but the Doctor reports that the damage will soon be O. K. Mrs. Thomas Campin, of Vandemers died on the 14th inst. of pneumonia She leaves a husband, two children and many friends behand who have the sympathies of all who knew her. Mr. Lawrence Miller's family, with others, leave in a day or so for Ports-Messrs. J. W. Stewart's and Stephen mouth to spend the ballance of the Arnold's wives are visiting relatives at summer there, and I learn that a good many from South Creek will also sum-

> Mr. Benj. Brinson, of Baird's Creek was with us on the 14th, and whife here Mrs. Skinner had her school exhibit bition on the evening of the 17th at Bayboro. All who I have heard speak pea crop I have seen this year. That of the exhibition praise the manner is which the pupils acquitted themselves A large crowd was in attendance There was one of the biggest law suits begun here on the 17th that has taken OUR place before a J. P. since we have been county: a suit for damages brought by Mr. Wm. Potter, against Mr. George Dees and many others for flooding his storm in the vicinity of Grantsboro and above there on the 17th inst., doing cont. siderable damage. Mr. John B. Reel's dwelling house was carried off the CROCERIES & PROVISIONS blocks and his cook house and stables were blown to pieces. No injury to any one that I have heard of. Mr. C. E. Jacobs, of Maryland, who was a large farm on Goose creek DRY Island, was in our village on the 17th He says it's only been planted He informed informed me that he has succeeded in getting a bountiful supply of good water on his farm at a depth of 78 feet and that it cost him, pump, pipe On night before last at about 10:30 near here, has some of the finest collards and all complete, about 75 dollars.

I see in the document, a report of the carlew bug conversation at Mr. K. R. Jones' store and I will here let you know to know whether it is true or not. It is reliably reported that Mr. Shade Red ding said that in his corn if one gets tired of walking, all he has to do is to lin says that he is confident that a bushel

Grantsboro Items.

We are all nearly done hilling our crups and they are looking very well considering the season. yesterday. We have an account of the wind blowing Mr. J. B. Reel's house.

We have a long farmer farming on the New Ditch Farm. He says he has got 15 acres of rice looking well. It is When the day of life is fled, about two feet high on an average, and When in Heaven with joy to greet thee as clean as a yard. I think he is look-B. ling for a wife—the cause of this.
