

MEMORIAL HELD FOR LEADER IN CHURCH AFFAIRS

Beautiful Tributes Are Paid To the Life of Miss Belle Bennett At Local Church

Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock the Missionary societies of Wesley Memorial church held a memorial service for Miss Della Bennett, who for more than 30 years was an outstanding figure in southern Methodism.

Following the singing of a hymn by the audience, Mrs. J. V. Wilson read the 14th chapter of John, a favorite chapter of Miss Bennett during her last illness.

Miss Rosa Southerland led a prayer for deeper consecration that the women of southern Methodism might carry on the work that she has started.

A quartet composed of Mrs. R. T. Amos, Mrs. R. L. Waynick and Mr. Davis and Bert Kirkman sang "Oh Love That Will Not Let Me Go."

Mrs. Thurlow Kearns gave a brief sketch of Miss Bennett's life. Having inherited a spirit of independence and leadership from sturdy French and English ancestors and living a life of deep consecration, she was ever ready to meet the demands of her church.

The quartet then rendered, "Have Thine Own Way Lord." Mrs. Fred Eshelman then discussed "Miss Bennett as a Church Woman." She was a church woman in every sense of the word. She filled acceptably the highest position open to women of the church, was a pioneer in securing laity rights for women in the Southern Methodist church. It was through her efforts that Scarret Bible and Training school for girls was established.

Her interests were world wide and interdenominational. She visited all the mission fields and served as a representative of the Methodist church in many interdenominational conferences.

Mrs. Charles Kephart then sang, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere."

Mrs. J. W. Chandler gave a reading, "The Laborer's Task is O'er." This poem was read by Bishop Darlington at Miss Bennett's funeral.

Following the reading of another hymn the congregation was dismissed with a prayer by Mrs. J. V. Wilson.

It also was announced that a joint meeting of the county board of commissioners and the county highway commission for Guilford will be held in the county courthouse at Greensboro on Wednesday. Mr. Cox also is a member of the county commission.

Cutter Mojave is Drifting. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—The coast guard cutter Mojave, with Assistant Secretary Huston, of the department of commerce, and other government officials aboard, is drifting approximately 300 miles west of Honolulu, with its fuel supply depleted, according to wireless messages picked up at San Diego and received here late yesterday by the marine department of the San Francisco chamber of commerce. The fleet tug Sunnudin left Pearl Harbor, T. H., yesterday to give aid to the Mojave. The government officials are on a cruise.

CHEATHAM UNDER A BOND OF $7,000

Alleged Slayer of Doug, Dunham At Salisbury Is Charged With Murder

SALISBURY, Oct. 24.—H. H. Cheatham, federal prohibition officer charged with the murder of Doug Dunham, a young white man of this city, was allowed a bond of $7,000 in federal court here this morning. The bond was immediately given and Cheatham was released.

Henry Clement, solicitor for superior court in this district announced that he will ask the grand jury in the state court for a true bill against Cheatham charging first degree murder. This indictment will be made returnable in federal court at the April term in 1923.

Cheatham is alleged to have fatally shot Dunham on the night of October 14 while in search of liquor.

Miss Hinshaw III. The many friends of Miss Vera Hinshaw will regret to learn that she was brought home from North Carolina College for Women, Greensboro, where she has been attending school. Miss Hinshaw underwent an operation for appendicitis yesterday morning at a local hospital.

CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH IN HOME

Little Tots Meet Horrible Death As Parents Are Away From Home

SALISBURY, Oct. 24.—Two small children of Mr. and Mrs. Grantley McCullough, a boy 4 years of age and a girl 2 years old, were burned to death in a fire which destroyed their home two miles from Cooleme, Davie county, yesterday. The father and mother had left the children alone in the home while they were employed a short distance away.

The house was enveloped in flames when the fire was discovered and all efforts to reach the children were futile. Their charred bodies were found in the ruins of the home, cooked to a crisp with feet and hands burned off.

Just how the fire originated is not known. It is believed the children were playing with matches. The double funeral took place at Neighborhood church this afternoon, the bodies were interred in the same grave.

FOUND GUILTY OF SEDUCING A GIRL

GOLDSBORO, Oct. 24.—The recorder's court, Judge Bland presiding, was engaged all of yesterday in hearing the charge against I. T. Stroud, a Baptist preacher, of Duplin county, charged with seduction of Matilda Kennedy, a 15-year-old school girl, who Stroud brought to names when the fire was discovered and all efforts to reach the children were futile. Their charred bodies were found in the ruins of the home, cooked to a crisp with feet and hands burned off.

Just how the fire originated is not known. It is believed the children were playing with matches. The double funeral took place at Neighborhood church this afternoon, the bodies were interred in the same grave.

FOUND GUILTY OF SEDUCING A GIRL

GOLDSBORO, Sept. 29 and registered at the Holland hotel as J. B. Green and wife.

Solicitor Deas was assisted in the prosecution by Williams and Johnson, of Duplin, Freeman and Thompson, of Goldsboro.

The girl, a delicate-looking child, was on the stand for three hours, and made an excellent witness.

The case was closed last night. Stroud was found guilty, and sentenced to six months on public roads. The case was appealed to superior court. Stroud is out on $1,000 bond.

Die From Injuries.
DANVILLE, Va., Oct. 24.—Mrs. Samuel C. Penn, 60, died at 10:30 o'clock last night as the result of injuries received when she fell down the stairs at her home at Reidsville Friday night, according to a message received here today.

She is survived by her husband and five children. Mr. Penn is one of the best known tobacco manufacturers in the state.

It Costs You Nothing, But May Be Costly

Keeping your valuables in your safe or hidden at home may save you the small expense of a safe-deposit box.

The gifted gent who ply their trade twixt dark and dawn show uncanny cleverness in discovering the most secret hiding places and remarkable skill in extracting the contents of the ordinary safe. Only one such visit or one fire would cost you many times the price of a safe-deposit box.

Boxes may be had at The Wachovia for as little as $3.00 a year. No investment of a similar amount you might make could repay you as profitably in the satisfaction and safety this will give you.

We take pride in exhibiting our vaults, and invite your inspection of them.

Make Your Dollar Stretch

The purchasing power of a dollar bill has shrunk considerably in the last ten years. There has never been a time when discriminate buying paid bigger dividends.

Every day this newspaper contains information that you should have to increase your buying power. The advertisements are intimate little lessons in every-day economy. They teach you how, when and for what your dollar will go farthest.

To those who know how to use it, newspaper advertising is a watchdog of dollars—a continuous source of economy and satisfaction.

Merchants tell of their bargains through the advertisement. Almost every new opportunity is offered through an advertisement. Practically every unusual buy is advertised.

You can stretch your dollar to its elastic limit by keeping abreast of the opportunities to get full value.

There's just one way to do this.
Read the advertisements.
