

New Clothes!

Get Them For Easter

If you need new clothes, now is the time to get them. Most everybody likes to wear their new things at Easter, for it is the opening of the season for the new, the fresh. The donning of new attire is one of the real official heralds of the arrival of spring and there has been no Easter in years that records the arrival of spring after a harder winter than the one through which we have just passed. Winter clothes have become worn, hence the desire to possess new outfits. And the lines of the outfitters are singularly more complete at this season than any other.

There's one thing you should be certain of this Easter—whatever you buy, be sure it's good. That's the way to save labor, material and money. That's the true meaning of economy as Uncle Sam would have us all practice it. The clothes we sell will help you to save the money.

Hart Schaffner & Marx make them. They're here; newest of new military styles for young men, smart looking, dignified business suits in blues, browns, grays, greens, chevots, flannels, worsted, casimeres, serges. Regardless of your size or taste, we have a Hart Schaffner and Marx suit that is tailored exactly to your measure. They are not merely ready-made suits, but are custom-tailored with every attention paid to the details that will bring you service.
