High Point Bonds Sold-Brought Par With Accrued Interest

$5,000 School Bonds Bid in by National T. P. A.—$20,000 by I. G. Lawrence, and Balance of $25,000 by Commercial National Bank, Which Also Takes Entire Issue of $50,000 Water and Sewer Bonds.

The $50,000 School Building Bonds, together with the $50,000 Water and Sewer Bonds were sold yesterday, both bringing par with accrued interest. Bids were opened by the Mayor and City Council on July 7th during which time many bids have been received both from new firms, as well as old brokers who were anxious to get High Point securities.

Sold Well.
Considering the slump in the bond market, due to the enactment of new tariff laws and currency bill, the bonds brought a splendid price, selling at par with accrued interest. The national T.
P. A. through Mr. C. F. Tomlin-son took $5,000 School building bonds. I. G. Lawrence, local contractor, $20,000, and the Commercial National Bank of High Point, $25,000, the balance of the issue. The Commercial Bank also took the issue of $50,000 water and sewer bonds. There was also a bid by the Wachovia Bank & Trust Co., for the $50,000 water and sewer bonds, the bid being at par with accrued interest. The Commercial Bank, however, having taken care of the school bonds, the bid for the $50,000 water and sewer issue was accepted by the Mayor and City Council.

SOCIAL

(By I. I. P.)
Wedding Reception Invitation.
Dr. and Mrs. William Gaston Bradshaw request the pleasure of your company at the marriage reception of their daughter, Blanche Laracy, and Dr. Albert Alexander Mendez, on the evening of Thursday, the seventh of August, from nine until eleven o'clock at their residence, High Point, North Carolina.

At home after the first of September, Rosebank, Staten Island, New York.
The above invitation card is facsimile of the cards sent to hundreds of friends of the contracting parties and will serve as entrance to one of the most recherche wedding receptions of the season, and among the guests present will be many out of town guests. The marriage will take place at an earlier hour. No ceremony cards have been issued.

Shower for Miss Bradshaw Tuesday morning with elegant Longholm generously set with roses and phlox in pure white and trailing vine, effecting a white and green and gold color scheme.
Mrs. Charles Franklin Long charmingly entertained in honor of Miss Blanche Laracy Bradshaw.

Pretty little Misses Helen Alexander and Mary Elizabeth Long met the guests at the door, and Misses Edith Bradshaw and Helen Brockett received in the hall.
The hostess, honoree and Mrs.
Wm. G. Bradshaw received in the drawing room. Mrs. Long was graciously cordial in a lovely white lingerie over green, and wearing a long string of Green Roman beads.

Miss Bradshaw looked exceedingly smart and was personally bright in a white woolen tailored suit trimmed in buttons, and worn with a lace blouse. The small moline hat was rose colored. Mrs.
Bradshaw's gown was of lavender silk.

Miss Mary Alexander in a dainty dress of white lingerie directed the guests to the dining room, where Miss Ida Alexander and Mrs. Albert Tate presided over the punch bowl which was placed at one side of the rose-covered and candle-light table. Miss Louise Ingram assisted in the serving, and Mrs. D. M. Pollock directed the way to the library and living room where the 8 tables for the game of Rook were arranged.

Second Degree Mur- der

ASHEBORO 2:30 P. M.
The jury returned a verdict today at 2:30 o'clock against English for murder in the second degree. Judge Long at once sentenced English to 25 years in the State penitentiary.

High Point Hospital Addition

The new addition to the High Point Hospital was completed yesterday which greatly increases the facilities of this valued institution. A large brick addition has been put on the outside furnishing a number of splendid rooms which have been fitted up nicely, the equal to any hospital rooms anywhere. The Enterprise had the privilege of going over most of the building yesterday and we can congratulate the management of the institution. There will be 35 rooms, all well arranged and comfortably and attractively furnished which will compare with any. The operating department and other services we have often said is a credit to the community.

Register Vital Sta- tistics

Under the new state law effective July 1, section 4 requires that the Mayor appoint a Registrator for Vital Statistics for the city and Mayor Tate has appointed Dr. D. A. Stanton to the position in connection with his duties as City Physician.

Section 4 of the act fixes a heavy penalty upon any physician or other person, who fails to report each and every birth or death with full particulars regarding same, and under the law the Registrar will be held accountable for failure to report such delinquency on the part of any person failing to make prompt and full report as required.

GET READY
Get ready for the big celebration about September 1. The exact date will be announced. We expect 15,000 visitors here on that day.

BENEFIT OF FIRE DEPART- MENT.

The Rose Theater will give a Fireman's Benefit on Tuesday July 29. Splendid pictures will be shown such as will be for the pleasure and entertainment of ladies and gentlemen. Patronize the benefit and help the boys out, you may need their help at any time.

MR. TATE TO ARRIVE TO- MORROW

A. E. Tate, who has been in Europe for the past three months will be home tomorrow. Mr.
Tate was elected chairman of the agricultural committee of the commission while in Europe, to make a study of the methods of farming in the different nations, and also a study of the entire rural life of Europe.

IN INTEREST BLIND WOMEN'S HOME

Henry Easley the president of the North Carolina Association for blind, has called a session of the Home Committee to meet in this city Monday, August 4. The committee will consider the proposition of building a home here for blind women.

BASE BALL

The High Point Regulars cross bats with the North Greensboro team this afternoon in Greensboro. The Guerrillas cross bats with the Liberty team at Liberty.
Both games promise to be splendid contests.

Local Briefs

Mrs. John Welborn left yesterday for a month's stay in the western part of the state.

Pleased to see so many of our rural neighbors in town today.
The appointment of postmaster for High Point will be made in December.

All suits going for half price at Cannon & Fetzer Co., during big to day sale.

Miss Aileen Pitts entertained the Sunday school club most delightfully last night. No especial game was played, but a most enjoyable social evening was enjoyed by all.

The famous $5 Stetson Shoe is selling for $2.50 and $3.00 during the big 10 day sale at Cannon & Fetzer Co.

Miss Kirk Callam, of Greensboro, is the house guest of Mrs.
J. W. Harris.

Miss Hattie Dyer, of Washington, is spending a few days in the city as the house guest of Mrs.
W. D. Simmons.

The fireman's benefit at the Rose is dated for Tuesday, July 29.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Walker returned last night from an extended visit to friends and relatives in South Carolina.

Splendid shows at the different theaters today. Visit all of them and you will not regret it.

Here's a chance for the school boys to buy bargains—they don't often have the chance. We will sell every boy's blouse in the store next week at 39c each, percale, chambray and madras, sizes from 6 to 18 years—none in the lot sold for less than 50c and many worth 75c—bring your money to Woods and buy enough to last you all next winter.

This is the last chance to see the liberty Bells Musical Comedy Co., at the Eagle today.

Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Beck are visiting the family of Mr. Frank Beck.

Prof. D. C. Johnson has been at Trinity. He will have as assistants Mrs. Norment, Miss Henderson, of Mt. Holly and Miss Bessie Parkin.

The country canteloupes are beginning to come in.
Rev. John Farrington is spending a day or so in the city.

Please do not forget the lawn party tonight by the ladies of the First Reformed church. Corner of Mangum and Russell streets.

We offer the little ones a great buying opportunity—every little playsuit and romper will be sold at 39c each during the last week only of Wood's clearance sale—the best made the best material that they put.

There will be no meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy this month.

Miss Annie Edwards gave a delightful party last night in honor of her house guest, Miss Talley, of Danville, Va. There were quite a number of her friends present. All had a delightful time.

Miss Frances Smith, of Jamestown, is the house guest of the Misses Irvin.

Mrs. Job P. Wyatt, of Raleigh, is visiting Mrs. Bascom Hoskins.

One of the best Saturday shows at the Royal today that has been shown in High Point this season with, "The Wheels of Destiny" as the feature. This is a three-reel feature of very recent release, and one that takes all photo play lovers by storm.
Don't miss it. It is a big treat all by itself. Other splendid reels also. Spend a pleasant and enjoyable evening at the Royal today. Make the Royal your meeting place. Watch paper for date of other big features.

For Greater Equip- ment

SEABOARD SELLS NEARLY TWO MILLIONS IN NOTES.

New York, July 25.—The Seaboard Air Line Railway has sold $1,900,000 5 per cent equipment trust notes to a syndicate composed of Eastman Dillon & Co., the Equitable Trust Co., and Kean Taylor & Co. The company received a number of bids for the notes.

The proceeds from the sale will be used for equipment, and locomotives were ordered by the company. 15 per cent of the cost of which will be paid in cash. The notes were issued to cover the rest of the cost. They mature semi-annually over the next ten years.

Wilson Opposes Gift to His Daughter

WANTS MOVEMENT IN BALTIMORE TO BUY
WEDDING PRESENT
STOPPED

Baltimore, July 24.—President Wilson objects to the movement which was started in this city some days ago to raise a fund for the purchase of a wedding present for his daughter, Miss Jessie Wilson. A letter to Mayor Preston received this morning reads:

"My Dear Mr. Preston: The President's attention has been called to an article in one of the Baltimore papers concerning a contribution made to you by Mr.
Ernest E. Nordenholz toward a fund for a present for Miss Wilson on the occasion of her marriage.

"While the President deeply appreciates the generous spirit which prompted Mr. Nordenholz to make this contribution, he greatly prefers that no fund be raised for this purpose. Will you not be good enough to notify Mr.
Nordenholz and also have proper announcement made to this effect in the paper in question."

This was signed "J. P. Tumulty, Secretary to the President." Miss Wilson will be married in the fall to Francis R. Sayre.

Bar Tight Beach Suits

Atlantic City, N. J., July 24.— Under a rule established here today feminine bathers hereafter must wear bathing suits with bloomer effect.

They may appear on the beach in the most exaggerated abbreviated skirt and there is no objection if they are slashed anywhere from an inch above the knee clear to the waist, but the bloomer idea must prevail in every feminine garment.

The same rule prohibits girls more than 16 years old from tripping about the sand without stockings.

A girl 20 years old was banished from the beach today by a life guard because her shapely nether extremities were devoid of stockings.

The action of the city authorities was upheld by the Department of Public Safety and the new bathing order was made

AT THE EAGLE.

The Liberty Bells Musical Comedy Company give their closing performance at the Eagle tonight. They will feature "The Siamese Twins" with Miss Raymond and Harold Cate in the straight title roles. "Jake" and "Iky" and a string of sausages fill the bill as "those charming twins." To hear Harold Plate sing, "Jane, Jane, Just Plain Jane," is a big treat all by itself.
The Lawrence Sisters dancing act is well worth the price of admission. A big show at a small price. Your last chance this season to see this company.
