THE JOURNAL.

[illegible]

Mr. ROB[illegible] authorized to receive subscriptions for the JOURNAL.

Mr. J. A. M[illegible] authorized to receive subscriptions for the JOURNAL.

Kinston P[illegible]

We[illegible] short [illegible]

Dr. W[illegible] unwell [illegible]

Now[illegible] turn [illegible]

Miss N[illegible] the Christ[illegible]

Clay P[illegible] and w[illegible]

Dr. Harri[illegible] ner Jan[illegible]

The Tra[illegible] Graded Sch[illegible] 4th.

Robbie [illegible] chine agen[illegible] College.

Misses [illegible] teaching in [illegible] county.

J. S. Rou[illegible] LaRoque [illegible] corner.

Lafay[illegible] to travel [illegible] Assurance.

Forlaw a house a now [illegible] building, just a[illegible] where he was [illegible]

Dr. A. H. M[illegible] between the tw[illegible] pied, and moved his [illegible] them.

Mr. Biddle, from the [illegible] Craven, has been [illegible] thinking [illegible] our schools.

Mr. J. K. Willis, of New Berne [illegible] town, putting up a very [illegible] monument at the [illegible] Albritton.

Prof. M[illegible] mas in Kaleigh. He [illegible] and is busy with his [illegible] in Kinston College.

Ray Grady, son of Lewis Grady, [illegible] Tuesday, Jan. 5th, aged about [illegible] years. His death was caused by a very bad rising on his neck.

J. D. May entertained his family and friends recently with magic lantern scenes. He has a variety of [illegible] scape and comic views.

If you pass [illegible] and hear a rumbling [illegible] do not be alarmed. [illegible] people having it over head.

L. E. Duffy is making [illegible] the Hubbard place, near Dover, running a steam mill, farming and ranging for other improvements.

J. R. Tingle, a young Democrat [illegible] ter of Grantsboro, Pamlico county, has entered Kinston College. We [illegible] a hearty welcome and [illegible] much success.

J. C. Webb, of Washington, [illegible] has been spending some time in town. He has been doing a lively business for Lewis & Co., taking orders for enlarging pictures.

The magistrates met on Monday to abolish the inferior court, and by a vote of three of a majority. No one had been summoned, and the [illegible] to be about to freeze out.

One thing that the [illegible] learned is that the Rev. Mr. Turner is a single man, but this fact [illegible] of its poetry, to those who have noticed that the Methodist parsonage is not for rent.

Parliamentary usage is [illegible] education observed in the [illegible] grades of Kinston graded [illegible] pupils conduct a literary [illegible] They will rise to a point [illegible] quickly as many of more mature years.

G. P. Cox, Benj. Nunn and Mr. Edmond went out to Mr. Cox's farm last week and bagged about 35 partridges. Mr. Nunn was afraid of getting [illegible] Mr. Cox didn't have the [illegible] somehow they brought in the birds.

While Kinston is not on a boom, new buildings are going up all the while. Mr. Frank Stilley has a single story building about shut in. Mr. L. J. Mewborne has a two story just receiving the paint. Mr. Nelson is adding to the buggy factory.

Mr. Calvin Stokes has bought Dr. H. D. Harper's place at Johnson's mills, and moved there in order to be [illegible] farm. We regret to lose such an excellent citizen, but know that many have lost by leaving their farms.

Rosco Miller left last Saturday for Horner's School. We wish him much success, hoping to see him looking more manly than ever in his military suit on his return, and remaining equally as much the favorite of our more [illegible] young ladies of our town, whom we might mention.

J. C. Holland, who has been selling the Household sewing machine, has secured a State agency for enlarging pictures from Lewis & Co., Washington, D. C. He begins to travel next week and is worthy of the confidence of a Christian gentleman.

For fear of making a wrong impression, I will explain that last week's item, stating that there are [illegible] per child, applies only to the [illegible] equally divided. The other half [illegible] the school fund remains to be [illegible] next Monday. Let all interested come and put in their claims.

A certain colored teacher in this county who has a first grade certificate was asked to show [illegible] school and 1 7 20 school months are [illegible] failed to analyze. He was then asked how much 2½ yards of [illegible] 2½ cents per yard. He [illegible] considered on that matter.

An excellent lady [illegible] county, who was [illegible] school, was in the [illegible] school, when not [illegible] Her employer gave her [illegible] quit teaching or quit [illegible] ided to quit teaching [illegible] married. March [illegible] tle inclination.

Geo. L. Hodges [illegible] Rountree were [illegible] of January [illegible] Harper perform[illegible] making them one [illegible] attendants and friends [illegible] witness the ceremony [illegible] at 8:30 a. m. [illegible] boarded the [illegible] where they [illegible] The guests [illegible] Goldsboro [illegible] office will [illegible] ing his absence [illegible] others having [illegible] as himself. [illegible] and his bride [illegible] will be sure of [illegible] only wish them [illegible] needful to make [illegible] successful career [illegible] on Monday night.

[illegible] of the Cold Wave.

[illegible] January [illegible] third day of [illegible] fects have been [illegible] so far as heard [illegible] begin falling [illegible] morning we [illegible] at the [illegible] thermometer [illegible] pair for [illegible] still [illegible] degrees [illegible] exposed [illegible] very [illegible] morning [illegible] and the [illegible] have been [illegible] during [illegible] vat[illegible] pipes [illegible] being [illegible] Farmville [illegible] and [illegible] of [illegible] [illegible] chains [illegible] freezing [illegible] gate [illegible] Kinston [illegible] face [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]