees led those interested in the move to believe that the prohibition against the shipment of arms could be repealed with little delay.

The repeal is proposed on the ground that there is no recognized government in Mexico.
