

THE JOURNAL.

NEW BERNE, N. C., JUNE 9, 1887.

Mr. ROBERT SYMONS, at Kinston, is published and sent to subscribers to the JOURNAL.

THE cheapest place in town to buy Coats, Pants, Vests, Shirts and Drawers is at BULLHAPS and Bbl. Covers, at S. W. & E. W. SMALLWOOD'S.

FOR SALE—A large, well bound and handsomely illustrated Atlas of the World. Contains classified information on nearly every subject imaginable. Can be seen at the office.

A Double-barreled Shot Gun will be sold very low for $3.00. Apply at JOURNAL office.

For sale at a low price—A B. Hat. Apply at this office.

Kinston Items. The town is extremely dull. Hardly a person on the street for the past week.

Mr. R. C. Strong, who for eight years has been assistant postmaster at this place, has accepted a position in Mr. S. H. H. Bank.

The justice of the peace commissioners were in session last Monday for the purpose of levying taxes and electing a board of education.

A large number of our young folks are attending the commencement exercises of Davis's school. They are principally the young ladies of course.

We doubt not but that the people of Kinston will rise up with one voice and thank the Lord that prohibition is at least settled for two years.

Another commencement of Kinston College has come and gone. Once more the little folks played their tiny parts on their annual stage of action.

On Friday, the opening night, a large audience greeted the little folks and gave them a most encouraging reception.

On Wednesday night, the little folks and their friends were again treated to a most interesting and profitable performance.

On Thursday night, the little folks and their friends were again treated to a most interesting and profitable performance.

On Friday night, the little folks and their friends were again treated to a most interesting and profitable performance.

On Saturday night, the little folks and their friends were again treated to a most interesting and profitable performance.

On Sunday night, the little folks and their friends were again treated to a most interesting and profitable performance.

On Monday night, the little folks and their friends were again treated to a most interesting and profitable performance.

On Tuesday night, the little folks and their friends were again treated to a most interesting and profitable performance.

On Wednesday night, the little folks and their friends were again treated to a most interesting and profitable performance.

On Thursday night, the little folks and their friends were again treated to a most interesting and profitable performance.

On Friday night, the little folks and their friends were again treated to a most interesting and profitable performance.

On Saturday night, the little folks and their friends were again treated to a most interesting and profitable performance.

On Sunday night, the little folks and their friends were again treated to a most interesting and profitable performance.

On Monday night, the little folks and their friends were again treated to a most interesting and profitable performance.

On Tuesday night, the little folks and their friends were again treated to a most interesting and profitable performance.

On Wednesday night, the little folks and their friends were again treated to a most interesting and profitable performance.

On Thursday night, the little folks and their friends were again treated to a most interesting and profitable performance.

On Friday night, the little folks and their friends were again treated to a most interesting and profitable performance.

On Saturday night, the little folks and their friends were again treated to a most interesting and profitable performance.

Papers with the Journal—Club Rates.

We have made arrangements with the following publications, among the oldest and most valuable of the country, whereby subscribers to the JOURNAL can secure any of the below named at the following low rates, strictly in advance.

Table listing subscription rates for various newspapers and magazines, including American Farmer, Southern Cultivator, and others.

CITY AND VICINITY.

Urch has received a mammoth supply of English Island molasses. See advertisement.

Rye over six feet high from E. F. Arnold, Spring Garden, Craven county, was brought in last week.

The committee of arrangements are fixing an interesting program for the Fair. The only question now is, how big a thing shall it be?

Double daily freight trains are running on the A. & N. C. Railroad this week.

The stockholders meeting of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad will be held at Morehead City on Thursday, the 30th of June.

Local Option Elections. Beaufort voted prohibition on Monday last by an increased majority.

Change of Sailing Days. The President has changed sailing days to Mondays and Wednesdays on Norfolk.

The Glorious Fourth. The celebration of the Fourth of July, 1887, by the citizens of New Berne and surrounding country is now an assured fact.

A tiger wildcat. A most ferocious looking animal produced by a wildcat, was brought to the city of Kinston by Grantham by Mr. W. H. Bawl, who shot him near his house Sunday morning.

Honor Worthily Bestowed. We are pleased to see that the University of North Carolina has conferred the degree of Doctor of Divinity upon our townsman, Rev. L. C. Vass.

Personal. Miss Lena McCotter and Miss May Caho, students of Kinsey's School, and Miss M. A. Hester, of Beaufort.

Personal. Miss Lena McCotter and Miss May Caho, students of Kinsey's School, and Miss M. A. Hester, of Beaufort.

Personal. Miss Lena McCotter and Miss May Caho, students of Kinsey's School, and Miss M. A. Hester, of Beaufort.

Personal. Miss Lena McCotter and Miss May Caho, students of Kinsey's School, and Miss M. A. Hester, of Beaufort.

Personal. Miss Lena McCotter and Miss May Caho, students of Kinsey's School, and Miss M. A. Hester, of Beaufort.

Personal. Miss Lena McCotter and Miss May Caho, students of Kinsey's School, and Miss M. A. Hester, of Beaufort.

Personal. Miss Lena McCotter and Miss May Caho, students of Kinsey's School, and Miss M. A. Hester, of Beaufort.

Personal. Miss Lena McCotter and Miss May Caho, students of Kinsey's School, and Miss M. A. Hester, of Beaufort.

Personal. Miss Lena McCotter and Miss May Caho, students of Kinsey's School, and Miss M. A. Hester, of Beaufort.

Personal. Miss Lena McCotter and Miss May Caho, students of Kinsey's School, and Miss M. A. Hester, of Beaufort.

Personal. Miss Lena McCotter and Miss May Caho, students of Kinsey's School, and Miss M. A. Hester, of Beaufort.

Personal. Miss Lena McCotter and Miss May Caho, students of Kinsey's School, and Miss M. A. Hester, of Beaufort.

Personal. Miss Lena McCotter and Miss May Caho, students of Kinsey's School, and Miss M. A. Hester, of Beaufort.

Personal. Miss Lena McCotter and Miss May Caho, students of Kinsey's School, and Miss M. A. Hester, of Beaufort.

Personal. Miss Lena McCotter and Miss May Caho, students of Kinsey's School, and Miss M. A. Hester, of Beaufort.

Personal. Miss Lena McCotter and Miss May Caho, students of Kinsey's School, and Miss M. A. Hester, of Beaufort.

The Crops.

From Magistrates and citizens from every section of the county who were in the city yesterday we gather the following information concerning crops.

W. B. Pearce from the western end of the county, states that the crops in his immediate neighborhood are very promising and in good condition, but in his way to New Berne he sees considerable quantities of crops in the hands of the farmers.

George Green, Jr., from near Tuscarora, reports crops fine; corn in good condition.

W. C. Brewer, No. 1 township, reports prospects as good as he ever saw. The season has been good and the farmer that is behind with his work must be lazy.

S. E. Whifory, from Eraulin No. 2 township, says crops are looking well and farmers pretty well up with work.

Wm. Foy, from the south side of Trent, says crops looking fine but are somewhat in the grass.

J. A. Arnal, No. 2 township on north side of Neuse, crops fine but short-labor scarce.

Major Gordon of Beaufort reports, little better than usual, little corn, wet last week, but cotton a good stand and looking well. The prettiest May for work in twenty years.

V. A. Thomas, north side of Neuse, crops not looking so well as they might look, but looking and corn being eaten by the bugs.

D. W. Morton, near Carteret line, cotton and corn pretty fair, too wet for the last few days. Good stand of cotton, bugs pretty bad on corn. About the same as last year.

J. L. Taylor, Adams creek, crops promising—much cotton planted.

B. F. Borden, Hancock's creek, near Havelock, too wet, cotton good stand, bugs bad on corn, prospects pretty fair for the season.

W. B. Hester, Craven county, crops fair, not quite so much cotton as last year, bugs have eaten corn badly, too wet for the last few days.

W. H. Hester, Craven county, crops fair, not quite so much cotton as last year, bugs have eaten corn badly, too wet for the last few days.

A School for Girls and Young Ladies. The JOURNAL is a friend of education and progress. It believes in practical methods, and in that system of education which inculcates self-reliance, independence, and the necessity of work and the importance of higher and more useful citizenship.

Chorus: Birds of Spring—Vocal Solo—Miss Lena McCotter, Miss May Caho, Annie Moseley and Lena Carr.

Vocal Solo—Day Dreams—Miss Lena McCotter, Miss May Caho, Annie Moseley and Lena Carr.

Vocal Solo—Milkmaid's Song—Miss Lena McCotter, Miss May Caho, Annie Moseley and Lena Carr.

Vocal Solo—The Distant Chimney—Miss Lena McCotter, Miss May Caho, Annie Moseley and Lena Carr.

Vocal Solo—Milkmaid's Song—Miss Lena McCotter, Miss May Caho, Annie Moseley and Lena Carr.

Vocal Solo—The Distant Chimney—Miss Lena McCotter, Miss May Caho, Annie Moseley and Lena Carr.

Vocal Solo—Milkmaid's Song—Miss Lena McCotter, Miss May Caho, Annie Moseley and Lena Carr.

Vocal Solo—The Distant Chimney—Miss Lena McCotter, Miss May Caho, Annie Moseley and Lena Carr.

Vocal Solo—Milkmaid's Song—Miss Lena McCotter, Miss May Caho, Annie Moseley and Lena Carr.

Vocal Solo—The Distant Chimney—Miss Lena McCotter, Miss May Caho, Annie Moseley and Lena Carr.

Vocal Solo—Milkmaid's Song—Miss Lena McCotter, Miss May Caho, Annie Moseley and Lena Carr.

Vocal Solo—The Distant Chimney—Miss Lena McCotter, Miss May Caho, Annie Moseley and Lena Carr.

Vocal Solo—Milkmaid's Song—Miss Lena McCotter, Miss May Caho, Annie Moseley and Lena Carr.

Vocal Solo—The Distant Chimney—Miss Lena McCotter, Miss May Caho, Annie Moseley and Lena Carr.

Vocal Solo—Milkmaid's Song—Miss Lena McCotter, Miss May Caho, Annie Moseley and Lena Carr.

Vocal Solo—The Distant Chimney—Miss Lena McCotter, Miss May Caho, Annie Moseley and Lena Carr.

Closing Exercises of Kinsey's School.

The closing exercises of the first year of Kinsey's school for girls and young ladies began on Wednesday evening, June 1st at 7 o'clock. The exercises were held in the hall of the school building.

The exercises opened with a prayer by Rev. J. H. Hester, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, North Carolina Conference.

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

Closing Exercises of the N. C. Home.

The closing exercises of the N. C. Home for the deaf and dumb, were held on Wednesday evening, June 1st, at 7 o'clock. The exercises were held in the hall of the school building.

The exercises opened with a prayer by Rev. J. H. Hester, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, North Carolina Conference.

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

Madison's School.

The closing exercises of the Madison school for girls and young ladies began on Wednesday evening, June 1st at 7 o'clock. The exercises were held in the hall of the school building.

The exercises opened with a prayer by Rev. J. H. Hester, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, North Carolina Conference.

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."

The exercises were presided over by Mr. J. H. Hester, who held in his hand a book of prayer, and read the following prayer: "O God, we thank thee for the privilege of attending this school, and for the instruction we have received here."