

GREETING ARRIVALS

AT HALLOWEEN PARTY

Witches' hats and spooky refreshments set the mood of Halloween for the Maryfield residents. Auxiliary members hosted the party held yesterday afternoon at the home.

Auxiliary Entertains For Maryfield Residents

Maryfield Auxiliary members entertained residents at Maryfield Nursing Home yesterday afternoon with a Halloween party.

The honorees wore costumes in keeping with the party mood.

This social was one of several events sponsored by the service group during the year. Others include Christmas parties and semi-anniversaries at Thanksgiving and Easter.

To date, the auxiliary has more than doubled its membership since it was begun in 1966, and still more members are needed. The group is composed of non-paid volunteer workers who assist the residents by answering the phone, directing visitors to the rooms, bringing fresh water to the patients, distributing books and magazines, taking the patients out of doors — weather permitting, feeding invalids and doing other acts of mercy.

Seventeen members were present at the organizational meeting in February 1966. Mrs. Royser Thurman was the first chairman and Mrs. G. L. Burgess was named secretary.

Cats Take Over

GREAT STAUGHTON, England — Judith Burton, 57, moved her husband and herself into a trailer in the backyard so that their 15 cats could have a servant and the run of their four-room house.

"The servants I interviewed refused to sleep in the trailer," Mrs. Burton explained. "At first, my husband kicked up a fuss about the new arrangement, but I convinced him that any good cat breeder would do as much for pets who had won 13 prizes at the championship show in London."
