

CONGRESS has adjourned for the holidays.

HON. W. D. KELLY, the noted Pennsylvania protectionist, has made a trip North and is astonished at the rapid development of the wealth and industrial progress.

DEATH OF SENATOR LOGAN. The death of Senator JOHN A. LOGAN, which occurred at Washington City on Sunday last, was a surprise to the country, and a news will be received with deep regret.

THE SUPREME COURT ARRANGED. The Washington Gazette delivers itself of the following comments on a recent decision of the Supreme Court of North Carolina in the case of CHAS. H. BROWN, a practicing attorney who had been convicted on the charge of embezzlement.

HOUSE REPRESENTATIVES. The Speaker announced the appointment of Messrs. Forney, McAdoo and Hopkins, as conferees on the bill increasing the annual appropriation for the militia.

INTENSIVE FARMING. THE JOURNAL has always been an advocate of the intensive system of farming. We were convinced while trying to farm that small farms, highly manured and well cultivated was the only system by which farming could be made to pay.

THE CHRISTMAS TREE. The Christmas tree came on Friday night, Christmas eve, about 6:30 worth of presents were placed in beautiful positions on a beautiful tree in the school room.

SWANSBORO ITEMS. We have just learned of the death of Frank Thompson, sr., of Richlands, an old and respected citizen of our county.

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY. The Bell Telephone Company, Washington, has just issued proceedings in Boston to test the validity of the patent granted the Bell Telephone Company.

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY. The Bell Telephone Company, Washington, has just issued proceedings in Boston to test the validity of the patent granted the Bell Telephone Company.

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY. The Bell Telephone Company, Washington, has just issued proceedings in Boston to test the validity of the patent granted the Bell Telephone Company.

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY. The Bell Telephone Company, Washington, has just issued proceedings in Boston to test the validity of the patent granted the Bell Telephone Company.

There were eighteen contestants from this State for the one acre prize; the highest reported 169 bushels of shelled corn, the lowest 57 bushels.

There were only men from the prizes awarded to the Georgia farmers. Each of the States received prizes, but the Georgians were far in the lead.

But whether the above reports of the Georgia farmers were true or not, it is an indisputable fact that it is cheaper to grow five bales of cotton on three acres than to grow the same on ten acres.

Two of the Munger Bros. from Philadelphia, are visiting their brother at Jordan's creek, Beaufort county.

A certain young man from Hyde went on a visit to Beaufort county had a horse to run away and smash a new buggy.

Mr. E. M. Short, the energetic mill man of Washington, is erecting another mill in place of the one recently burned.

The schooner Hattie Lollis got on the "swash" when bound in and started a leak so that she had to go on the ways for repairs.

We are sorry to hear of the loss by fire of the dwelling and its contents of Mr. J. C. Ricks, jr., near Pantego, on the 21st inst.

The negro who was shot near Swan Quarter recently I wrongly reported dead. He was living at last, advised that it was supposed dead.

Capt. Cox, of the steamer G. M. Hill, made a short visit to his family at Washington. "Ross" says the Hill is a day since she has a new boiler and has been overhauled.

Messrs. John E. Spencer and brother Will were married recently on the same day. The former is a daughter of W. P. Midgett, Esq., and the latter to a Mrs. Harris, of Fairfield.

We regret that one of the most enterprising merchants of Aurora has been driven to make an assignment. He will come out all right; a man of his energy and pluck cannot be put down.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Latham, jr., are visiting relatives at Aurora.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Latham are spending Christmas at Old Fort, Beaufort county.

Mr. W. H. Fortisene, sr., and wife are out of the back to Hyde to make it their home.

Mr. R. W. Minor, who has for 18 months past been in Pamlico county, is at Washington.

Mr. E. M. Short, the energetic mill man of Washington, is erecting another mill in place of the one recently burned.

The schooner Hattie Lollis got on the "swash" when bound in and started a leak so that she had to go on the ways for repairs.

We are sorry to hear of the loss by fire of the dwelling and its contents of Mr. J. C. Ricks, jr., near Pantego, on the 21st inst.

The negro who was shot near Swan Quarter recently I wrongly reported dead. He was living at last, advised that it was supposed dead.

Capt. Cox, of the steamer G. M. Hill, made a short visit to his family at Washington. "Ross" says the Hill is a day since she has a new boiler and has been overhauled.

Messrs. John E. Spencer and brother Will were married recently on the same day. The former is a daughter of W. P. Midgett, Esq., and the latter to a Mrs. Harris, of Fairfield.

We regret that one of the most enterprising merchants of Aurora has been driven to make an assignment. He will come out all right; a man of his energy and pluck cannot be put down.

We are sorry to hear of the loss by fire of the dwelling and its contents of Mr. J. C. Ricks, jr., near Pantego, on the 21st inst.

The Christmas chimes are pealing high beneath the solemn Christmas sky.

Merry Christmas is here, with a smile and a cheer. Let all your old troubles and sorrows be buried.

When God created man He commanded His angels to visit him on earth and guide him in his ways.

At that moment a new and most beautiful star blazed in the sky.

The Evangelists of the Gospels, consisting of Messrs. Womack, of Chatham, and Woodard, of Wilkes, Democrats, and Mr. Bulla, of Davidson, Republican, appointed to make an assignment.

Miss Katie Ferguson has resigned as teacher at the Academy at Pantego, and Mr. Allen is to start a school at that place, so I am informed.

Schooner Annie E. Hall is loading at the wharf here. She is three weeks from Philadelphia. While at Washington, N. C., the captain was robbed, by one of the crew, of $81 and a gold watch.

"Little Elm," youngest child of Asa J. Smith, died on the evening of the 17th inst., at about 9 o'clock, of pneumonia. She was sick but two or three days.

We have just learned of the death of Frank Thompson, sr., of Richlands, an old and respected citizen of our county.

The little pleasure steamer Hermon, on her way to Florida, is at our wharf. Her Captain, A. H. Shipman, with his family, seem to be at home and from appearances, able to be at home anywhere.

The Christmas tree came on Friday night, Christmas eve, about 6:30 worth of presents were placed in beautiful positions on a beautiful tree in the school room.

Mr. Barnes, of the Georgia, concluded his argument in opposition to the bill by an urgent appeal in behalf of good faith towards the Indians and the maintenance of the National honor by the government.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Latham, jr., are visiting relatives at Aurora.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Latham are spending Christmas at Old Fort, Beaufort county.

Mr. W. H. Fortisene, sr., and wife are out of the back to Hyde to make it their home.

Mr. R. W. Minor, who has for 18 months past been in Pamlico county, is at Washington.

Mr. E. M. Short, the energetic mill man of Washington, is erecting another mill in place of the one recently burned.

The schooner Hattie Lollis got on the "swash" when bound in and started a leak so that she had to go on the ways for repairs.

We are sorry to hear of the loss by fire of the dwelling and its contents of Mr. J. C. Ricks, jr., near Pantego, on the 21st inst.

The negro who was shot near Swan Quarter recently I wrongly reported dead. He was living at last, advised that it was supposed dead.

Capt. Cox, of the steamer G. M. Hill, made a short visit to his family at Washington. "Ross" says the Hill is a day since she has a new boiler and has been overhauled.

Messrs. John E. Spencer and brother Will were married recently on the same day. The former is a daughter of W. P. Midgett, Esq., and the latter to a Mrs. Harris, of Fairfield.

We regret that one of the most enterprising merchants of Aurora has been driven to make an assignment. He will come out all right; a man of his energy and pluck cannot be put down.

We are sorry to hear of the loss by fire of the dwelling and its contents of Mr. J. C. Ricks, jr., near Pantego, on the 21st inst.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Latham, jr., are visiting relatives at Aurora.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Latham are spending Christmas at Old Fort, Beaufort county.

Mr. W. H. Fortisene, sr., and wife are out of the back to Hyde to make it their home.

Mr. R. W. Minor, who has for 18 months past been in Pamlico county, is at Washington.

Mr. E. M. Short, the energetic mill man of Washington, is erecting another mill in place of the one recently burned.

The schooner Hattie Lollis got on the "swash" when bound in and started a leak so that she had to go on the ways for repairs.

We are sorry to hear of the loss by fire of the dwelling and its contents of Mr. J. C. Ricks, jr., near Pantego, on the 21st inst.

The negro who was shot near Swan Quarter recently I wrongly reported dead. He was living at last, advised that it was supposed dead.

Capt. Cox, of the steamer G. M. Hill, made a short visit to his family at Washington. "Ross" says the Hill is a day since she has a new boiler and has been overhauled.

Messrs. John E. Spencer and brother Will were married recently on the same day. The former is a daughter of W. P. Midgett, Esq., and the latter to a Mrs. Harris, of Fairfield.

We regret that one of the most enterprising merchants of Aurora has been driven to make an assignment. He will come out all right; a man of his energy and pluck cannot be put down.

We are sorry to hear of the loss by fire of the dwelling and its contents of Mr. J. C. Ricks, jr., near Pantego, on the 21st inst.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Latham, jr., are visiting relatives at Aurora.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Latham are spending Christmas at Old Fort, Beaufort county.

Mr. W. H. Fortisene, sr., and wife are out of the back to Hyde to make it their home.

Mr. R. W. Minor, who has for 18 months past been in Pamlico county, is at Washington.

Mr. E. M. Short, the energetic mill man of Washington, is erecting another mill in place of the one recently burned.

The schooner Hattie Lollis got on the "swash" when bound in and started a leak so that she had to go on the ways for repairs.

We are sorry to hear of the loss by fire of the dwelling and its contents of Mr. J. C. Ricks, jr., near Pantego, on the 21st inst.

The negro who was shot near Swan Quarter recently I wrongly reported dead. He was living at last, advised that it was supposed dead.

Capt. Cox, of the steamer G. M. Hill, made a short visit to his family at Washington. "Ross" says the Hill is a day since she has a new boiler and has been overhauled.

Messrs. John E. Spencer and brother Will were married recently on the same day. The former is a daughter of W. P. Midgett, Esq., and the latter to a Mrs. Harris, of Fairfield.

We regret that one of the most enterprising merchants of Aurora has been driven to make an assignment. He will come out all right; a man of his energy and pluck cannot be put down.

We are sorry to hear of the loss by fire of the dwelling and its contents of Mr. J. C. Ricks, jr., near Pantego, on the 21st inst.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Latham, jr., are visiting relatives at Aurora.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Latham are spending Christmas at Old Fort, Beaufort county.

Mr. W. H. Fortisene, sr., and wife are out of the back to Hyde to make it their home.

Mr. R. W. Minor, who has for 18 months past been in Pamlico county, is at Washington.

Mr. E. M. Short, the energetic mill man of Washington, is erecting another mill in place of the one recently burned.

The schooner Hattie Lollis got on the "swash" when bound in and started a leak so that she had to go on the ways for repairs.

We are sorry to hear of the loss by fire of the dwelling and its contents of Mr. J. C. Ricks, jr., near Pantego, on the 21st inst.

The negro who was shot near Swan Quarter recently I wrongly reported dead. He was living at last, advised that it was supposed dead.

Capt. Cox, of the steamer G. M. Hill, made a short visit to his family at Washington. "Ross" says the Hill is a day since she has a new boiler and has been overhauled.

Messrs. John E. Spencer and brother Will were married recently on the same day. The former is a daughter of W. P. Midgett, Esq., and the latter to a Mrs. Harris, of Fairfield.

We regret that one of the most enterprising merchants of Aurora has been driven to make an assignment. He will come out all right; a man of his energy and pluck cannot be put down.

We are sorry to hear of the loss by fire of the dwelling and its contents of Mr. J. C. Ricks, jr., near Pantego, on the 21st inst.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Latham, jr., are visiting relatives at Aurora.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Latham are spending Christmas at Old Fort, Beaufort county.

Mr. W. H. Fortisene, sr., and wife are out of the back to Hyde to make it their home.

Mr. R. W. Minor, who has for 18 months past been in Pamlico county, is at Washington.

Mr. E. M. Short, the energetic mill man of Washington, is erecting another mill in place of the one recently burned.

The schooner Hattie Lollis got on the "swash" when bound in and started a leak so that she had to go on the ways for repairs.

We are sorry to hear of the loss by fire of the dwelling and its contents of Mr. J. C. Ricks, jr., near Pantego, on the 21st inst.

The negro who was shot near Swan Quarter recently I wrongly reported dead. He was living at last, advised that it was supposed dead.

Capt. Cox, of the steamer G. M. Hill, made a short visit to his family at Washington. "Ross" says the Hill is a day since she has a new boiler and has been overhauled.

Messrs. John E. Spencer and brother Will were married recently on the same day. The former is a daughter of W. P. Midgett, Esq., and the latter to a Mrs. Harris, of Fairfield.

We regret that one of the most enterprising merchants of Aurora has been driven to make an assignment. He will come out all right; a man of his energy and pluck cannot be put down.

We are sorry to hear of the loss by fire of the dwelling and its contents of Mr. J. C. Ricks, jr., near Pantego, on the 21st inst.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Latham, jr., are visiting relatives at Aurora.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Latham are spending Christmas at Old Fort, Beaufort county.

Mr. W. H. Fortisene, sr., and wife are out of the back to Hyde to make it their home.

Mr. R. W. Minor, who has for 18 months past been in Pamlico county, is at Washington.

Mr. E. M. Short, the energetic mill man of Washington, is erecting another mill in place of the one recently burned.

The schooner Hattie Lollis got on the "swash" when bound in and started a leak so that she had to go on the ways for repairs.

We are sorry to hear of the loss by fire of the dwelling and its contents of Mr. J. C. Ricks, jr., near Pantego, on the 21st inst.

The negro who was shot near Swan Quarter recently I wrongly reported dead. He was living at last, advised that it was supposed dead.

Capt. Cox, of the steamer G. M. Hill, made a short visit to his family at Washington. "Ross" says the Hill is a day since she has a new boiler and has been overhauled.

Messrs. John E. Spencer and brother Will were married recently on the same day. The former is a daughter of W. P. Midgett, Esq., and the latter to a Mrs. Harris, of Fairfield.

We regret that one of the most enterprising merchants of Aurora has been driven to make an assignment. He will come out all right; a man of his energy and pluck cannot be put down.

We are sorry to hear of the loss by fire of the dwelling and its contents of Mr. J. C. Ricks, jr., near Pantego, on the 21st inst.