We returned our thanks to our friends and customers who have so much helped us to dispose of the large stocks we have bought during the past twelve months. Large stocks, did we say. Yes, that is exactly what we meant to say, although it may cause a ripple to suddenly appear athwart the ordinarily composed and sombre and stolid countenance of some of our competitors to think of such presumption on our part, but yet, such is the case: according to the returns given in by the merchants of the city semi annually, under oath upon the Holy Evangelist of the Word of God, our returns for the six months ending June 30th, 1888, were more than $2,000, greater, according to this sworn statement, than any other dry goods merchant in the place. And yet this wholesale robbery of the people's money is Fall Session of 1888 Begins permitted. Why? Our trade of last month, October, was better than any month before, and it must be because

THE CRIORE CO.
Sirs—I have had rather a hard time to introduce Celore, as the people here thought that nothing would stop the chills but quintine. But since they have tried Celore they is conceded, than any other house. You will lose money if you do not as the conceded to the chills but makes a second to the chill but makes a second to the chills but makes a second to the chills but makes a second to the chill but makes a sec

We have also been agents of Clark's O. N. T. Spool Cotton since September, 1885, keep a full stock on hand, and sell it to the trade for about three (3) years, and have tried several remedies but to no avail. About three months ago I was prevailed upon to try Celore I used one prekage of that never-failing remedy for chills and today I feel no symptoms of their return. Yours respectfully.

We have also been agents of Clark's O. N. T. Spool Cotton since September, 1885, keep a full stock on hand, and sell it to the trade for 55c., less 6 per cent. for cash. The manner in which we have pushed this well known and deservedly popular thread has forced some to discard to a certain extent other threads and add this to their stocks. Remember, your order will always be filled for O. N. T. We are not behind, but foremost in the fight for the
