

Local News Briefs

The meeting of the local council, United Commercial Travelers of America, which was expected to be held tonight, has been postponed until next Saturday night at 8 o'clock it was announced today.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Frances Swalm, who died yesterday afternoon, will be held at Fairfield church tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Samuel L. Haworth, pastor of the Friends church, this city, will officiate. The funeral party will leave the home at 1:30 o'clock.

There will be a community sing at the Welch Memorial Methodist Protestant church tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. A quartet from Winston-Salem, Wauhattown and Thomasville will participate in the sing besides several choirs from other churches in the city.

G. O. Hutcheson, construction engineer, who is assisting in the erection of the Commercial National bank building here, will deliver an address to the men's bible class of the First Baptist Sunday school tomorrow morning at 9:45 o'clock. Mr. Hutcheson, who is recognized as an unusually good speaker, will speak on the subject, "The Rise and Fall of Nations."

Frank Ogburn has been elected president of the High Point Life Underwriters' association. A. E. Furtelle, vice-president, and N. L. Garner, secretary. An executive committee composed of R. E. Ramson, G. G. Allen, W. L. Hargett, J. E. Savage and P. A. Jones has been appointed.

Thursday, June 15, the life underwriters will have a social meeting for their members and wives.

EARL L. HOLLEMAN IS DEAD AT HOME HERE

Earl L. Holleman, age 28, died last night at the home of his father, T. L. Holleman, on West Green street extension. His death followed an illness of several months.

Besides his father, Mr. Holleman is survived by two brothers, John Holleman, Wilkesboro; Roby Holleman, of Lexington; by five sisters, Mrs. S. B. Hendrick, Mrs. Z. B. Swalm, Mrs. J. C. Swalm, Mrs. M. T. Guffy, and Mrs. Floy Shoemaker. The funeral services will be conducted at the home Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Rev. C. V. Brooks, pastor of West End Baptist church. The interment will be in Oakwood cemetery.

THOMASVILLE CITIZEN DIES IN HIGH POINT

Following an operation for appendicitis, Dewey Petree, 23, of Thomasville, died yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at a local hospital. The body was taken to Thomasville, and the funeral will be held at his home there Sunday afternoon.

He is survived by his widow, who was Miss Emma Fritts, and by one small child. He also leaves his parents Mr. and Mrs. Solomon on Petree one sister, Miss Ella Ray Petree, and a brother Ira Petree, all of Thomasville.

Before his illness last week, Mr. Petree held a position with the Thomasville Bottling Co.

NOTICE OF SALE In the District Court of the United States for the Western District of North Carolina at Greensboro In the Matter of WILL SWITZER, Bankrupt.

IN BANKRUPTCY.

Pursuant to an order of Clifford Frazer, referee in bankruptcy, directed to the undersigned Trustee in the matter of Will Switzer, bankrupt, now pending in the United States District Court at Greensboro, the undersigned will receive sealed bids to be opened at the office of the Referee on the fourth floor of the Banner Building, Greensboro, North Carolina, at 11:00 o'clock a. m. on June 20, 1922, for the following assets of the bankrupt:

1. Stock of dry goods, including shoes, dress goods, clothing and other kindred lines of merchandise, together with certain store fixtures now in the store heretofore occupied by Will Switzer at High Point, North Carolina.
2. Certain consigned goods as follows: (a) Lot No. 1, consisting of clothing alleged to have been consigned by August to Will Switzer, bankrupt. (b) Lot No. 2, consisting of clothing alleged to have been consigned by S. Shaffer to Will Switzer, bankrupt. (c) Lot No. 3, consisting of hats alleged to have been consigned by M. Grabolsky to Will Switzer, bankrupt. (d) Lot No. 4, consisting of dresses alleged to have been consigned by the American Cloak & Suit Co. to Will Switzer, bankrupt.
3. All of the right, title and interest in and to a certain lease on the store room heretofore occupied by the bankrupt, the said lease now being in the name of Will Switzer and wife. The same runs until 1925 at a rent fixed by contract of One Hundred Twenty-five Dollars ($125) per month. The rent has been paid up to June 20, 1922.

TERMS OF SALE: Terms of sale are cash. Certified check or cash for ten per cent (10 per cent) of the bid must accompany each bid as good faith money alleged by the bidder, to be returned if the bid is rejected, and to be held and covered into the treasury of the receivership if the highest bid fails to comply with the terms of this bid.

Parties contemplating entering the retail shoe business or dry goods business, or any other prospective bidders may inspect the above listed assets located on North Main Street, High Point, North Carolina, one of the best towns in North Carolina, and may examine the inventory thereof by seeing the undersigned in High Point at the place of business of the bankrupt on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays between this date and the 20th day of June, 1922. All bids are subject to the confirmation of the court.

This, the 10th day of June, 1922. JOHN L. THACKER, Trustee in Bankruptcy of Will Switzer, High Point, N. C. 6-20

The Personal Side of our Trust Service

DON'T get the mistaken idea that our service as Executor or Trustee is cold, impersonal and automatic.

We are strictly businesslike in all that regards the safe and efficient handling of trust matters, but we never forget the importance of a human, friendly interest in the problems of those whose affairs have been intrusted to our care.

By appointing us to settle and manage your estate, you provide not only efficient management and safe investment for your heirs, but also the personal interest and friendly counsel of our officers.

A talk with us on this subject may give you a new idea of the importance of efficient trust service as applied to your affairs.
