

PEACE TREATY WAR SEEMED NEAR END IN SENATE TODAY

Leaders Were Hoping For Final Vote on Last of Amendments Today or Tomorrow.

NEW AMENDMENT GIVEN

Would Prevent War Until People Had Voted on It After Arbitration Failed.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The end of the senate battle over the forty-six amendments written into the peace treaty by the foreign relations committee seemed in sight today, the leaders hoping a vote on the last would be taken today or tomorrow.

One amendment presented by Senator Moses, New Hampshire, would exclude all the British dominions from voting if any league of nations controversy.

A subject not touched by the committee was injected into the fight today by Senator Gore, Democrat, Oklahoma, who presented an amendment to article 12 proposing that under the league no action would go to war until an advisory vote of the people shall be taken as an additional condition after arbitration had failed.

The debate centered during the session around the provision for an international labor organization.

Battly November 11.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The German peace treaty may come into effect on the anniversary of armistice day. It was announced by the under secretary for foreign affairs in the house of commons today that the government hoped the treaty would be formally ratified November 11.

COLONEL STILL MUCH OF MYSTERY HERE

Not one word has been heard from Col. Charles W. Fletcher, the New York civil engineer, who is traveling in a wagon across the continent in the interests of the Washington and Lee Highway association, and who wrote Mayor D. A. Stanton and Secretary Massey of the chamber of commerce that he would reach High Point yesterday morning at 10 o'clock.

The colonel promised that he would deliver a wonderful speech on the importance of good roads direct from the seat of his big wagon upon arrival in the furniture city. The news of his approaching visit was spread throughout the city and all day yesterday and up until this afternoon people have been patiently awaiting his arrival.

If anybody residing in High Point knows of the whereabouts of Col. Fletcher, Mayor Stanton or Secretary Massey would doubtless appreciate the information.

VESSEL IS LOST WITH WHOLE CREW

ROCHESTER, Oct. 29.—The finding today of two bodies on the shore of Lake Ontario wearing life preservers bearing the name of the steam barge Homer Warren of Toronto revealed the total loss of that vessel with her crew of eight. The shore was strewn with wreckage.

ORDER MOOSE HERE HAS AN ENJOYABLE EVENING

About 100 members of Lodge No. 1566 L. O. O. M. were present at the Moose home in this city last night and following an interesting business meeting a very enjoyable social session was held.

Cards and pocket-billiards were the games played after which sandwiches, cold drinks and cigars were passed around. This was the first of a number of social meetings to be held by the local lodge this winter.

CALL IS ISSUED FOR LABOR CHIEFS TO HOLD MEETING

Will Meet in Washington December 14 to Discuss and Formulate Labor Plans.

ALL ARE ASKED TO COME

Call Says Labor Is Confronted With Its Greatest Difficulty at This Moment.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Chiefs of the national and international unions affiliated with the American Federation of Labor were called today to meet here December 14 to formulate such action as may be essential to safeguard, promote the rights, interest and freedom of wage earners.

The call issued by the federation executive council and the heads of the four railway brotherhoods declared labor "was confronted with grave dangers affecting the very foundation of its structure" and that it was imperative that the responsible representatives from the workers agree upon "fundamental principles" which will maintain "the right of freedom."

No specific topics for discussion were outlined but it is known pending anti-strike legislation will be one of the principle subjects.

Other matters expected to be taken up include collective bargaining and the right of organized labor to choose its own spokesmen, subjects which resulted in the dissolution of the national industrial conference.

W. C. MASSEY QUILTS AS C. OF C. HEAD

Wm. C. Massey, for some time past secretary of the chamber of commerce of High Point, today resigned his position to go into public work in the state of Tennessee. His resignation was accepted by President I. J. Farris.

Mr. Massey stated today that he regretted very much to leave High Point, but that he is leaving under entirely satisfactory conditions. He says that he feels that he is entering a more extensive field in Tennessee and gives that as his reason for tendering his resignation.

Since assuming his duties here several months ago Mr. Massey has done considerable good for High Point and has been instrumental in bringing a number of enterprises to the city. His successor has not yet been named.

Mr. and Mrs. Massey will leave tomorrow night for Tennessee.

TAKE UP CUDGEL AGAINST LIQUOR

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Armed with drastic machinery which became effective with war-time prohibition with the passage by the senate of a measure over the president's veto yesterday, agents of the bureau of internal revenue today took up the task of making absolute the ban on the manufacture and sale of liquor.

The few remaining saloons in the United States were legally opened today for the sale of beverages containing less than one-half of one percent alcohol. Sale of beverages with more than that amount made the saloonkeeper and brewer liable to severe penalties.

NEW YORK COTTON.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The failure of this morning's weather map to show killing temperatures was a disappointment to some of yesterday's buyers in the cotton market, and there was heavy realizing. Liverpool showed strength and the opening was 2 to 24 points higher on near months but 5 to 25 points lower on later deliveries. January sold at 3584 and March to 3485 after the call or about 14 to 18 points net lower. Rains in the western and central belt were unfavorable.

Mrs. H. B. Hiatt spent some time in Greensboro yesterday.

He Can't See Ruth

RUTH CHATTERTON

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The charming Ruth Chatterton in "Moonlight and Home-suckle" is courted by a congressman to whom the playwright gave the name of "Hamill." But the real Congressman Hamill wouldn't stand for his name in a play, even as a suitor for Miss Ruth. The play goes on, but the suitor now is "Congressman Hammond."

WILL TAG CITY FOR THE WREST MEETINGS

First Reformed Baraca Class Will Be Assisted by Boy Scouts in the Work.

A somewhat novel advertising idea will be carried out on Thursday evening of this week by the members of the First Reformed church to spread the news of the coming to the city on November 4 of Dr. Wiest, well known evangelist and pastor of the First Reformed church of Lebanon, Pa., to conduct a two week's meeting at the local church.

The members of the Baraca class are to meet with certain other members and Boy Scouts at the church on South Main street at 7:30 o'clock, and the city will be divided into sections among the workers. Several thousand tags have been printed advertising the coming of Dr. Wiest and it is hoped to have one of these tags placed on the door knob of every home in the city. So should you hear a knocking at your door tomorrow evening without the usual knock do not be alarmed—for 'twill only be one of the self-appointed workers assisting in the tag distribution.

Dr. Wiest is one of the strongest preachers of the reformed church in America, and his meeting in this city will undoubtedly draw large crowds. Arrangements are being made to use the balcony of the local church during the meeting, owing to the limited seating capacity of the auditorium. It will probably be necessary to make use of the Sunday school rooms also, but it is not believed that this will be satisfactory, owing to the inability of those occupying this room to see the speaker. It is hoped however, that ample arrangements may be made to take care of the crowds.

Dr. Wiest was for a number of years pastor of the First Reformed church in Philadelphia, one of the largest congregations in the country. This church was for generations the worshipping place of the famed Wanamaker family, and is probably the richest church in Philadelphia.

The meetings will begin November 4 and continue through November 19.

LABOR AND CAPITAL WILL TALK OVER THEIR DIFFICULTIES

They Meet Unofficially at the International Conference Opened Today.

SEC. WILSON PRESIDES

He Says Labor and Capital Must Solve Problem For Future of the World.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Representatives of labor and capital will take part unofficially in the international labor conference which began here today and Secretary Wilson who called the conference to order will be named president.

"Any conclusion that this conference arrives at that does not give full consideration of the fact that workers are living beings will fall of its purpose," said Secretary Wilson in welcoming the delegates.

Declaring that the problems of relation between labor and capital was the oldest in the world, he said "on the proper solution of this question depends the future prosperity of the world," adding the warning that "all social experiments should be conducted as carefully as those of a scientist."

A group of delegates attending the international congress of working women began today the preparations for recommendations for legislation on child labor which will be presented to the international labor conference later. Miss Grace Abbott led the discussion.

Creetings were read to the convention from the German women's club federation which was invited to take part.

LENINE AND TROTZKY IN PERFECT ACCORD. HELSINGFORS, Oct. 28.—(Delayed.)—Lieutenant Colonel. Lestrang Malane, a liberal member of the house of commons, has returned after a daring unofficial visit to Petrograd. He said he was convinced that it is improbable that Petrograd will fall this winter. He said reports of dissension among the bolshevik were untrue and that Lenine and Trotzky appeared to be working in entire accord. He saw Trotzky review soldiers, who hailed him as "a divine leader." Colonel Malane said the bolshevik asserted that General Denkin had lost the confidence and support of the allies and had reached an understanding with General von Der Goltz and Colonel Avaloff-Bermond, heading the so-called west Russian army, composed largely of Germans.
