

FIRST METHODIST PROTESTANTS ARE TO HOLD A REVIVAL

Rev. J. E. Pritchard, of Burlington, to Conduct Revival at First M. P. Church.

A series of revival services will be inaugurated Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the First Methodist Protestant church, on North Main street.

Rev. Mr. Pritchard is a splendid minister and has served churches in various parts of the conference during the past few years.

ROYALTY NOW IS FASHION DESIGNER

PARIS, Aug. 28.—The only son of Grand Duke Michael, brother of the late czar, is now making his living by drawing for English fashion journals.

Count Michael Torby, for that is his name, will shortly give an exhibition of his models in London, Le Journal learns.

MOTHER STRANGLES HER INFANT SON

COATSVILLE, PA., Aug. 28.—Confessing she murdered her three-year-old son, Leon, last night, by stuffing a piece of rag down his throat, Mrs. Harry Marouchi, 30 years old, was lodged in Chester county prison this afternoon.

"I am crazy," she said, repeatedly, when asked why she had murdered the boy.

MRS. LOFLIN RETURNS. Mrs. R. L. Loflin has returned from New York, where she has been spending some time purchasing a stock of goods for the coming fall and winter for her millinery store here.

Ladies Are Urged to Attend This Grand Opening; Refreshments and Souvenirs.

A formal opening of the Gilmer Brothers' store of this city will be held this evening at 8 o'clock.

Ladies and gentlemen throughout the city are invited to attend and see the interior of the store, which has been completely remodeled.

A new line of ladies' ready-to-wear goods has been put in and a special department made out of it.

No goods will be sold this evening and each clerk will endeavor to make the evening a pleasant one for all comers.

BOY SLAYS HIS SISTER IN PLAY

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Anna Emmerich, three years old, was shot accidentally and instantly killed by her brother, Charles, Jr., seven years old, while the latter was playing with a revolver in their home.

The children were rummaging in a bureau drawer when the lad found the revolver and examined it. He accidentally pulled the trigger and the three bullets struck his sister in the mouth.

"To Hell With U. S." Leads Him to New Cell

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—A year ago, August Weissensel, of Chicago, was characterized by Federal Judge Landis as an "American citizen with a German heart."

In the Kansas City railway station waiting for a train to Chicago, he burst out with: "To hell with President Wilson and the United States army and navy. The Germans can lick them any time."

Marines and police were in the station. Now he is going back to Leavenworth, this time to stay the remaining nine years of his ten-year sentence.

FUNERAL SERVICE MRS. KEPHART WAS LARGELY ATTENDED

Large Number People and Floral Designs Attest Esteem in Which She Was Held.

The funeral services of Mrs. Grace Kephart were held Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Wesley Memorial church.

The services were in charge of Rev. W. A. Lambeth, of the Wesley Memorial church and he was assisted by Rev. James A. Clark, of the First Baptist church.

The church auditorium was filled with friends who came to pay respect to this popular woman. The exceedingly large number of floral offerings plainly showed the esteem with which she was held.

The service was opened with a song followed by a prayer from Rev. J. A. Clark. A quartet composed of Mrs. H. I. Coffield, Miss Vera Idol, O. E. Mendelhall and P. A. Ogburn then sang "Lead Kindly Light" with Mrs. Crews at the organ.

Mrs. Kephart's last public song was in the Wesley Memorial church one month ago when she sang "Crossing the Bar" at the funeral of Don Kirkman.

Rev. W. A. Lambeth paid many beautiful tributes to Mrs. Kephart in his short talk. "Most things come many at a time," he said.

He stated, "Mrs. Kephart had a cheery personality. She carried an unusually heavy load through life but she was always smiling.

Rev. Lambeth said, "She was democratic. She has sung at many funerals and in this way has brought comfort to many people of the city.

Mrs. Kephart was a cosmopolitan woman. Technically she was a Methodist but she took part at times in all the churches of the city.

Rev. Lambeth told of a letter that had come since her death telling of the love of the people in her old home, Columbia, Pennsylvania, for Mrs. Kephart and expressing their grief at her death.

The quartet sang "Asleep in Jesus" as a closing song. Interment was made in the family plot in Oakwood cemetery.

Girl Found Dazed in Catskills Says She is a Camden Resident

CATSKILL, Aug. 28.—The young woman found wandering aimlessly in the wood near here regained consciousness and said she was Josephine O'Byrne, of Chamber and Cape May, N. J.

In a rambling sort of a story she first said she was the wife of a Philadelphia banker, later that she had run away from a man in Cape May who was in love with her, and finally that she was employed as a maid by a family named Earnest Camden.

While the authorities are inclined to believe the last statement is correct, she is being held for observation in the hospital here.

Maine Farmer Didn't Know Town Was Dry

RUTLAND, ME., Aug. 28.—There is a farmer near here who didn't know the country had gone dry. On a visit to Worcester to get a drink he found his favorite saloons closed tight. Finally he visited one of his friends.

"Say," he said, "you know everything here. Why can't a man get a drink?"

"The country's gone prohibition," he was told.

"How long since?" came the rejoinder.

"Since July 1," he said. "First I'd heard of it. Been too busy lately to read the papers much. Can I get a drink anywhere?"

"No," was the answer.

And he resumed the long, dry trail.

MAIL CARRIER IS HELD AS RETAILER. ASHEVILLE, Aug. 28.—Acting on a tip received several days ago, Deputy Revenue Collectors King and Eaves, of Greenville, S. C., visited the Chimney Rock section and, stopping at the leading hotels as tourists, gradually worked up a case of retailing against Rural Carrier Cox, of Fairview, who, the officers claim, has been carrying whisky to the Chimney Rock section for some time. Cox takes the mail from the Fairview postoffice to the Chimney Rock section and the officers say that the temptation to pick up a little easy money evidently was too much for him.
