Closing Exercises of the New Berne Graded School.

Miss Maria Manly's Select School for Girls.

The continuation of the closing exercises of New Berne Graded School were held on June 7th Wednesday morning beginning at 10 o'clock. The day's exercises began with prayer by Rev. Dr. Theo. Whitefield.

Prof. Neal announced that the reading of compositions was next in order.

Shepard Bryan was the first called for. His subject was "Liberty," and under this head he treated briefly the following subjects: civil, individual, paternal, political, religious liberty, and liberty of the press. He is a good reader, and the subject of his composition was well handled.

Ernest Green followed: subject "War." We must correct an error which he naturally fell into concerning the most notable Confederate war vessel. The iron-clad ship that steamed out from Newport News in 1863 and created such excitement in Hampton Roads, was not the "Merrimac," as is commonly reported, but the "Virginia."

We do not offer this as a criticism of the boy, but the error crept into his composition.
