The death of Professor Richard A. Proctor of New York is a calamity that in its sweep is world wide. He was one of the greatest astronomers of the age, and science mourns the loss of her brilliant son.

OWING to destructive floods in and near the city and inconvenience of travel from quarantine regulations, Augusta, Ga., has postponed the opening of her exposition until November 15th. It is to continue till December 15th.

With cheaper raw material the cost of production will be diminished, the manufacturer will have a wider market for his products, the laborer will have more constant employment and the consumer will obtain his supplies at lower prices.

PAND BERNETT Hill, the peerless Democratic Governor of New York, has offered his services to the Democratic Campaign Committee, and will go to Ohio, Indiana and Michigan. New York is considered safe, but the Governor will make a general canvass of the State before the election.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

THEY say the discussion is all foul play.

Floods are being reported from numerous sections.

The German Emperor is evidently anxious for a war with France.

There is a reported alliance between Russia, France and Turkey.

The Democratic fires in Maine about cooked the Republican goose.

MR. CARLISLE has been re-nominated for Congress by acclamation.

JUDGE THURMAN is engaged in the preparation of his letter of acceptance.

JOHN T. PATRICK, Commissioner of Immigration, is very sick with Bright's disease.

THE corn crop in the Northwest is said to be large and in advance of injury from frost.

SAVANNAH is now the largest cotton port in the United States, and Norfolk second.

ON last Tuesday there were 153 new cases and twenty deaths in Jacksonville of yellow fever.

MR. CARLISLE says that Cleveland is stronger than he ever was, and his reelection is certain.

EMPEROR WILLIAM refuses to allow the use of French on the bill of fare at his State and military dinners.

WITH charity for all and malice towards none, let every patriot in Craven go to work to elect the Coalition ticket.

REASSURING reports come from Connecticut. When the Democratic tide rises in September look out for a flood in November.

THE cigar makers of Havana are on a big strike. They, with their families, are thought to number at least twenty thousand persons.

WITH all improved precautions it does seem that there have been more railroad accidents in the last few months than we ever before remember.

THE Democrats of the House of Representatives have met in caucus and resolved to continue in session until the Senate makes known its intentions.

AN important conference of health officers of the Southern States was held in Nashville for the purpose of considering the yellow fever situation.

THE Judge of the Criminal Court of Memphis, Tenn., has instructed the grand jury to indict members of the cotton bagging trust, regardless of the fact that they do not live in that city.

WHO won in Maine? There can be but one answer, now that the figures are in. Here it is: Republican plurality in 1884, 19,851; Republican plurality in 1888, 18,495; Republican loss in four years, 1,356.

HUMAN sympathy is an angel of mercy; but the pugilist who boasts of his powers, and is then worsted in the ring, must endure his suffering unblest by its ministry. Alas, poor Dockery!

NORFOLK has made her quarantine regulations more stringent than ever. It includes all the cities south of Weldon. All baggage and freight arriving from the yellow fever districts are re fumigated.

WE have before us the Knoxville Daily Tribune of the 16th inst. The first page is a fac simile of a red bandanna on which are first rate pictures of Cleveland and Thurman. The paper is "check full" of the best kind of Democracy.

DOCKERY is now, in this year 1888, in favor of paying a credit debt that was created by thieves and hammers. It is believed that it would literally bankrupt the State to pay the special tax bonds.

THE Durham Progress has made its appearance, but it has not found its way to this office. If it is really to be a journal of progress, we would like to feel the inspiration of its presence, and if it is to be the ally of Republicanism we would like to know what it is about, so as to better counteract its pernicious influence.

UNIVERSAL regret was manifested in Democratic circles when it was announced that Hon. W. L. Scott of Pennsylvania, had declined a re-nomination for Congress. This regret is greatly modified since it is known that Mr. Scott has gone to New York to assist in the management of the Democratic National campaign.

THE President has signed the bill to prevent the immigration of Chinese laborers into this country. This does not mean that America is no longer an asylum for the oppressed, but it means the house to freebooters and marauders has been revoked, and that henceforward American civilization must prevail in these United States.

REPUBLICAN losses are taking about the second rebellion. This has to be referred to the South, but to the rebels against the party prohibitory tariff scheme outlined in the Republican platform, by no means.
