VOL. VI.

NEW BERNE, CRAVEN COUNTY, N. C., DECEMBER 20, 1883.

NEW BERNE ADVERTISEMENTS

For the coming season I am offering the following specialties in Plows, Harrows, Culivators, etc.:

The ORIOLE Chilled Plow,

The Oueen Plow-steel, the Champion and Granger Plows, which I claim to be the best turning plows in the market, and guarantee every one of them to give satisfaction or money will be returned. Don't buy any until you have seen them.

The Climax Cotton Plow,

the best Cotton Plow. I defy contradiction.

The "Acme" Harrow.

ratios using them pronounce them the best clod crusher and pulverizer in use.

the Two-Horse Buckeye Riding and Walking Cultivators. on, Ridge Spring, Pitt county, says: "Would not take $500 ultivator if I could not get another just like it." Quinnerly, Johnston's Mills, N. C., says; "The Riding Cultire and try one. Remember if it does not give perfect satisfaction A full line of Common Plows, Castings, Clevises, etc., eic., on

Also, Manufacturers' agent for Steam Engines, Saw and Grist ngle Machines, Cotton Gins, Presses, Shaftings,

JOHN C. WHITTY. GRAVEN STREET, NEXT DOOR TO COTTON EXCHANGE,

NEWBERN, N. C.

Crand Auction Sale!! The Event of the Season

WATSON & STREET, Auctioneers.

SALE WITHOUT RESERVE

At SEVEN o'clock Wednesday Eve., Dec. 12, 83,

B. SCHWERIN. At his Store on Middle Street, near corner South Front, lverybody is invited to the sale.

"he Ladies are especially invited to our 11 o'clock Day Sales. The stock consists of Clothing, Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, Notions, ds. Hats, Shawls, Blankets and Quilts-in fact everything from a not forget the time and place, and BE SURE TO COME to the Grand

WATSON & STREET, Auctioneers.

Rollok Street, New Berne, N. C.,

Ceneral Hardware,

Steam Engines,

Farm Machinery. Grain Fans, Straw Cutters.

Cider Milis. Belting,

Packing, Pipe, Fittings.

Glass, Lime. Cement, Plaster,

Fertilizers.

PRICES VERY LOW FOR CASH

NORFOLK ADVERTISEMENTS.

Furniture! Carpets! Pianes and Organs S.A. STEVENS & CO.,

NORFOLK, VA.,

Largest and Oldest Furniture Establishment in Eastern Va. Bishop N no Comb bishop sind nave been concerned to how the same. S. A. STEVENS, Norfolk, Va. The Hishop, upon taking the chair, Colder.

THE EPISCOPAL CONVENTION-

at 10 o'clock by Bishop Lyman. Prayer | been selected. by the Bishop.

The resolution passed by the House of the Bishop. On motion, Rev. Mr. Drane was elected temporary Secretary.

On motion, Rev. Mr Rich was elected election of Bishop be made special order assistant temporary Se retary. The S cretary proceeded to call the list of clercy in the bounds of the new Dure se and the following answered: R v. r. M Forbe-

Rev. 1 . .el marin Rev. L mer E mi Rev. N.t. Harding Rev. Robt. B. Drane Rev. Van. W. Shields Rev. Dan Morrell

Rev. Thos. . Haughton Rev. Chas. O. Brady. Rev. Nymphas E. Price Rev. Robt. B. Windley Rev. N. Collin Hughes, Jr. Rev. Armond DeR. Mears.

Rev. Samuel S Barber

Rev. Thos. M. Thorpe. Rev. Henry S. McDuffy Not entitled to seats, but canonicall Rev. James Carmichael. D. D.

Rev. E. Chrysostem Burr. Rev. Dr. Watson moved that a committee be appointed to examine credentials and ascertain what parishes are the list of parishes entitled to represenganization. Lost.

Adjourned for Divine services which Holy Communion administered, After services, Convention was again

EVENING SESSION. Convention called to order by the Bishop at 4 o'clock, The committee on credentials, through their chairman, Rev. Mr. Israel Harding, submitted a report, which was re-

The secretary called the list of lay ielegates, and thirty-three parishes were found to be represented The Bishop declared the convention duly organized and announced that the first business in order was the election of a president

Rev. Dr. Watson. Rev. E. M. Porbes and Rev. Dr. Huske were put in nom- in Diocesan Convention assembled, de-The Bishop appointed Revs. Eborn and Mears as tellers for the clergy and of order of the old Diocese were adopted. faithfully they offer their hearty respect. The tellers reported the first ballot, and gratitude and their devout and Watson 39, Rev. Mr. Forbes 22,

On assuming the chair, the President ministry shall end with life. announced that the next business in rder was the election of a secretary The same tellers were co Reva Not Harding would gratefully thank their brothers : ng Dr. A. on motio of Mr. Jo who have so unseitisbly aided them in the establishment of their new fold. Treasurer The Doc o. ot u. heping Out of the depth of their ffections they that the prother who moved his nominaion would provide something for the would say. brethren, not as rivals, hoping that be-Church for federative action may restore us to some measure of our past Treasurer to do immediately. Harding 47, Israel Harding 11, Robt. B. The President announced that motions and be rivals only in our emulation in especting the name of the Diocese the work for our Master. Let there be no envies, jealousies or disparagement were in order. Dr. De cossett offered the following in our intercourse. Let us rejoice in eamble and resolution, and spoke to each other's prosperity, and sympathize with each other in their trials.

Whereas, The General Convention at God may be with you, brethren, is our Whereas, The General Convention at its recent session in the city of Philatits recent limits of the original Diocess of North the request that he lay it before the next convention of his Diocese. Carolina, embodying all the territory counties, viz.: Beaufort, Bertie, Bladen, Brunswick, Camden, Carteret, Chowan, hants will have an opportunity of replenishing their stocks for the Columbus, Craven, Cumberland, Curritarde at far below Northern prices. Hertford. Hyde, Jones, Lenoir, Martin, New Hanover Onslow, Pamlico, Pasquotank, Pender, Perquimans, Pitt-Roberson, Sampson, Tyrrell, Washington and Wayne-thirty-two in number. And Whereas, All the other constitutional and canonical requirements, for read and after some amendments were the formation of such new Diocese have approved. een complied with. And whereas, Canon VI title III the General Convention provides that the and laity must sign the testimonial of name of a new Diocese shall be a part the Bishop's election. of its organization. Therefore, ndicated and described, shall be named | Their and known as the Diocese of Wilming- stated that the committee would not be

Rev. Dr. Huske offered to amend by of Bishop.

Rev. Mr. Hughes, sr., moved that the striking out Wilmington and insertsng clergy now retire for the purpose of consultation in regard to nominating a Quite a spirited discussion arose on Maj. John Hughes spoke at length in sary. He desired information on the favor of Dr. Huske's amendment. Mr. Griffin moved to further amend subject from the chair. The by inserting Roanoke instead of East stated that the practice in this Diocese different from that in the Diocese to Mr. John S. Long warmly supported which he formerly

Mr. Griffin's motion in a short, pointed thought the older members of the convention were better prepared to give the tonians very tenderly by prophesying that their city would be duly honored before the Convention adjourned. Dr. DeRossett spoke again in favor of reasons therefor. the original resolution. Chas. Skinner advocated Mr.

be better when the hour arrived for going into the election, for all to retire save the clergy Van Bokkelin moved as a substi- gestion as an amendment to his motion. tute for the original and amendments that the Diocese be named Albemarle, taken until 11 o'clock, and at that hour Rev. Mr. Ambler advocated the orig- the convention sit with closed doors for ceedings of the convention while it Col. J. G. Burr spoke for a compro- secret session, but learned that the Griffin's amendment was lost. which was adopted, each committee bename Clarendon. Not seconded Col. Burr renewed his motion tar ing voted for separately:

A vote was then taken upon the amendment of R . . . H ske Was carried The pe mil-611 congratulated the convention upon having disposed of the question of a name The Convention was called to order and thought a very appropriate one had Adjourned to 8 o'clock.

Rev Dr Huske, Revs N C Hughes, sinc die co. R v the st. Nat Harding, and Messrs, f R. equ. ted R se, G H, Robert and Geo, H, Haigh. Committee on Education.

The resolution passed by the House Deputies and concurred in by the House of B shops authorizing a division of the O'clock by the Bishop
The Bishop announced that the first business in order was the election of Bishop.

for to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock The Bishop announced that nominations were in order itev. N. Collin Hughes, sr., raised the point that the clergy should first nomnate in secret session The Bishop and not know the custom in North Carolina on that point and asked for information. Revds. Forbes and Hughes, sr., stated that at the last Convention which elected a Bishop the clergy first nominated in secret session.

Mr. F. A. Boyle moved to reconsider the vote by which Dr. DeRossett's motion for special order was lost. Carried.
Dr. DeRosset renewed his motion to make the election of Bishop special order for to-morrow morning at 11 A motion to table was lost.

The motion was then adopted. Dr. DeRossett moved that a commit tee of five be appointed to make nominations for the various committees and report to-morrow morning. Carried. The secretary asked for the appointment of Rev. Mr. Drane as assistant secretary. Carried. Rev. Dr. Huske offered the following esolution, which was adopted: Resolved, That Revds. Dr. Watson, represented. This motion was discussed by Maj. John Hughes, Rev. Dr. Watson, Mr. Boyle and Mr. Winston.

Mr. Winston offered as a substitute, that the delegates hand in their credentation to the Bishop, clergy and laity of the Discuss of North Carolina. tials to the Secretary and that he call the Diocese of North Carolina. On motion of Rev. Dr. Watson, Rev.

Dr. Huske was added to the committee. On motion of Maj. Hughes, the Bishop for a few minutes, when, on motion of Rev. Dr. Watson, the call was suspend- of five to nominate the committees of ed and a committee was appointed to receive the credentials. examine and report upon the same. The Bishop appointed on said committee Rev. Israel pointed on said committee Rev. Israel Harding, Shields and Col. Fremont, Dr. Hinsdale and H. R. Bryan, Harding, Mr. F. A. Boyle and Mr. Esq. On motion of Rev. Dr. Watson, the Rev. R. S. Huske moved that a com- Constitution, Canons and Rules of Ormittee be appointed on permanent or der of the Diocese of North Carolina were referred to the committee on Canons, when said committee is apwere conducted by the Bishop and the pointed, and they instructed to report to the next convention of this Diocese. The committee on separation reported called to order and, on motion, ad-journed until 4 p. m. and the report was responded to by the Bishop in a feeling manner. On motion of Mr. F. A. Boyle, visiting Huske and Rev. E. R. Rich took seats. Rev. Dr. Watson moved that the scale would be taken first upon the time. of assessment for this Diocese remain the same as heretofore. Carried. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL RELATIONS. Whereas, the Diocese of East-Carolina, having completed its organization.

is now formaly separated from its sister Diocese of North Carolina, its members sire to give parting expression to the love which is still in their hearts for their brethren once as the same Diocese. now for ten years presided over the nual convention permanently; each contheir prayers, that the Great Head of Rev. Dr. Watson was declared duly the Church may reward him for all his delected and invited to the chair by the diligent labors, in their behalf and may bless him in all his ministry till that

Adopted unanimously by

Adjourned until 91 o'clock Thursday

SECOND DAY.

The report of the committee on nominations of committees was called for.

Rev. Mr. Hughes explained the prac-

Maj. Hughes suggested that it would

Rev. Mr. Hughes accepted the sug-

Dr. DeRossett moved that a recess be

We were unable to obtain the pro

Missionary Committe

Mr Ambler, Col. Freedom and Co.

tice of former conventions and gave

Minutes of first day's session the convention next came up. From their brothren, beloved, whom they have labored for so many meet with them at Wilmington. yet he sars in the vineyard of the Lord, they was willing to yield to the claims of forces, vices, etc., under the impart with hearts full of tender regrets St. Peter's in Washington. and affectionate rememoratives. Believing as they do that the seption is for the good of the church they carried.

towards you as ever, We part as May. fore long the provisions of the General unanimously:

> citizens of New Berne generally for their hospitality. ies to the delegates to the convention.

showing the movements that have been addition to three courses. Instruct forgotten his haversack and had company; they were the equals of made from time to time for the new Diocese and have 1,000 copies printed in eap pamphlet form for the use of the Convention assembled at $\psi_1 a. m. Prayer by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Lyman. The secretary called the roll of delethe railroad where he can get papers. We can't get papers so well over our our own vestry.

delegates to the fact that all, both clergy The motion was adopted. ecretary be allowed $100.00 annually, for his services. Adopted. ready to report until after the election tendering a loan to the Convention of $500 to meet the immediate demands before the Convention. He also stated that the reason he had not read it before was apparent to all.

Dr. DeRossett moved that the finance - Iron Age, Birmingham, Ala. nmittee be instructed to report at the next regular convention some plan the Diocese. Carried. The testimonial of the election of Rev.

The Personnel. Bishop ex off.: Rev. N. C. Hughes; sr., and Messrs. Jno. S. Long and Wm. Celder. Celde

Committee on Church Building. Bishop ex off.; Revs. Robt. Drane, the scriptural limit of three score and Nat. Harding, J. B. Haughton. Messrs. ten. He is well preserved, active and F. A. Boyle and W. B. Shepard.

nary.

Revs. Nat. Harding, Dr. Huske, N. C. liugles, sr., Israel Harding, Robt. B. Drane, Dr. DeRossett, Messrs. H. R. Bryan, Jno. Hill and Robt. Calder. Deputies to General Convention. Revs. N. C. Hughes, Dr. Huske, Nat.

Harding, T. M. Ambler, and Messrs. A. J. DeRossett, Jnc. Hughes, Jas. C. McRae and Col. J. W. Atkinson. Supplementary Deputies. Revs. Israel Harding, V. W. Shields, Drane, Eborne, and Messrs. Griffin, S. J. Hinsdale, De Brutz Cutler and Dr.

Rev. Dr. Huske requested that some or the finance committee make a motion to reconsider the vote.

Jno. H. Hill.

that he could add up a column of figures | er members of the convention NATHANcorrectly. He moved that Rev. N. C. IEL HARDING is evidently a man of mark.

the Diocese.

inserting St. Peter's in Washington in- Apparently, he is about sixty years of to Col. Jones as guides, who accept said yea he meant it; he had not a in May.

month of courts, and lawyers and many others had business in them.

sentiment that was settling in the diction of the name of "Wilmington,"

Any one acquain others had business in them.

Mr. Calder would not insist on the time specified in the resolution, but would insist upon St. James, in Wil-would insist upon St. James J division of the question. Mr. J. D. Meyers aga

Mr. J. C. Washington moved to amend Rev. Mr. Thorpe's amendment by sub- all, it was a fine body of representative day and had marked out every tension did not try to pass off for H. R. Bryan, Esq., thought May was decidedly the best time for holding the convention. He was not much of a farmer himself but was of the oninion that farmers were just as busy in Janutheir crops for another year, as at any season. The Bishop stated that this resolution Messrs Harding and Shepard for the To the chief pastor who under GOD has did not fix the time of holding the an-

> Rev. Mr. Thorpe withdrew his amend-The question of the place of holding

Rev. Mr. Ambler offered the follow-publish an abstract of the proceedings. Mr. Boyle: "The gentleman lives on adopted by the vestry of St. James the value of colleges and classical Union man and we were rather reduction of about 13 per cent from slow to move on his directions, so the crop of last year. The perassured the Convention that no one but need to have industrial schools some cavalry who told us that the follows: Virginia 75 per cent: the vestry knew anything about the built up all over the land. Every Yankees were on the railroad. They North Carolina 87; South Carolina Posters, Adopted unanimously. nissionary meeting be held at 74 o clock to night, and that some of the clergy speak on that subject.

increasing the permanent funds of Dr. A. A. Watson as Bishop was signed now be used to facilitate the removby the clergy and lay delegates and the al of great accumulations of snow. convention adjourned to 7+ o'clock.

The services of the closing session mise, and moved that the name be clergy were unanimous for Rev. Dr. A. were opened with prayers by Bishop apparatus to be applied to locomo- same moment and came to the bars. millions short of the indications of Ruled out of order by the Ruled out of order by the by the clergy was confirmed by the laity.

By the clergy wa Carolina. Ruled out of order by the hair.

by the clergy was confirmed by the laity, lowed by missionary addresses from locomotive is pashed into a snow, consisting of the mother and her acre. This estimate relates only to lowed by missionary addresses from locomotive is pashed into a snow, after which the convention resumed lished Watson. Rev. Mr. Thorre and lowed by missionary addresses from locomotive is pashed into a snow, daughters with their children, were the quantity and makes no allow work with open doors when the comwork with open doors when the com-Mr. Winston moved to substitute the committees made the following report. Dr. Huske and the Bishop of North will be shattered. The engineer of they had seen any Federals in their seriously increases practical short-Carolina.

A. Boyle and W. B. Shepard.

Trustees of Diocese.

Bishop ex off.; Messrs. Geo. Davis and Col. Fremont.

Trustees of University of the South.

Be is well preserved, active and generally about the sometimes speaks but generally upon matters of precedent and in this respect is a most valuable member of the body. A. A. Warson, who has just been elected Bishop of the company was in the Sth batalthe new Diorese, is apparently about lion of Partisan Rangers. Rev. V. W. Shields, Messrs. W. B. fifty years of age, but in reality, Shepard and Judge Buxton.

Trustees of General Theological Semi
Trustees of General Theological Semi-

headed and clear-headed man, vigilant, active, diligent. He is the balance wheel of the convention, watching its were ordered to the sand ridge on the Biddle road, to do guard and picket duty, progress, correcting its errors, restraining its haste. The strong features of his character, we take to be, conscientiousness, fearless less, fidelity to duty, roads and railroad. and great modesty. The weak feature of This company soon built good fire on them when we discovered and great modesty. The weak feature of his character, and we are pleased to say, the only weak feature, is a want of the the only weak feature, is a want of the selves and had stored sovered and tantout.

This company soon built good fire on them when we discovered that it was Capt. Davis and his claims, and settling extate of decisions, and settling extate of decisions. the only weak feature, is a want of the power of adaptation to the changed and changing conditions of his situation This want of the power of adaptation is speaks, which is in good taste, but when mistaken. Col. J. G. Burr made the motion to he does, it is always to the point. Rev. N. Collin Hughes, sr., is a vener-Dr. Huske then asked to be relieved able type of a substantial old man who

On motion of Rev. Mr. Drane, Col. J. see in him the shadow of a coming man. Rev. Thos. M. Thorpe, of St. George's. is a man of striking intellectual head Mr. Calder offered a resolution that that Dr. Barker would fall in love with. the next convention of this Diocese be held at St. James Church, Wilmington, that little showed him to be a man of obtain guides, would take his men was, and not considered him as he on the 2nd Wednesday in May next.
Rev. Mr. Thorpe moved to amend by not a speaking man but he evidently inserting 2nd Tuesday after the 1st Monday in January.

Mr. J. D. Meyers moved to amend by Mr. J. D. Meyers moved to amend by was his speech upon the name of the of the men and all of the officers bunt, and could stand it as long as Mr. Boyle argued that May was a new Diocese that turned the tide of escaped with the loss of all their any man in the regiment. He was the convention, whereupon Rev. Dr. Baird, Rev. E. V. Joyner, Rev. Ed. mington, as the place, and called for a liwing to have again pressed the limit to him or his officers or was for the limit to him or his officers or was for the limit to have again pressed the limit to him or his officers or was for the limit to have again to have a gain pressed the limit to him or his officers or was for the limit to have a gain to have but he makes the mistake that many to him or his officers or men for this Egbert Davis. bodies have made before him, in being The Bishop announced that the vote too often on the floor.

Industrial Education.

The introduction of industrial education as a prominent feature of the work of the University of must say that I considered it more Lieut, and it is too good to be lost. Minnesota has been followed by dangerous on these roads than I He was, when in camp, a kind of most encouraging success. Com. ever did anywhere in Virginia, not trader; if he found any of the sol mencing in 1880 with a free even- from the Yankees, but from the diers had specie he would try to

On motion of Dr. Watson, the rules church within their limits so ably and vention only set the time of holding the and following that the next year by prowling around. Gen. Robert the establishment of shops for Ransom came near being captured shaved you. You recollect how he Mr. Washangton withdrew his amend- working wood and metal, the Board on the Dover road by the Federals told you that while scouting near of Regents, after a careful observat who had flanked our forces, led Pollocksville all of a sudden be tion of results for three years, have around by these citizen guides, and espied three Yankees engaged announced the organization of a saved himself by jumping his at a game of cards and he fired intraining school as a department of horse across a wide canal. Dr. DeRossett stated that while he "The College of Mechanic Arts." In 1863, as well as I can recollect, ered up the specie; and how he got was anxious to have the convention This department is thoroughly Col. Faison and nearly all his com- a liberal advance in Confederate forges, vices, etc., under the im. Tracy swamp on the same road by portunity to go home to bring you The question being put upon the mediate charge of three educated guides who piloted the Federal that specie. The same soldier tried ENGINES, amendment of Mr. Meyers it was and competent mechanics and in. forces to his rear. Soon after the to trade the oil cloth that they structors. There are three courses news of Col. Faison's surprise Col. were playing the cards on to me if The question recured upon the adoption of the original resolution as amended, which was carried in the affirmative. shop work and drawing for such one of his most trusty and daring erate dollars, but I told him I was the convention will be held in boys and young men as desire officers and tell him to select nine a man that never traded until I saw Washington on the 2d Wednesday in merely to become expert workmen, teen men in the regiment and to what I was trading for. 2. A course in shop work, drawing proceed below to where Col. Faiing resolutions which were adopted and mathematics for those who son's regiment had been surprised Davis' company I have forgotten look forward to become foremen and find out all that he could about their names. Resolved. That the thanks of the con- and bosses. 3. The evening draw- the enemy and report immediately. vention be extended to the Rector and ing class for working mechanics Capt. Davis was selected by Col. large company, and had some very Vestry of Christ Church, and to the who desire to improve in laying out Nethercutt to carry the order out, good soldiers in it. It was a rare work. For the last named course and I was selected by Capt. Davis thing to hear his men complain of Resolved. That the thanks of the con. there are no examinations required as one of the men from our com- any duty imposed upon them. I No. 177 Main Street. vention are given to all transportation tor admission. For the first named companies who have extended courted the candidates must pass in read-excuse me; I had no rations—some the fight, where the shells and the ing, writing and practical arithme. one had stolen mine-but he would bullets were raining like hail stones. tic. For the other and more ad not, said he would divide with and there was no faltering. I don't mation of a new Diocese within the minute be presented to the Bishop with stract of the proceedings of this convention, together with a historical preface, elementary algebra are required in for rations he had, in his hurry, ment can complain of Capt. Davis' > lutely free. This is the part Minnesota is > other States. What the young man of to-day

Torpedoes to Shatter Snow-Banks.

M. Forbes, who we suppose has passed Recollections of the Sixty-Sixth North the old lady led the way to the

I cannot recollect the precise date and return, and for us all to report in the U.S. District an excess of virtue. It results from the enemy could not approach them ton. When we arrived at Mr. stalwart and unbounding courage of his only by the public roads and they Bryan's, Capt. Davis enquired of the committees, and didn't know for certain impetuous members. Among the young every by-path that led from one both armies. road to the other. These men were | Capt. Davis was not a very popu-Correctly. He moved that Rev. N. C. Hughes, sr., who was an expert in such matters and had a great deal of money of his own to count, be made the chairman. Carried.

Carried.

Carried.

Correctly. He moved that Rev. N. C. In the future history of the Diocese he will be its "strong staff and beautiful rod." He is a fine specimen of intellectual manhood, and we can plainly position marked out together with Davis was loved and respected by all. Capt. David Davis was loved and respected by all. every movement of our men.

disaster. These citizen guides led I believe the 2d Lieut. was Jas were well acquainted and no dones Duplin county. Lieut. Wilkins DR. J. D. CLARK mention, but our space is up. All in visited the captain's camp every warm very plain man, made no pre-ing drawing class for mechanics, Union citizens who were continually tion in all three courses is absorbeft it in his tent. We started for the place. I cannot exactly recollect the place, but recollections of the fights and Give the Globe House a Rev. Mr. Forbes thought this was un- taking in the practical education it was below a saw-mill on the Do- marches of the regiment. as the newpapers would of its youth, and it is an example ver road or the railroad. When we worth the serious consideration of arrived at Mr. Louis O. Bryan's we found the old gentleman sitting in his piazza, and the Captain enquired wants is that kind of training of him if he knew anything concernwhich will teach him how to get ing the Yankee forces. He said season for cotton picking since the "It's a mighty poor along in the world. The colleges that the Federals had left that occurrence of frosts, as in the of to-day train young men for the morning; that he had been on the gathering of the bottom crop, has Mr. Calder moved that the treasurer professions, but the professions are battle ground and had found some been quite favorable. The be allowed 5 per cent commissions on overcrowded, and we need schools of our men who were wounded, and estimates of the aggregate product all monies coming into his hands as to give young men industrial train. had removed them and cared for have not been diminished, and the treasurer of the Diocese, and that the ing, schools to teach them how to them until our ambulances came up tone of general comment has been go out into the world and make a and had carried them off. Mr. comparatively hopeful. The indi-Col. J. G. Burr read a resolution living. We do not under estimate Bryan was known to be a strong cations of December returns favor a colleges torn down to erect in their we proceeded very cautiously for a centage of that crop as now indiadoption of this resolution until he read public school in the land should seemed very much excited and said 76; Florida 95; Georgia 82; Alaincorporate the industrial feature there were two regiments of them, bama 84; Mississippi 88; Louisiana into its system. If national aid is for they had seen their flags. After 92; Texas 90; Mr. Boyles offered a resolution ac- extended to education, and there is we passed them Captain Davis con- nessee 102. cepting the generous offer and tender- little doubt of it, the lige hopes to cluded to take the woods to the This report and the thanks of the Convention, see a large part of the fund appright of Mr. John Buck's, another about 6,000,000 bales. It is possipropriated to the establishment of strong Union man. When we got ble that the cotton movement may industrial colleges, and an incorpo- in sight of Mr. Buck's house Capt. pass that idmit. The returns of industrial colleges, and an incorporation of this feature into the public Davis ordered three of us to prothe corn production are more conschool systems of every State, ceed to the back of the house and servative than

Atkin-on.

R v Dr. classe Not Harling v dearest of ties had bound him loss with whom the dearest of ties had bound him loss with bound him loss with a success of the new Diocese.

Rev Dr. Harling v dearest of ties had bound him loss with whom the dearest of ties had bound him loss were they having colors there for, made of the extent of such injury.

Lyan Beds fane dwell on a tract of when one of them remarked that The wheat aggregate slightly excapted the loss of the success of the new Diocese. The beds fane dwell on a tract of when one of them remarked that The wheat aggregate slightly excapted the success of the new Diocese. The success of the extent of such injury.

The last of the terrible Modocs of were they having colors there for, made of the extent of such injury.

Lyan Beds fane dwell on a tract of when one of them remarked that The wheat aggregate slightly excapted the success of the extent of such injury.

Lyan Beds fane dwell on a tract of w There are twenty-six families, num- panions from getting on her. The 500,000,000 bushels. The yield of bering 106 persons. They are los- old lady said, "You go to the road rye and barley is a little less than ing their warlike character and are and we will go with you and show in 1882, and buckwheat is reduced A. L. PENDLETON And now let us look over this body of becoming agriculturists, and in do- you that there are no Yankees more than one third. The December report will include a record of a face at each of the see I whistled up my companions and the average prices of grain.

Carolina Regiment-Continued. road, and we found it just as Mr. Brother comrades, in order to Bryan and Mrs. Buck had repreproceed down a certain distance convictions. Altogether we regard the had pickets posted on all these old gentleman if he could procure appointment as an excellent one. The Rev. Mr. HUSKE, of Fayetteville. roads who could give them warn some supper for his men, when the member of the convention who voted is an old and apparently influential ing in time to move everything out old gentleman gave us a plenty of He seldom of danger, but in this they were good middling bacon and corn bread, to which we did ample justice. This whole region of country was After supper the Captain offered to infested with men who were the pay Mr. Bryan, but the old gentlefrom serving as chairman of the finance seems to be a break-water against any most daring and inveterate enemies man told him he made no charge, he committee, as he was on several other irregularities of the younger and more of the Confederacy—men who knew fed all, when they were hungry, of every one who understood him, The Federals had at New Berne Several of our men considered him at this time an intrepid and daring proud and of an aristocratic nature, excellent sense. Rev. R. B. Drane is through anywhere, no matter what appeared to be, they would have the difficulties were; he never stood loved him better. He was, in my back for briars nor pocosins. These estimation, an honorable, high-Union citizens offered their services minded gentleman, and when he Apparently, he is about sixty years of age, but in reality he is said to be an occogenarian. He is full of vivacity and sprightliness, with large capacity for business and a wonderful memory of events. He is the best posted and most useful member of the body, with all his faculties of mind and body personal and agriculturist and he knew the importance of farmers being at their post in May.

Apparently, he is about sixty years of age, but in reality he is said to be an occogenarian. He is full of vivacity and sprightliness, with large capacity for business and a wonderful memory of events. He is the best posted and most useful member of the body, with all his faculties of mind and body person an agriculturist and he knew the importance of farmers being at their post in May.

Apparently, he is about sixty years of age, but in reality he is said to be an occogenarian. He is full of vivacity and sprightliness, with large capacity for business and a wonderful memory of events. He is the best posted and most useful member of the body, with all his faculties of mind and body person of it and commenced firing upon the mand wounded and captured being a fluent or eloquent, speaker. It was his speech upon the name of the officers of the meant all of the officers.

Apparently, he is about sixty years of age, but in reality he is said to be an occogenarian. He is full of vivacity and sprightliness, with large capacity for business and a wonderful memory of events. He is the best posted and most a bit of deception about him, and was as brave as the best of our officers. Davis' pickets and fell upon his camp on a very dark night before the captain or his men were aware of it and commenced firing upon the mand wounded and captured the captain of the majority of the men and all of the officers.

Apparently, he is about sixty years of age, but in reality he is said to be an occogenarian. He is full of vivacity and sprightly he is said to be an occogenarian. He is full of the deficient of the deficient of the his company and was a kind, free-hearted man, and > the Yankee forces, and these guides Wilkins; I think his home was in item that would be of service to more than he was worth, but had a good word for every one he met. I have served on these roads, He was considered a good officer by and Broad. both as a scout and a picket, and us all. I have a little joke on the purchase it from them. You recollect. Lieut., how one of our men to them, they ran off and he gath

> > The other officers of Capte David

Capt. Davis' company was a very any in the 66th Regiment. Will, in my next, resume my

The Crops Washington, Dec. 11.—The

The torpedo, which has done Buck's fence I told the two men parallel the corn that has been good service in the oil wells, may with me to hide and I would go to cribbed is in a worse condition than The invention is called Gunther's bars I saw a woman cutting some fore large. The final estimate of Torpedo Snow Blow. It consists of wood. She discovered me at the the quantity produced will be a few the locomotive has complete control vicinity lately, when the whole age. The losses from packing in General Wholesale Commission The Convention was then called to of the firing, and, by successive ex- family appeared to be interested masses or the injury of soft corn Missionary Committe.

Bishop ex off.; Rev- I-rael Harding.

Bishop ex off.; Rev- I-rael Harding.

Mr Ambler Cod. Freedom and Commenced telling me all about from mild and wet weather are thickest drifts.—N. Y. Sun.

it. They said the Yanks had left treated as after harvest consideration, who feelingly expressed the little morning. I enquired what their morning. I enquired what their morning. that morning. I enquired what tions. An investigation will be

Profess LEONIDA TTORNE New Ber

P. H. PELLETIER Attorney at Law

Jones County. DR. G. K. BACBY.

STRONG & PERRY. ATTGRNEYS AN COUNSELLORS AT LAW

HOLLAND & GUION (Office one door west of Gaston House Will practice in the Counties of Offices, Onslow, Carteret, Pamilies and L

Will practice in the Courts of Craves, malow, Carteret, Pamileo and Lamoir, a ne Federal Court at New Berne. Intelligence

DR. G. L. SHACKELFORD. urgeon Dentist NEWBERN, N. C.

Ten Years Practical Expe DENTH. NEWBERR, M.

S. W. SELDNER,

NORFOLK, VA., MANUFACTURER OF Saw and Grist Mills,

SHAFTINGS Pulleys, Hangers, FORGINGS AND CASTI Of Every Description

READ T

GEO. W. J. HARVEY Job Printing!

CARR & PATTO No. 407 KING STRE Wilmington, Special attention given to the and Scottlern Produce, Feb. 52
Prompt Returns mode.
HEFERIENCE—Harvey 4 515
trucers, Fiwing & Lange, FroFirst Soil Hank, Wilmington, B.

DAIZABETH CE

Door Drint