The Rebels Have Taken Important Point--Stillman Safe

(By Parker R. Anderson.) Washington, D. C., May 16.—Tuxham has fallen into the hands of the rebels. John R. Stillman is now reported safe and on his way to Mexico City.

Washington, May 15.—Postponement of the Niagara Falls mediation conference from Monday to Wednesday, at the request of the Huerta delegates changed the plans of the South American mediators and the American commissioners for departure today and tomorrow, and at the same time produced much speculation as to possible significance in the delay.

Later the Spanish Ambassador here, who is caring for the interests of Mexico in the United States, authorized a statement that the delay merely meant that the Huerta delegates wanted a brief respite from their long journey and had no political importance. The Spanish ambassador will give the Mexicans a dinner here Saturday night, after which they will proceed to Niagara Falls. The three South American diplomats and American commissioners will leave Sunday and Monday and all will assemble Wednesday.

Hostile Act Over Parks. There were many developments in the day clearing the horizon for the mediation, but one sinister aspect developed in the sending of a strong note of protest by the United States government to Gen. Huerta, through the Brazilian Minister in Mexico City, declaring the reported execution of Private Parks, an infantryman, a hostile act in view of the suspension of hostilities at Vera Cruz.

The refusal to divulge information about Parks, in answer to repeated requests, also was resented by the American government. While there is no information of what course Americans will take, it is virtually certain that when the mediators get together the question of the whereabouts of Private Parks will be one of the main points in the discussion.

Killing Was Barbarous. Gen. Funston reported he had wandered through the Mexican lines. As he was in an American uniform he should have been treated as a prisoner of war and not executed as a spy.

The burning of his body indicated in reports from Gen. Funston, as well as by stories reaching the Brazilian Legation in Mexico City, is held by the United States to be contrary to the rules of civilized warfare.

The three mediators, through the State Department, today announced that the Lobos Island incident had been closed up. They informed General Huerta that the Mexicans were free to return to the Lobos Island lighthouse.

Snipers Are Mexicans. The six South Americans reported to have been arrested for sniping turned out to be Mexicans it was reported today and like others arrested at Vera Cruz were discharged. They had claimed they were South Americans to escape punishment.

On the whole President Wilson and his cabinet today took a more hopeful view of the Mexican situation than they had for weeks. They are confident mediation will accomplish something toward the pacification of the problem. The Constitutionalists' capture of Tampico brought out the fact that there is no prohibition against the shipment of arms into that port from the United States or any other country.

GOOD ROADS TO SEASHORE.

Mrs. J. Elwood Cox and party left here Tuesday in her car for Raleigh and Goldsboro and expected to return tonight. Mr. Cox received a telegram today from Mrs. Cox, stating that they found the roads so good that they concluded to go on to Beaufort tonight and remain over Sunday, returning here Tuesday. North Carolina is rapidly becoming a State of good roads.

MISS BERTA LINDSEY LEAVES.

Miss Berta Lindsay left today for Danville, where she will be joined by Miss Ida Potent, who is to conduct a party on a European tour. The party will leave New York Tuesday on the Carpathia and will tour the continent for three months. We bespeak for them a pleasant and profitable trip.

DEFENDS T. R.'S RIVER.

Washington, May 15.—Vigorous endorsement of Col. Roosevelt's claim of discovery of a new river in South America was given last evening by the National Geographic Society, through Gilbert H. Grosvenor, director, and editor of the society's magazine. Mr. Grosvenor not only points out Col. Roosevelt's qualifications as an explorer, but he discredits the British critics of the former President. Prominent among these critics are Walter Savage Landor, who made a long trip through Brazil, and Col. Younghusband, of Tibetan fame. Mr. Grosvenor refers to the attempt of English critics to discredit the Antarctic discoveries of Capt. Wilkes, U. S. N., whose daughter is Miss Jane Wilkes, of Washington.

The Concert

We felt proud of the Choral Society last night. The concert given at the Auditorium was about the best musical production ever heard in High Point and reflected credit on each and every one and especially the conductor, Prof. Brown.

The selection of the program displayed both taste and good judgment, bringing out the powers of the members of the society and furnishing splendid entertainment to the audience. Every selection made a hit and we wish that a larger number of our citizens had been present.

It is difficult to single out one or two in so perfect a production, but special mention should be made of those who took leading parts, rendering so delightfully the difficult parts. Mrs. W. R. Edmunds, Mrs. Kephart, Mr. Briggs, Prof. and Mrs. Brown, and their accompanists, Miss Florence Blair and Miss Minor.

We congratulate Prof. Brown and each member of the chorus on the marked success of the entertainment.

In Honor Mrs. Albion Millis.

One of the loveliest receptions ever given a High Point bride was Friday afternoon when Mrs. J. Edward Millis, herself a bride of only a few years, received in honor of Mrs. Henry Albion Millis (nee Miss Mary Lewis), a charming May bride, and that Mrs. Millis is given a most hearty welcome by representative ladies of her new home as evidenced by the constant stream of callers that crowded in throngs to this initial reception.

This gracious hostess on the threshold of this lovely new home would within itself be a welcome but with such a bevy of attractiveness amid so much bloom and blossom it was just the place for a bride's home welcoming. The entire lower floor wore a setting of potted ferns, and mingled in the hall were many roses.

Sweet peas in delicate tints filled brass baskets distributed about the living room. The drawing room was rich in red carnations, and the white locust was used in the punch room, holding sway around the punch bowl.

The dining room was as exquisitely lovely as the bride's table at the wedding feast. Long stem Killarney roses of delicate pink rose from a tall cut glass vase in the center of the table. Surrounding this were six small vases of ferns and lilies of the valley. Out from this circle were four brass baskets of fern and lilies of the valley, and at the four corners of the table were cut glass candlesticks with tall white candles.

On serving table and china closet were bowls of the shell pink Killarney roses. The gowns worn, especially those by the hostess and bride were very beautiful. Mrs. T. J. Gold opened the door. Mrs. C. T. Ingram greeted the guests in the hall and Mrs. Gordon Burnett presented the guests to the receiving line, composed of the following: Mrs. J. Edward Millis, Mrs. W. H. Ragan, Mrs. James H. Poe, Raleigh; Mrs. J. H. Adams, Miss Edith Poe, Raleigh; Mrs. W. D. Brooks, Miss Clara Lewis, Statesville; Mrs. Robert Bencini, Miss Elizabeth Booe, Walkertown.

Receiving at the dining room door were Mesdames O. E. Kearns and A. Sherrod. Misses Emily Brooks, Odelle Peacock, Adelaide Armfield, Asheboro, and Mary Sherrod, served the ice tea, sandwiches and mints in the dining room. Mrs. Carter Dalton directed the way from the dining room to the hall.

Mrs. James Lynch led the way through the hall to the punch room door, where Mrs. D. M. Pollock received. The punch room was gracefully presided over by Misses Edith Bradshaw, Clara Stanton and Berta Lindsey. Adieus were said to Mrs. Robert Morrow.

For Mrs. Leake. Several social functions are planned for Mrs. Frank Leake, the attractive house guest of Mrs. James Joseph Farriss.

For Miss Lawrence. Mrs. Robert Morrow's house guest, Miss Gertrude Lawrence, was the honoree Wednesday morning at a large card party given by Mrs. Albert Hart at her residence on English street. Score cards and markers for the seven tables were decorated with sweet peas, the same flower being used in vases, given as favors, and presented in immense bouquets to the honoree and Mrs. James Lynch, who made the top score. A dainty luncheon was served.

Tea Cups. Miss Gertrude Lawrence, the house guest of Mrs. Robert Morrow, won the guest's prize and Mrs. James Lynch the club prize at the Over-the-Tea-Cups Club Thursday morning; when Mrs. Wm. G. Shipman was hostess at her pretty new home on Thurston street. The game of auction was played on the wide veranda, where a cooling collation was served at the noon hour.

Delta Tau. Miss Edith Bradshaw was the hostess Thursday afternoon to the Delta Tau Club at an enjoyable Rook party. The highest scores were made alike by Misses Berta Lindsey and Catherine Tate, who cut for the box of handsome stationery, Miss Tate coming out the lucky one. A repast of iced tea, fruit salad, sandwiches and

Mr. J. Elwood Cox Heads Important Committee of Bankers--First Meeting in Richmond

J. ELWOOD COX CHAIRMAN.

Important Office Comes to High Point Citizen.

Mr. J. Elwood Cox, who is a member of the Executive Board of the National Bankers' Association, has also been attending meeting of the State Bankers' Association at Raleigh and we are pleased to state has been elected chairman of one of the most important districts of the Federal Reserve sections. This is a very important position and means much to this community and section. The News and Observer of today says:

"Meeting here Wednesday and Thursday at times when the North Carolina Bankers' Association was not in session the Federal Reserve Section of the association transacted important business. Seventy-two of the national banks of the State have joined the Federal Reserve system and these form the Federal Reserve Section for North Carolina.

"The section organized by electing Mr. J. Elwood Cox, of High Point, president, and Mr. W. B. Strachan, of Salisbury, secretary. The section declared as its first choice for director in class A of the Federal Reserve Bank at Richmond, Col. John F. Bruton, of Wilson, and as director in class B, Mr. R. M. Miller, of Charlotte.

Col. Bruton is one of the best known bankers in the State and Mr. Miller is a prominent cotton mill man. Under the new banking law the members of Class B of the Board of Directors of the Federal Reserve Bank must not be bankers, while the members of class A must be bankers.

"At a meeting of the section held Wednesday, Mr. J. Elwood Cox, chairman of the section, was authorized to appoint a committee of five in addition to himself and of which he should be chairman, to go to Richmond next Monday, May 18, and aid in the organization of the Federal Reserve Bank. The appointment of the committee was occasioned by a request by the Richmond bankers that North Carolina and the other States in the district send representatives. Mr. Cox named to serve with himself on the committee: Mr. H. M. Victor, of Charlotte; Mr. Joseph G. Brown, of Raleigh; Mr. H. C. McQueen, of Wilmington; Mr. E. C. Duncan, of Raleigh; and Mr. W. B. Strachan, of Salisbury.

In addition, according to information given out yesterday by Chairman Cox, any member bank in the State is invited to send a representative to Richmond Monday. The committee named was merely chosen by the section as steering committee to represent North Carolina in the organization of the Federal Reserve Bank. The meeting of bankers to organize the Federal Reserve Bank will be at the Jefferson Hotel."

MR. DOUP ARRIVES.

Mr. Doup, of Louisville, the general manager of the branch Southern Veneer Mfg. Co., recently decided to locate here, has arrived and ready for business. The company will occupy the lower floor of the Redding flats.

Mr. and Mrs. Doup have secured rooms at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Robinson, on Steele street. We welcome them to High Point.

BEGINNING FULL MOON MAY THE 9TH

Right in the heart of low shoe season to close out our WOMEN'S SHOES; I am going to increase my stock of men's shoes, my capital and store room will not permit both lines. I have a line of women's shoes that need no introduction, they are well known to every woman in High Point.

I want to spend just as little money advertising as possible and will be compelled to sell women's shoes at a very great loss to move them quick. Now if you don't need any shoes at any price, this sale will not interest you. But if you do a very little cash will buy a pair. I have most any style in black, tan, or white, women's, misses and children's, high or low cuts.

Please don't ask to have any women's shoes charged at this sale. I don't want any record of this shoe sale. Forget the troubles of today, for to-morrow has troubles of its own.

Watch the shoe window and you can get an idea of the prices we will have for you. Beginning
