VOL. V.

NEWBERNE ADVERTISEMENTS

-AND A--

Facts Worth Remembering

FEW THOUGHTS For Your Consideration

HAVE YOU A FARM WAGCH ? If not, come and buy one of the CELEBRATED TENNESESE!

Do You Want the Very Best Cotton Plows in Use? If you do, all I ask is a trial of the Celebrated Improved Climax warrant every one I sell, and you are running no rick whatever in buying

Had you rather have a Nice Polished Steel Plow than a Cast-Iron as? Thun buy my Calebrated Queen Plows.

Gen. R. Ransom says the Gilbert Porce Pump beats any pump he has ever used. And why don't you study your own interest and convenience, and buy one. You will not regret it.

See my Improved Iron Cultivator, with its attachments, and buy or Nos. 35, 40, 45, 50, 55, A 6, 10 and 11 Plows from me.

I am Manufacturer's Agent for all classes of Machinery, among which are ines Saw and Grist Mills, Cotton Gins and Presses on Cleaners, Cotton Seed Hullers, Shingle Machines

COTTON SEED OIL MILLS.

all all kinds of Agricultural Implements, and anything you want Give me a trial. If I don't treat you right, then I won't think of for not patronizing me.

sell Walker's Ammoniated Cotton Phosphate, She silently bowed, with a sweet, ten tandard Guano, and respectfully ask you to give it a trial.

I am, truly yours, JOHN C. WHITTY. CRAVEN STREET, NEWBERN, N. C.

Carraway's Liver Pills. CALOMEL or other MERCULIAL Ingredients, but are com-

re and Unadulterated Vegetable Ingredients

MAKING THEM THE

Surest, Safest and Best Liver Pill on the Market. All Druggists and Dealers keep them. 25 cents per box. sepiwly

The pleasure of your company is respectfully selicited Figh Court Doors Light

FASHIONABLE

Dry Goods, Notions and Shoe Store

A. M. BAKER, POLLOCK STREET, NEW BERNE, N. C.

- Samples of any kind of Goods cut. Goods sent out to be looked at.
- Money returned if Goods do not suit.

passed down.

ods, fresh and desirable; also my elegant stock of

Ladies and Children's Hand-made Shoes,

ted. I am prepared to offer at the lowest prices, reeling assured that my facilities enable me to compete with any similar establishment in this city. A call from you when you visit our city is solicited, and, in the mean time, your orders will receive prompt and careful attention.

Send 3 cent stamp for Fashion Sheet.

sepi-d&wsm

ASA JONES,

MIDDLE STREET, NEWBERN, N. C.,

Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Notions, Hats, BOOTS, SHOES, CLOTHING, Etc., Etc.

Agentafor the "DIAMOND SHIRT," Unlaundried $1.00, land to the diggings, and after a Laundried $1.25.

AND THE CELEBRATED

Warner's Coraline Corset, Price $1.00.

A Full Line of Gents', Ladies' and Children's Underwear, the weak were left to their fate. As Gents' Linen, Celluloid and Paper Collars and Cuffs,

Silk and Linen Handkerchiefs, All Kinds of Gents', Ladies' and Children's Hand and Machine Made Shoes Rubber Coats, Hats and Shoes, Ladics' Cloaks and Jackets, and everything and gave him this message to his gage every Confederate gun at the a wonder to those who inspected ent. It is after we are married

FIRST-CLASS DRY GOODS STORE.

ASA JONES

Middle Street, opposite Baptist Church.

NEW BERNE, CRAVEN COUNTY, N. C., MARCH 8, 1883.

The Tournament. At Stonewall it was, at a Tournament

The Knights were arrayed in their rappings so gay, morning was fair,

As the sun-kissed land of flowing Rhine, When a princess' fair hand Tourney's great prize. The lists were prepared, the music rang sped fast; A thrill of excitement swept over the An hundred of young hearts throbbed many bright eyes. That fortune would follow their favorite Knight And grant him success in the day's

Each eager for sight of the victor Knight now, And O! those fair cheeks, and oh! how they burned

With blushes, to think the crown circling their brow. For fair cheeks were blushing, and sweet lips, too, smiled.

With beautiful figures in silken robes clad, Soft voices that had a poor fellow be- ral Porter collected his seven gunguiled, And eyes that would drive a poor felall the great contests that men under Dame Fortune says: all must by one The danger is equal, each may win the

But operhall be first and one must b

keen glance
To her, at whose feet, now his trophy he'll lay!

and who shall be queen in this bright realm of youth Where Beauty and Love hold continual sway? With gallants surrounding their hom-

He rides through the vast crowd, now this way, now that; He hears not the voice of a half sup-

The blush of surprise that suffused that

And maidenly modesty hushed the

The honor she felt was conferred by And who is this lady so fair to behold. Whose right is to reign o'er the beautiful scene? Those gray eyes, with deep light, the truth will unfold

And that gentle face tell that 'tis na-The orphan may see, in this world filled The gay wheels of Fortune, as fast by

She may hear the great chariot roll on That to Poverty's child doth so seldom

And yet in the noontide of Life's gorgeous train, When Fashion and Wealth alone open the door. The generous soul world of gain. To find the true heart open wide to

Sir Knight! that proud deed was chivalry true The true heart's true chivalry, deny it

Born with us in Paradise, but ever new, It makes us like God, for it makes us and those beloved ones, in the far Land

Charity's child. Have wept tears of joy, if the spirits e'er weep,

And Heaven's bright angels looked gren on board an iron-clad was a square stand up-and-take-it such a baptism of shot and shell,

M. Ouan

He is brave who, knowing that courage from recklessness:

She screamed with terror. trampled the flames out. He carin Cincinnati. The factory caught fire. Instead of running out to to save himself, he ran up stairs to vance without being alarmed. The tell the girls on the fourth floor. trees up the river were black with The stairway were filled with smoke, Federal spectators; and the chirp

Instead of leaving by the main floor he went down into the cellar. Thence there was no escape. There his dead body was found the following day. It was in a kneeling and the river bubble. That fight send a brave man to grass until he reckon I'll go any more. posture, and his hands were clasped. as if in prayer. He was a brave boy. At the time of the gold fever in California, a man went from Engwhile sent money for his wife and child to follow him. While on the voyage a fire broke out in the ship. could not extinguish it ed him over the side of the vessel, Admiral Porter's plan was to en-death a dozen times over. It was American, "but with us it is differfather: "Tell him," she said, "if same moment. He had counted the Benton after the fight that she that we settle everything on the you live to see him, that I died to on silencing the lower guns first brought a single man of her crew wife and arrange to beat our credisave you." He escaped; she died, and gradually moving his vessels out alive. The Confederates fully tors." "Haw! I see. And how do She was wiling to die to save up stream. His plan worked as expected to see her go to the bot- the creditors take it?" "They never the United States Navy, died at naval fights of the war would soon case.

FORT AND FLEET.

Both -- Defeat for Neither.

THE SITUATIONS. Farragut had passed down, but when Grant was ready to follow The trials are over; attention is turned; with transports and troops Farragut could not return to assist him. or at least did not, it being known almost impregnable. To give Grant a clear passage down this cover, the gun-boats moved on up position must be silenced, and after it had been decided that a land attack was out of the question Admi-boats or in the fort.

is something of a mystery. Cor. inch Dahlgrens at close range, and federate officers stationed there yet Confederate official reports and agree that there were no serious obstacles in the way, and they were side the works show that but little looking forward dreading such a was accomplished. The parapets boats and prepared for a fight.

three miles above the batteries, and and though the explosions of the there was nothing to prevent a brig- great shells moved tons of earth at ade from making its way down once, the men were not even driven water!" through the woods and making to the bomb-proofs. Shell after And watch as he turneth his bright eyes such a demonstration as would shell tore away at the walls, but it have given the fleet much less to would have taken three days to do. The woods were thick, fulli of beat them down. Not a gun was water here and there and the mov- dismounted, and only two or three top of each other in the wall and ment would have called for extra men wounded. exertion, but 4,000 Federals could have walked into the back door of Some fair lady seated in carriage, for the Confederate position that day without more loss than was incurred by the fleet in partially silencing

The series of works on the bluffs mounted an aggregate of eighteen Bends low to a maid seated silently There could be no landing along the front for a mile, and in case the fleet silenced every gun it could not hope to drive the Confederates out.

> forts, and the assembling of the created havoc in the timber half a the men were instructed to fire at. coolly and slowly and only after The four gun-boats engaging the was placed handy, the work of before moving up, the Pittsburgh dayligat on the 20th of April 1863, damage to machinery or guns, and them: every Confederate was at his foot had plenty of pluck for what was to and ready for what was to come. come. One of the scouts had mounted a tall tree on the bluffs to act boats were moving down. ON THE FLEET. ber of guns and strength of troops could have been battered down by and as the flotilla passed down there $5 a mouth from the date the act a current running seven miles an While it was almost gun for gun in the count, one eleven-inch Dahltwo pounders in the fort. MOVING INTO POSITION. When the first attack was made his act to aid another may bring on Fort Sumter by the iron-clads peril of limb, or even of life, delib- not a gun was fired by the Confederately takes the chances and does erates until every craft had reached the deed. A writer in the Christian its assigned position. So it was at not a shot entered an embrasure or A question for lawyers: If a flea the Governor, and gives him a Union brings out, by several anec. Grand Gulf. The works strung struck a gun, although scores of bites a dog, and, and so enranges salary of six hundred dollars. dotes, this trait, which distinguish out for a mile or more, and there A little boy and a girl were the attack. There was front suffi. of the fight: playing by a bonfire. The girl was cient to maneuver, and orders were and began to blaze up about her. This order was strictly observed. away as if in a nightmare, but we that strangers will think their something they would be bound to Her little brother did not scream of forts and rounded to in front of our last. The Benton fired repeat-

Men who were in the forts that ried the scar of the burns on his morning saw a strange panorama. hands for many days. It took a The stillness was most profound brave boy to do that, a boy who was on shore and on the river. The willing to suffer to save his sister. boats moved slowly and grandly Henry Maag was a factory boy down, not a man in sight and with no sign of life, and a flock of ducks moved out of the path of the ad-

> THE FIGHT OPENS. stands on record ahead of all for could rally his nerves. rapidity of firing by iron-clads, and this Confederates do not deny that the forts had got down to work in reasoning. When the Confederates grounds for these expectations befound that there was to be no at comes plain when it is stated that The Fight at Grand Gulf-One of the tack by land, and that in case they the Benton was leaking in thirty Pluckiest of the War-Victory for were lucky enough to disable a gun-different places when she dropped boat, she would either float out of the fight.

their reach or to be towed above. A year or two ago the great they ceased to expose themselves Gather of Waters began eating its so reckles ly, and as a consequence at rifle range, this did not satisfy the day was as gay in the happy sunand there were those who predicted this to the execution of his own repeatedly struck by a particular ing the charter of the town of Pure Rye and Corn Whisky that the scene of one of the great guns, which was far from being the gun, she ran in so close to the shore Stonewall passed third reading—earthworks on the bluffs had been Louisville, Carondelet, Pittsburg, ferent guns were driven to cover. Bill to authorize the commissionan appeal, the current of the mighty and Mound City took positions and The gun-boat fired so fast that after ers of Lenoir county to levy a spe The signal was given, the swift steed river swerved away and left the opened one of the hottest fires the first few rounds she could not cial tax passed third reading years relies to stand for a while longer. earth-works had ever been subject be seen by friend or foe, but she 21, mays 9. Every fort and wall and parapet ted to. Tons of screaming shells had the range and kept hammering Bill to relieve the sureties of John As with steady lance each bold rider and ditch can be traced to-day all rushed at the isolated forts as if away until there was no longer a McArthur, late treasurer of Duplin most as easily as the day after the walls of earth were dust to be scat- reply. A perfect shower of bullets county passed third reading. memorable fight and there are hun- tered, and tons of shell went was rained down upon her by the dreds of men yet living who took streaming across the muddy waters infantry without avail. She had a wild with delight.

And pleasure and hope beamed from an active part that day on the gunsplinter planks and beams in a no great damage. manner gun-boats had never stood before. It was by direct orders that the Confederate fire slackened at the been demoralized and driven to driven from her position.

three more men killed at the upper ond reading. the rivers to assist in the reduction of the other forts. THE FEDERAL FIRE.

For two hours and more four Federal gunboats pounded away with Why a land attack was not made rifled Parrots and eleven and ninethe assertions of men who were inwere from sixteen to twenty-two feet Grant had halted his transports thick, the dirt well packed down,

Owing to the swift current and the numerous swirls and eddies, none of the boats had any such positions as were taken before Forts guns some of them very heavy, and at least four pieces having a raking fire up and down the river. stream—one moment broadside on -the next whirled around or carried away in a half-circle. Under such circumstances the fire could not approach accuracy, but as an offset taking careful aim · Ammunition lower works were repeatedly struck

It has been claimed that the Benas lookout, and about 6:30 o'clock ton. Tuscubia and Lafayette-the he signalled that Porter's gun-three gun-boats detailed to engage The position of the works on the complished before or equaled after. parapets pretty much to pieces, his bluffs was known to the comman. They were closer to the works and der of every gun-boat; and a close in a better current, and they went estimate had been made of the num. in to win. If the Grand Gulf forts within the forts. The boats must from nothing but their clean swept was more or less firing, but without was ratified in 1879, passed third look out for swirls and eddies and sites would have been left when serious results. Porter had put his reading. that fight closed. There were three hour. The advantage of position and four minutes at a time when the nour. The advantage of position and four influees at a time when the was with the Confederates—the ad- smoke hid the boats and the river Confederates tought as they did August terms exclusively for trial vantage of guns with the fleet. completely from view, and the Conmore than an offset for two thirty- and hurt-him-all-you can affair between the three boats and the boats and the forts, but the white heat was to come when the whole fleet got to work. THE GUNS IN THE FORTS. In all that five hours' figthing bad spell since it was founded.

Four of the fleet ran past the chain all felt that any moment might be husbands are pawnbrokers. nor run for help; he caught holt of the fort before a shot was fired, al. edly at my gun, and as many as has passed;" remarked Mr. Wigthe blazing aprou and tore it off her, though all were fair targets as they twenty of her shells struck the opening, tearing holes in the parapet ten feet back. Twenty times paper. "Well, I'm glad of that," loose earth was knee-deep around work. I sighted the gun, and I saw amount to much unless it has as and six plump into another.' and in going down, after giving of birds was all about the men who shell to grape and canister, which school?" said a superintendent to a county to assign hands to work on the alarm to the girls, he lost his stood waiting beside the huge can- they did now and then in hopes to boy. "Cause pa owes my teacher Trent river in said county. Porter went at his work with a of these missiles, as they cut their an' pa said I needn't go any more build a bridge passed its third readvim which made the forest tremble way over the forts was enough to till he paid for the boots, an' I don't ing.

THE BENTON. Porter's own ship might have for a few minutes they were appalled by its fierceness. When Gen. Grant at hand as a spectator, and the way the ship was handled earnest there was a roar so tremenand her guns worked were subjects dous as to be painful to the Federal long talked about in army any navy an infantry three miles away. And circles. She fired apwards of 500 a nickel. "Yes, boss, dat's a fact. there was a fierceness beneath this rounds, and not more than ten of par's six obus in de family, and public bridges in Onslow county.

Act to regulate and repair the public bridges in Onslow county. The boats were got out; the strongest pushed into them, and the weak were left to their fate. As the last boat was moving off this mether pled for her boy. The sailors said there was not room for both; they would take one.

The boats were got out; the strongest pushed into them, and the strongest pushed into them, and the were hate and spite in the whip-like crack of the nine-inch guns and the scream of the monster shells from the forts seemed they would take one.

The boats were got out; the strongest pushed into them, and the wild. In return she counted sixty shot-holes in her hall after that fight, and at least thirty other shots created more or less damage above her deck. Her loss in killed was under ten, and her wounded not over twenty, but to settle a certain sum upon the them went wild. In return she counted sixty shot-holes in her hall after that fight, and at least thirty other shots created more or less damage above her deck. Her loss in killed was under ten, and her wounded not over twenty, but to settle a certain sum upon the them went wild. In return she counted sixty shot-holes in her hall after that fight, and at least thirty other shots created more or less damage above her deck. Her loss in killed was under ten, and her wounded not over twenty, but to settle a certain sum upon the throughout England and Ireland. The boats were got out; the roar which at times made the blood them went wild. In return she The mother kissed her son, hand. WHERE PORTER WAS MISTAKEN. every man aboard narrowly escaped wife." "Yes, I knew, replied the While all the fighting was done that her bow actually stirred up the yeas 29, nays 0. be transformed that no one could One may stand to-day and look mud, and lying in this position she recognize it. But, as if the sight from the sinking parapets straight opened with grape and canister unof the sinking and dilapidated down upon the spots where the til the Confederates at three dif- sed third reading—yeas 33, nays 0.

> THE PITTSBURGH. At one time in the fight as many as ten of the guns in the forts were close of the first hour, and that trained upon the Pittsburgh alone, er. during the second the guns were in thirteen minutes but her fire might's session was resumed, being forts, and had in all about twenty

> > The reply to the first gun fired crashed through her side and ex. not had until nearly midnight. ploded in a wardroom, knocking everything into kindlings, and when she left the fight she counted up over fifty scars. Three different times she was reported to be sinking, and each time the reply of her commander was: "Very well, sir; keep right on firing until the guns are under Two shells from the Lafayette which cleared the parapets struck the same tree half a mile away. but again she buried five or six shell on nearly breached it.

THE TUSCUMBIA. The Tuscumbia was hit fifteen times below the rail and more than a score of times above, but got off with only three or four wounded positions as were taken before Forts Sumter or Fisher or Wagner.
There they dropped an anchor or rode placidly upon the smooth sea.
Here, it was bow down stream or up

THE RESULTS. As a fight, it was a drawn affair. ning at large in the counties of Both sides had pounded away as the moving targets offered the Con. hard as they could, and neither had vide for the removal of causes in GETTING READY IN THE FORTS. federates a poor show for home been whipped. Porter had realized Confederate scouts had brought shots. Many of the shells from the that if he succeeded in silencing the the proceedings therein. news of the situation above the gun-boats passed over the fort and forts Grant would not send his infantry to take possession, and the gun-boats could mean nothing but mile away, and plenty of the mis. Confederates had discovered that an attack. The orders at every siles from forts, plunged into the battery were to use shell alone, and water alongside of the target aimed down the river Grant would land his transports could not pass ununished business of last night. his troops and march them across the neck to a point below the forts. Yeas 28, nays none. As soon as the fight closed the forts began to make repairs, and in mounting a gun received a few days losing three men by a single shell, no instance had they been driven before hurriedly finished, and at but none of them had received any out of their works. Porter said of "The enemy fought with a desfor though we engaged him at a distance of fifty yards, we never the upper batteries, fired more markable that we did not disable his yeas 32, nays none. rounds per hour than was ever ac- guns, but, though we knocked his guns were apparently uninjured." federate soldiers to the benefit of line, the transports on the far side, who had lost eyes, hands or feet, fleet where no other fleet bad ever been tested, and the fact that the ent session making February and federate artillerists took the red ment each commander for his ries at these terms, passed third flash of guns as their targets. It courage and staying qualities under reading.

> "A Little Nonsense." There is a town in Dakota named Billings. It is named after the great "Josh," but it hasn't had a them just missed it. An artillerist the animal that the dog bites a man, cessory before the fact?

"The Pendleton Civil-Service bill said his wife; "and now I hope our under the clouds of dirt, and the girl will have a little more manour gun when the fight closed. Not A London scientist calls attention one of us was hit hard enough to in the Times of that city to a second draw blood, and yet we all felt ten tail which was noticed in Gould's years older for that five hours' comet. Pretty soon a comet won't weekly story paper. drive the Confederates from their for a pair of boots, an' the teacher guns, the screeching and screaming got to sending notes home by me, Lenoir county to levy a tax to legs twisted about like corkscrews paralyzed, sits on the steps of the passed third reading. alms. "You must have a pretty wounded not over twenty, but to settle a certain sum upon the anticipated, but not from his line of tom, and that there were good find anything to take."

LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDING (Condensed from News-Observer.) FORTY-EIGHTH DAY.

SENATE. CALENDAR.

HOUSE. BILLS. For the completion and fluishing BERGNER & ENGEL BEER of the Easters North Carolina In sane Asylum at Goldsboro. To fix the term of standard-keep that the place had been greatly fired only at long intervals. Be—strengthened and was considered lieving that the Confederates had strengthened and was considered lieving that the Confederates had driven from her position. She lost roads by taxation. It passed sec-NIGHT SESSION. The special order, the Parker-

Peebles election case, was taken up and discussed by Messrs. McLoud by the Lafayette was a shell which Simmons and Peebles. A vote was On the resolution of the minority of the committee, that Mr. Peebles was entitled to the seat, the vote was: Yeas 16, nays 88.

On the resolution of the majority that Mr. Parker was entitled to the sent, the vote was: Yeas 88, nays Mr. Parker came forward, qualified and took his seat.

> FORTY-NINTH DAY. SENATE.

PETITIONS. Mr. King, of Pitt, from citizens Fine Cassimeres, Clothing, Boots and Sh asking for convict labor to drain swamp lands in Pitt county. Mr. Caho, from citizens of Lenois county, asking for a stock law.

Mr. Caho, making an alternative method of constructing and keeping in repair the public roads for Forsyth, applicable to the State at cents per yard.

Greene and Lenoir, also bill to pro the inferior courts, and regulating ALEX MILLER, Commission Merch Bill making appropriations to the insane asylums of the State came

The bill passed its third reading NINE CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS.

The President announced that the hour of 11 a. m. for the special order had arrived, it being the bill to divide the State into nine Conperation I have never yet witnessed, gressional districts. Passed its resented.

third reading.
Bill to establish a graded school fairly succeeded in stopping his fire in the town of Kinston, in Lenoir but for a short time. It was re- county, passed second reading, CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS. Mr. Loftin's bill, entitling Con-

> Bill supplemental to act at presof civil cases, allowing jail delive-

THE STATE GUARD. Bill for the encouragement and support of the State Guard. [Mr. Dortch's bill.] Authorizes the Governor to pay $150 a year to each active company; not to exceed 25 Opposite Ice House companies in the State; the Adjutant General to be appointed by

Mr. Dortch, at the request of were were seven vessels moving to who was at one of the big guns said can the flea be indicted as and act the Senator from Burke, explained the objects of the bill. The money "There was not one single minute | Edith—The reason that editors' paid to the companies was to prositting before the fire, when some passed that not a shot should be in all that five hours in which I did wives don't load themselves down vide them an armory. Mr. Dortch how her apron of cotton caught fire fired until the last was in position. not expect death. We all worked with diamonds is because they fear said unless these gentlemen received

> Vote stood-yeas 19, nays 17; so the bill passed second reading and then passed third reading. Bill to throw the State lands into the Board of Education, so that they could sell them, passed third

HOUSE. Mr. Newby, to enable the qualified voters of Pasquotank county to fourteen of my shot hit the Benton, many long tails as a New York elect all county and township offi-Mr. Page, of Jones, to empower "Why don't you come to Sunday the proper authorities of Jones

> An act commendatory of and An old colored man, with his supplemental to an act to prevent live stock from running at large in the counties of Greene and Lenoir,

> > To change the corporate limits of the town of Jacksonville, in Onslow

To allow the comissioners of county. Passed its second read-

Heavy gales and floods prevail William D. Chandler will be the Chairman of the Republican National Committee. Commander Francis Morris, Newport, R. I., last week.

New Berne Advertisements. H. W. WAHAB, A. W. BINGS, CLESCER WANTED. T. M. CO.

(Successor to E. H. Windley,) DISTILLERS' AGENT FOR

AT WHOLESALE.

WINES AND CIGARS IN GREAT VARIETY.

Ginger Ale, Pale Ale, Beer AND PORTER

CIDER, PURE FRENCH BRANDY.

H. W. WAHAB. South Front St. Nesc Berne, N. O.

At Cost

SPRING STOCK SIXTY DAYS

ENTIRE STOCK of Ladies' Cloaks, Walking Jackets and

Hats and Caps. A full stock of Gents' Furnishing Goods, Trunks, Satchels and Carpets-AT COST. Also, in large assortment of Ladios' Black and Undressed Kid Gloves, at 40 cents a pair Also, two thousand yards of Wersted at 10

Come at once for Bargains at Mr. Caho, supplemental to the act to provent live stock from run-WEINSTEIN BUILDING,

WHOLESALE & RETAIL

GROCER.

Constantly receiving a full line Choice Groceries FARMERS' SUPPLIES.

the city, and warrant all goods us repprices. Stables furnished free to all our Goods delivered free to any

At dark the gun-boats formed in the act passed, giving those of them A. H. HOLTON, Recogn

DEALER IN the city.

Foreign and Domestic WINES & LIQUORS,

TOBACCOS&CIGAR MIDDLE STREET.

C. B. HART & CO.

ONE PRICE CASH STORE.

Northeast corner Middle and South Front street osite E H. Windley and K. R. Jones. DEALERS IN Stoves, House Furnishing Goods, CROCKERY and GLASSWARE, LAMPS in great variety.

BURNERS, WICKS, CHIMNEYS, KEROSENE OIL Pratt's Astral Non-Espiosive Oil, Machine and Train Oils. We are now prepared to manufacture Tin and Sheet-Iron Ware.

WM. LORCH. DEALER IN GENERAL MERCHANDISE CART HOUSE ACCOMMODATIONS.

Broad St. New Berne, N. C.

MARBLE WORKS NEW BERNE, N. C. MONUMENTS, TOMBS, And all kinds Grave and Building work in ITALIAN&AMERICAN MARBLE and satisfaction guaranteed.

EASTERN NORTH CAROLIN

Terms $2.00 Per Year

Professional Cards

NIXON, SIMMONS & MANLY ATTORNEYS AT LAY

P. MURPHY PEARSALL ATTORNEY AT LAW. TRENTON, JONES CO. N. C.

GEO. M. LINDSAY. Attorney at Law CLAYTON, Johnson County, N. C.

LEONIDAS J. MOOR ATTORNEY AT LA

References: Hon. A. S. Merrimon, Fuller, Raleigh, N. C.; A. Horne, E.

New Berne Advertis

JOHN SUTER'S ON MIDDLE STREET.

ROCK BOTTOM PRICES. . M. DRANE

SOUTH FRONT STREET NEW BEANE, N. C DEALER IN GENERAL HARDWARE SASH, BLINDS AND DOORS, Cart and Wagon Material, Harm Saddles, Bridles, Cooking and

Heating Stoves. floods sold for CASH ONLY, and at low prices.

NEWBERN, N. C.

Rust Proof Oats and Wh

on of those purchasing is a

Iciallie Burial Cashets and Cases, B wood and Walunt Cashete at in all sizes, handsomely mounted

F. Boesser

LARGEST STOCK

FURNITURE Parlor Suits, Bedroom Sets, Mattresses, Chairs of every description. In fact everything usually kept in a First class Furniture Store, and will be Sold Very Low.

NEW BERNE, N. C. D. W. HURTT, MERCHANT TAILOR.

Corner of Broad and Middle Streets

MIDDLE STREET,

GEORGE A. OLIVER

Newbern, N. or The very Highest Market FARMERS AND COUNTRY MERCHANTS.

TAKE NOTICE Orders will receive prompt attention Groceries, Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes,

JOE K. WILJ.IS, Proprietor,

(Successor to George W. Claypoole)

Cor. BROAD & CRAVEN Sts.

New Berne, N.C.

New Berne, N.C.

all of which we are offering very low at wholesale and reintl. Call and take a local control of the contro

jan2 d&wly