HUGHES IS THE REPUBLICAN NOMINEE PROGRESSIVES SOLID FOR ROOSEVELT

ROOSEVELT NAMED UNANIMOUSLY AND HUGHES ON THIRD BALLOT; FAIRBANKS REFUSES SECOND PLACE

TWO TICKETS PUT OUT IN CHICAGO

All Peace Efforts Came to Naught Today When Both Conventions Named Candidates.

LANDSLIDE FOR HUGHES

The Justice Received Almost Unanimous Vote on Third—A Day of Political Storm.

COLISEUM, Chicago, June 10.—Charles Evans Hughes, of New York, was nominated for President by the Republican national convention on the third ballot today. His vote was practically unanimous. He received 949 1/2.

Colonel Roosevelt received 18 1/2; DuPont, 5; Weeks, 3; Lodge, 7; one absent.

Before the roll call had covered half of the states Hughes had the necessary 494. New Jersey's vote touching the mark.

Auditorium, Chicago, June 10.—At the very moment when it was flashed to the Progressive convention that Hughes had been nominated, Chairman Robbins of the Progressive convention was announcing that Colonel Theodore Roosevelt had been unanimously nominated as the Progressive leader.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 10.—When informed that the Republican convention had nominated Justice Hughes and that the Progressive convention had nominated him, Colonel Roosevelt refused to make comment. He remained secluded in his Sagamore Hill home.

Washington, June 10.—Word that Hughes and Roosevelt had been nominated by the two conventions in Chicago was communicated to President Wilson immediately. There was no formal comment, but administration supporters were obviously delighted.

Coliseum, June 10.—Fairbanks was nominated for Vice President.

Indianapolis, June 10.—Chas. W. Fairbanks wired the Republican convention in Chicago that he would decline the nomination.

Early Talk of a Coup.

Chicago, June 10.—At 9 o'clock this morning George W. Perkins, Gov. Hiram Johnson and other Progressive leaders were in close conference with Chairman Robbins, and rumor was among the Progressive delegates that a coup of some kind was in preparation, the word having gone around to have all the delegates in their seats early so that the convention could meet at 10:30 o'clock flat.

Mr. Perkins left the conference to attend a meeting of the Republican and Progressive conferees. All of the state chairmen remained in the conference. It was said that no word had come yet from Colonel Roosevelt as to whether he would accept the Progressive nomination if the Republicans nominated Justice Hughes.

Hughes' Nomination Forecast.

candidates would throw their strength to Hughes when the balloting began in the Republican convention was generally credited here this morning. The harmony conferences continued practically all night without reporting any agreement. It was said that the Illinois delegation would go in a body.

Rumors Flew Fast This Morning.
The conference of the Progressive state chairmen adjourned at 11:05 this morning after voting to request the Progressive convention to delay further action until after the Republican convention had had an opportunity to consider the suggestion by Colonel Roosevelt that Senator Lodge be considered as a compromise presidential candidate. A minority of the conference voted to ask the Progressive convention to nominate Roosevelt at once.

George W. Perkins announced in the auditorium that the Republican conferees last night had offered the name of Senator Hughes as a compromise candidate; that the Republican members of the committee were not unanimous for him, standing 3 for Hughes and 2 against him; that at this morning's conference the Republicans were unanimous for Hughes.

Colonel Roosevelt's telegram suggesting Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, as second choice of the Republicans, as a compromise candidate was greeted in the Progressive convention with shouts of "Not No!"

John McGrath, Colonel Roosevelt's secretary, appeared on the platform at the Republican convention. Chairman Harding was asked what it meant, and Colonel is trying to decide what he deems the most momentous question of his career—whether he shall consider it his duty to head a third party for what he calls straightforward Americanism, in the event that the Republican convention nominates Justice Hughes or any other man than Roosevelt himself.

MEXICAN SITUATION CAUSES UNEASINESS

Anti-American Demonstrations Continue and a General Uprising Is Feared.

TROOPS ARE THREATENED

Carranza Cavalrymen Reported to Have Threatened to Attack Scout Patrols.

Washington, June 10.—Administration officials were uneasy today over the continued reports of anti-American demonstrations in northern Mexico. Many Americans in Mexico, fearing serious rioting, are making their way to the border, and those seeking to return are being advised against such an act.

Most of the demonstrations have gone no further than mass meetings and speeches by agitators who resent the presence of American troops on Mexican soil. Officials fear that public opinion may flare into open rioting directed against American citizens, although no fear is felt for the safety of General Pershing's forces.

Attacks on American property have been reported from Chihuahua and Monterey where there are no consular agents.

Threaten American Troops.

Columbus, N. M., June 10.—American scout patrols with General Pershing's army in Mexico have been threatened with an attack by Carranza troops, according to authoritative information received here today. A column of Carranza cavalry is said to have dashed forward upon an American detachment recently south of Namiqanja, with rifles in hand. The American guards are said to have averted a clash by standing their ground. According to reports the Mexicans withdrew. General Pershing returned to his field base early today, according to dispatches received here, after inspecting the motor road between here and his headquarters. Preparatory to the rainy season additional motor trucks have been ordered.

he replied: "We are going to get together."

"The convention will never stand for a compromise," Governor Hiram Johnson said during the reading of Colonel Roosevelt's telegram before the Progressives. "It will nominate Roosevelt."

The New York delegation conferred on the floor at the coliseum the way they should withdraw the name of Root and to discuss vice-presidential preference. It is said that the bulk of that state's vote will go to Hughes.

Instructions to the Progressive delegates how to make a nomination unanimously without a roll call were given from the rostrum by Secretary Davis. After the explanation of the parliamentary situation it was apparent that a nomination would be made without a roll call.

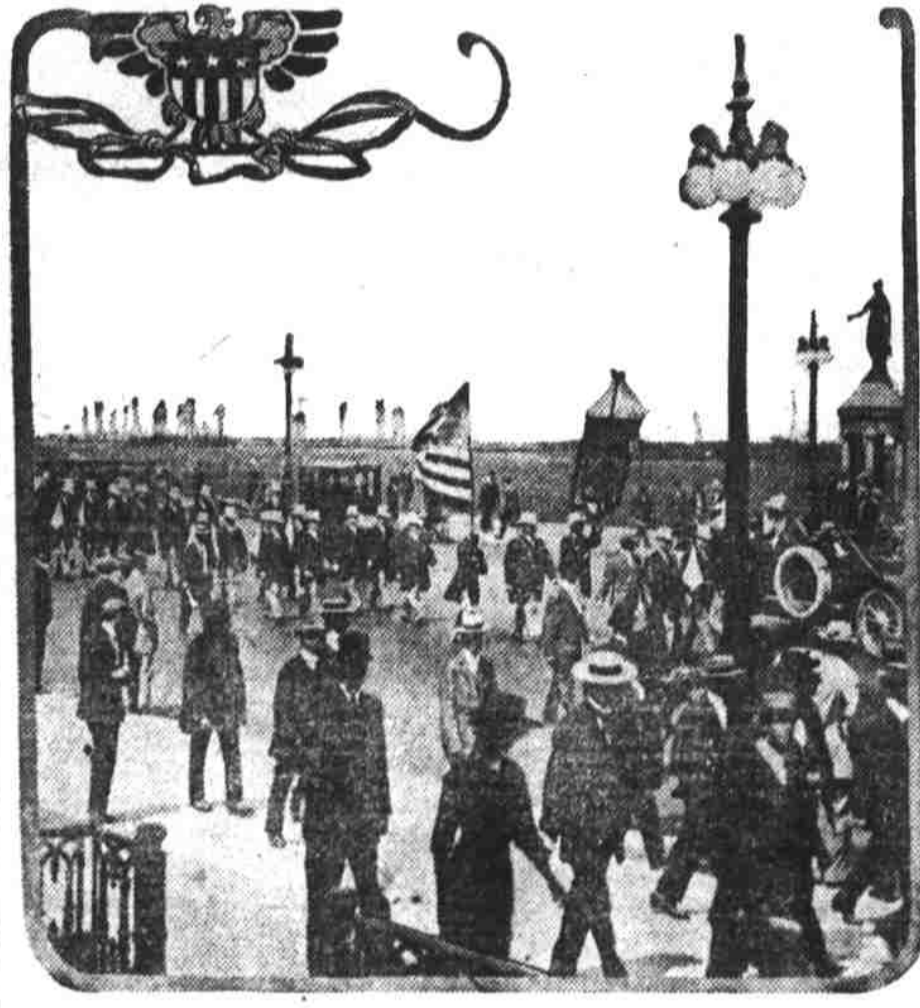

Answering the demand for an immediate nomination of Roosevelt, Chairman Robbins said the convention "would not proceed to adopt the platform or make nominations" without giving the conference committee a reasonable time to make a report.

Roosevelt Suggests Lodge.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 10.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt in a telegram sent this morning to the Progressive convention at Chicago suggested the name of Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, as a compromise candidate upon whom both the Progressives and Republicans could unite.

After a night of almost constant communication with Chicago over the telephone, Colonel Roosevelt retired to the seclusion of his home early today and denied himself to newspaper correspondents.

A CONVENTION PARADE IN CHICAGO

A GREAT CROWD HEARD DR. BLACK

More Than 200 Persons Were Unable to Get Into Auditorium Last Night.

WERE MANY PROFESSIONS

Boys and Juniors Attended in a Body—Three Services Arranged for Sunday.

A congregation of the church met to its utmost capacity assembled last evening to hear Dr. Black preach in earnest and impressive sermon from Luke 16:27: "Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things and likest Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted and thou art tormented."

Perhaps 200 people were turned away from the meeting for lack of room. An overflow meeting was held at the Presbyterian church, addressed by Rev. L. A. Peeler.

An inspiring feature of the service was the singing. Mr. Burr has an excellent voice himself and knows how to bring the congregation to its best. He and Dr. Black occasionally sing a duet with telling effect. Right in the midst of the sermon last evening Dr. Black had the audience sing a chorus.

The boys of the town met at Wesley Memorial church and attended in a body. As they were marching through the street, they were joined by the members of the Junior Order, making a most inspiring scene.

"A man does not go to hell because he is rich," said Dr. Black, "nor does he go to heaven because he is poor. The love of riches takes a man to hell and the love of God takes a man to heaven."

An opportunity at the close of the sermon was given for taking a stand, and 25 or 30 professed faith in Christ by standing and signing a card giving name, address and church preference. The service was interfered with and cut short at the most important place by the rain.

The meeting is growing in interest and power, and it looks as if the whole town would be reached and stirred before it is over. Sunday promises to be a great day with three services, one for men at the auditorium, another at Wesley Memorial church for the women and still another at the Friends church for young people and children.

Violent Artillery Fighting.

(By the Associated Press.)
Paris, June 10.—Violent artillery fighting was in progress on the Verdun front last night in the vicinity of Avocourt, Thiaumont, and the Chapitro and Fumin woods. There were no infantry attacks.

W.M. MARR SUCCEEDS THORNWELL HAYNES

City Council Last Night Elected Superintendent and All Principals Except One.

THE NEW SUPERINTENDENT

Prof. Marr Has Splendid Training for Responsible Position—Other School Matters.

Superintendent of city schools, W. M. Marr.
Principal South Main street school, no election.
Principal Elm street school, C. A. Smith.
Principal Park street school, Miss Emma Blair.
Principal Grimes street school, Miss Ada Blair.

The city council last night disposed of the matter of electing heads of the High Point schools, thereby getting off its hands one of the most vexatious problems it has had to deal with this year. The list at the head of this column is the result of the election, the selection of other teachers being deferred until next Tuesday night in order that the new superintendent may have an opportunity to make an acquaintance with his new district.

Only one name was considered as a competitor of the city schools by the council last night that being Prof. W. M. Marr, who for 13 years, two years has been principal of the South Main street school, and he was elected by a vote of 3 to 1. The voting for Mr. Marr were Mayor Elliott, and Councilmen Alexander and Davis. Councilman Smith was recorded against him, while Councilman Terry did not vote. Mr. Terry in explaining his position stated that he held a position in the election of a superintendent until he could look further into the list of applicants; that while he did not want to be recorded as opposed to Mr. Marr, still he did not feel that he could vote for him in the light that he was now before him, therefore, he would not vote at all.

The salaries of those elected were fixed as follows: Superintendent, $1,700 per annum; principal of the Elm street school, $900 per annum, an increase of $150; principal of the Park street school, $75 per month, an increase of $5; principal of the Grimes street school, $70 per month, unchanged.

Osie Davis was elected principal of the Fairview school (negro), the city's part of the salary being $15. The balance of the salary for this is paid by the American Society of Friends.

There were something like 15 applications on file for the position of superintendent. When the matter of electing teachers was brought up last night there were quite a number of interested citizens in the council chamber, all eagerly awaiting the action of that body. This interest was partly due to the recent row over Professor Haynes, and it was considered within the bounds of possibility that there would be "something doing" last night. The newspaper men had sharpened their pencils, taken a good position in order to record the vents about to transpire. The air had an expectant tinge promising a good story for the people of High Point this afternoon, but the best laid plans of mice and men oftentimes get knocked into a cocked hat from the most unexpected quarters, as Bobbie Burr isn't any.

Councilman Davis was observed to "enter across the 'no man's land' between the two supposed councilman factions, and hold a whispered conference with Councilman Terry. Now, Councilman Terry has been the friend of the newspaper men, but Mr. Davis must have used some mighty persuasive methods, for Mr. Terry gave the crowd a hurried "once over" and moved that the council go into executive session, which was acceded by Mr. Davis, so the newspaper men and the crowd in general sheepishly departed.

ITALIAN TRANSPORT SUNK BY SUBMARINE COSTING MANY LIVES

(By the Associated Press.)
Lomb, June 9.—An Italian transport ship has been torpedoed and sunk in the lower Adriatic with the loss of a large number of men and women, according to an official statement by the admiralty.

The steamer was captured by two other transport ships and was abandoned and escorted by destroyers. The Principe Umberto was a new steamer after being struck, and Italian transport ship was torpedoed by the submarine.

KOWAL DOCTORS PETITION FOR TUBERCULOSIS HOSPITAL

Salisbury, June 10.—The Rowan County Medical society has petitioned the county commissioners to provide a tuberculosis sanatorium in Rowan county. A committee appointed by the Medical society presented the matter to the commissioners, pleading that the sanatorium be established not only as a suitable home where indigent tubercular patients may be treated, but also in the interest of the poor unfortunates who are necessarily thrown in close contact with those suffering with the disease, 80 per cent of which, according to statistics have the disease sooner or later.

FLY CAMPAIGN STARTS OFF WITH GOOD WORK

The ladies who this morning met 15 youngsters who brought in flies to be measured were pleased with the first results of the work to banish flies from the city. Only four children reported, but these four brought six and three-fourth parts of flies. The ladies want to see more of the pests banished by swatting, but they think this is good for a start.

All the children of the town under the age of 15 are urged to enter the contest. There are good prizes offered and best of all the flies will begin to go. On with the swatter. Let work be unconfined and let every Saturday find a larger number of dead flies to be counted in the contest.

Weather.

Fair tonight and Sunday; light, variable winds.
