Papers with the Journal—Club Rates

Table listing various newspapers and their subscription rates. Includes titles like 'The Daily Journal', 'The Atlantic Constitution', 'The Raleigh Post', etc.

CITY AND VICINITY.

The City of Fayetteville is moving to establish a fruit and vegetable fair. A good idea.

T. E. Magee & Co. announce a full line of Truggs' articles, paints, oils, garden seeds, etc.

The Atlantic Fire Company are putting a substantial pavement in front of their engine house.

The painters have begun work on the new and elegant residence of Mr. T. E. Magee on the corner of Broad and Metcalf streets.

Prof. Walker is turning out some fine work at his photographic gallery, over Duffy's drug store, on the corner of Pollock and Middle streets.

A correspondent presents the name of Rev. G. W. Sanderlin for State Auditor. He would make a fine representative of the farmer element on the State ticket.

The Republicans of Craven county, as will be seen by the proceedings elsewhere, are endorsing James G. Blaine for President and H. W. Morris for Congress.

Mr. Sullivan has returned from the Northern markets and from the immense quantities of goods he is storing in would seem that he has made heavy purchases.

We return thanks to our young townsmen, Mr. T. C. Daniels of the Davis School, for invitation and program of the athletic games to come off April 19th and 20th.

We publish today the third article of public schools by Maj. Finger, the efficient Superintendent of Public Instruction. It is a treatise on the subject of local taxation.

Conklin & Moody, doing business near the depot, have dissolved copartnership. J. W. Moody and J. R. Moody will continue the business and will also open a store on Broad street.

The old cannon, the "Cleveland Boom," on the Clyde wharf has been painted. It looks brand new and will be in good trim to sound the glad tidings of Cleveland's reelection next November.

Rivers and smaller streams throughout the State are reported to be very high and in many places overflowing their banks. It is feared that the overflow of the Savannah river will be a general freshet over the country, especially in the South.

A meeting of the stockholders of the New Bern and Beaufort Canal Company will be held at Hotel Albert, Wednesday the 11th inst, for the election of officers and transaction of other important business.

The Raleigh "hoodlums" are still in Toronto and their council propose fighting extradition to the bitter end. Cross has made a confession of his being guilty of forgery. They are both much dejected in spirit.

The steamer Howard has made a complete change in her schedule. She will call at New Bern on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. She will also call at Pollockville and return same day and will go to Trenton every Thursday, returning Friday.

A communication to the News and Observer, copied in this issue, reflects the sentiments of a large portion of the Eastern people regarding the leaving of historical nomination. Whether the writer be a Western or Eastern man we have no means of guessing, but he certainly knows what the masses want.

Since the first of December Morehead City and Beaufort have exported nearly 500 barrels of clams, oysters and scallops, principally to the North. These goods are all forwarded by the E. C. D. Vanas from New Bern, the Annie taking out yesterday as part of her cargo about 300 barrels of clams.

Geo. Ash, the clothier, announces that he has returned from the North with a large stock of clothing and other goods, of which he invites an examination. He can be found at the same old stand on Middle street, with Dave M. Jones to assist in waiting on customers. He is also agent for the Saxon Island drying machine and will send all goods free of express charges. See "ad" and give him a call.

Quick Time for Truck. Truck on the through train, we learn, will leave here about noon and be in New York next night. This is very quick time and our truckers will undoubtedly appreciate the efforts that have secured it for them. All details of schedule, &c., will shortly be given to shippers.

Appointments by the Governor. The Governor has made the following appointments: John B. Tingle, Chief Justice of the Superior Court; John B. Tingle, Chief Justice of the Superior Court; John B. Tingle, Chief Justice of the Superior Court.

General Staff, N. C. S. G. William Lewis, Engineer in Chief, John B. Broadford, Inspector of the Practice, John L. Cantwell, Commissary General, all with the rank of Colonel.

Col. Broadford, in the law of our townsmen H. R. Bryan, Esq., and all are efficient officers.

A Singular Egg. Hyman Thompson, colored, showed us Saturday an egg laid late in the afternoon of Good Friday by a hen of his on which is plainly visible a partially recurrent cross. The cross is around the egg and slightly raised in the shell. The bright part of the cross is longer proportionately than the arms though a slight recurrent position gives it the finish of a perfect cross.

Permanent Fair Organization. At the meeting of the Fair Association Monday the reports of the various committees were read and adopted. Mr. W. K. Willis, Secretary and Charles Bostwick, Treasurer for the ensuing year. These are efficient officers and will no doubt use their best energies in guaranteeing the Fair a success.

The Daily Journal.

Six years ago Sunday the Daily Journal first appeared on the streets of New Bern. During that time no issue has failed and no day except the proper holidays has failed to have the JOURNAL laid before our patrons. Whatever success has attended its efforts to promote the general welfare of the community in which it is published, has been due to as much to the kindly inclination of our patrons as to the efforts of the editorial management. No paper, however ably edited, can be of much value to a community unless it can impress that community with its ideas and opinions advanced by it. Nor will the mere impression be of value unless they lead to action. This we flatter ourselves, the JOURNAL has done on one or more occasions.

The JOURNAL is not what we want it to be nor what we intend it shall be. New Bern ought to support a paper with the press despatches and we shall never be satisfied with the JOURNAL until we are able to lay before our readers every morning the news from every corner of the State and of the world. It could do every business man would feel, as he ought to, that a free newspaper is a necessity and that it is his duty to support and encourage it. With thanks for past patronage we promise to press forward in the future with Eastern Carolina, confident that by continually holding up advantages and resources we shall in the end reap the reward.

New Bern High School—A Literary Society. The object of the New Bern High School, ever with an eye single to the educational interests of our community, has succeeded in organizing, in connection with the High School, a Literary Society, composed of the older and more advanced students of the school. This Society bears the name of Kalmathaven Society. The following are the names of the officers chosen: President John S. Thomas, vice president, Miss Julia N. Thomas, treasurer, Miss Bertha Ouler, secretary, Mrs. Nunn.

The object of the society is to develop the literary attainments of the students, male and female, in essay writing, composition, reading, and other ways for their mutual improvement. The pupils seemed to manifest a laudable zeal in forming this essential auxiliary in maturing and perfecting their educational work in which they will receive the future earnest co-operation of the principal.

This society and its manifold advantages will be a great benefit to the school, and to the people, shaping their literary manhood and womanhood, and forming a bright nucleus, around which their memories and sympathies will cling with increasing delight in days to come.

They are abundantly prosper in this worthy enterprise and will glorious honors to crown their mid-day lives.

A New Way to Cross a Stream. The treasurer of the late Fair Association and one of New Bern's brightest townsmen, James G. Blaine, Jr., on Tuesday last, leaving New Bern in a buggy together. The heavy rains on Monday and Monday night had much swollen the streams and on reaching Beaver Dam near Mr. Joe Bank's place and after getting in the stream they concluded that it would be safer for them to take the foot log. The treasurer concluded that he could walk the foot log and drive the horse, so he reigned up near it and got out of the buggy and after getting in the stream they were fairly landed on the log the word was given to the horse which moved forward into the stream, but the attorney being in front of the treasurer instead of moving on the log the treasurer could keep on with the horse dropped astraddle of the log with his legs in the water and jumped along about six inches at a time. The treasurer was compelled to let go the reins and soon the horse was swimming and the buggy off of sight.

A coal mine explosion occurred in Missouri. The mine was situated on the opposite side for the arrival of his company who came up in about the same condition that he was—dripping wet.

At the next stream the attorney stuck to the buggy and kept out of the way of the treasurer's walk on the foot log. Of course they both had important business or they would not have taken such a risk in crossing the stream. The attorney was bound to go in the interest of a client and the treasurer with equal zeal was looking after the interest of the new Fair Association and they are glad to say was quite successful.

Foreign Appointment. Rev. L. C. Vass, D. D., of this city has been appointed by the General Assembly to the World's Presbyterian Council, to be held in London July 31. Dr. Vass has been notified that he is expected to attend, and we are in hopes that he may find the convention to do so. He was on a similar mission four years ago at Belfast, Ireland, and the many interesting letters furnished the JOURNAL during the four months' tour are pleasantly remembered by many.

Major Barrett's Communication. We publish elsewhere a communication from Maj. W. J. Barrett in reply to "X" in Tuesday's issue. We wish to say that we did not intend that Federal officer was referred to by "X" and we made our comments on the communication as there are about a dozen or more Federal officers in the county.

The Major puts the matter in a different light. There is certainly a misunderstanding. Jarvis' friends want him to be Governor for four years and many of them desire Senator Ransom's return to the Senate. Then why should there be any conflict between them.

Acquitted. The case of State vs. W. J. Perry, charged with the murder of Willis Venable, col. tried at Jones Superior Court, was referred to Judge Traylor, resulting in the acquittal of Mr. Perry. We learn that our talented townsman, Clement Manly, Esq., who was of counsel for the defendant, displayed in the examination of the prominent physician, Charles Jarvis, friend of the accused, knowledge of surgery and anatomy that he was at once dubbed "Dr. Manly."

Final Meeting of Old Organization. The New Bern Fair, Oyster, and Game Association held their final meeting Monday and decided to turn over to the new organization the funds in their hands, which amounts to over seven hundred dollars. This amount if carefully used, will be of value in aiding the new organization to make a success of the next fair.

The association passed resolutions of thanks to their President, George Allen, for his successful management of the enterprise, and also voted a resolution of thanks to the ladies of New Bern and the surrounding country for the valuable aid rendered by them, which so greatly contributed to make the exhibition a success.

Important to Merchants of New Bern.

The Farmers' Alliance of Onslow county held a meeting of the County Alliance at Jacksonville on the 28th of February and adopted the following with other resolutions. Resolved, That a committee of one from each Alliance be appointed and known as a Trade Committee, whose duty it shall be to meet in the city of Wilmington, New Bern on a day to be named by their chairman, to negotiate and make terms with the commission houses, grocery, one shoe and one dry goods store, for cash discounts on wholesale orders, and to advise and inform the prices, and report progress, to the Executive Committee of the Alliance for adoption and action. When adopted the sub-Alliance, through their secretary, shall issue to each member thereof a certificate, and each sub-Alliance may bulk their orders and order their supplies through the County Secretary or through their own sub-Agency.

The merchants of New Bern would do well to communicate with the County Alliance that meets again in April and inform them of all inducements that can be offered to help their business in the city. The matter seems to be important with the committee to meet in Wilmington on New Bern to negotiate terms, but their action is not final until reported to and adopted by the County Alliance.

Lieut. Winslow's Address. The Elizabeth City Economist is publishing reports of Lieut. Winslow, directed to the Fair Association in this city. The Association ought to publish this address in pamphlet form. We printed quite a number of extra copies of our Weekly to give most of the business in the city. The matter seems to be important with the committee to meet in Wilmington on New Bern to negotiate terms, but their action is not final until reported to and adopted by the County Alliance.
