EDITORIAL NOTES.

SENATOR SHERMAN is to go abroad—at his own expense.

THE season is rather late, but look out for political cyclones in the West.

HON. NATHAN F. DIXON has been elected U. S. Senator from Rhode Island.

WE are gratified to learn that the crops in this section were not materially injured by the late cold snap.

SPRING, that was so savagely knocked out last Saturday, is slightly disfigured but still in the ring.

GEN. JAMES LONGSTREET'S residence in Gainesville, Ga., was destroyed by fire last Monday. Loss $10,000. No insurance.

IN the removals in the postal service of this section, we do not see the Italian hand of Wanamaker, but the bronze fist of Supo. Agricola.

NO one has yet got what he wanted from this administration, but every one except Bradley has accepted what he got.—Philadelphia Times.

SAVANNAH suffered another heavy loss by fire on last Tuesday. The Savannah cotton mill, valued at $150,000, was burned and totally destroyed.

PRESIDENT HARRISON has decided to eradicate the race question. His way of doing it is to appoint white men to office regardless of color.—Kansas City Times.

AT Manson, Iowa, last Tuesday, Robert Schideler and wife were driving when a spark from Schideler's pipe ignited the clothing of his wife, and she was burned to death.

WE take our hat off to the Goldsboro Argus. Its late anniversary number was just splendid. When Goldsboro does the handsome thing, we participate in the pleasure.

GENERAL and Senator Sherman have joined in the request, it appears, that General Joe Johnston be retained as Commissioner of Railroads and the famous Confederate, it is thought, will be retained in office.—News and Observer.

IN the Mormon Conference, Salt Lake, Monday evening, the statistics of the church were presented, showing a total population of 153,911; the entire population is classified, and the church dignitaries alone number over 30,000.—Wilmington Star.

THREE thousand women, representing twenty two different clubs, held a meeting at Cooper Union, New York, Monday night, and not a man was allowed in the hall. That's as bad as a star chamber session of the Senate.—Washington Post.

THE Belgian government has informally warned Boulanger to abstain from political agitation, which the government will not tolerate. The General has been informed that if he complies with the wishes of the government in this respect he will not be expelled from Belgium.

OF our "Georgia Confederate Home" the Atlanta Constitution says. "We are going to build it. That's all there is about it. The movement is but one day old and yet the subscription has passed $10,000. That the next week will see it pass the required limit we have not the shadow of a doubt."

A COMPARISON of the vote just cast in Rhode Island with the Presidential vote in November is interesting and instructive. The total vote is 18,000 against about 40,000 last fall. The Republican vote has fallen off nearly 4,000 and the Democratic vote has increased about the same number. Boodle can't save the tariff lords next time.—N. Y. World.

STANLEY has suffered enough in Africa, for the world's benefit to be entitled to fair play till he can speak for himself. A man like Stanley, with such a record of endurance, sagacity and heroism, is not apt to jeopardize his entire fame by descending to slave trading or any other questionable money getting conspiracy.—Washington Post.

THE Atlanta Constitution and the Augusta Chronicle are firing at Senator Colquitt. They are making a noise, but as Colquitt is entrenched in the hearts of Georgians they will injure themselves instead of the Senator. He has just been given six more years in the Senate, and he will continue to represent the people, the Constitution and the Chronicle to the contrary notwithstanding.

PRESIDENT HARRISON needs rest. He has been in office but little more than a month and yet he wants to get away from Washington for a day or two to breathe fresh air at Fortress Munro. The President is described as looking pale, careworn, half sick. The cares of State weigh heavily on the shoulders of the President, but the importunities of office seekers are irritating, and wear down not only his patience, but his physique.

EX-GOV. JOHN SCHUYLER CROSBY and Mr. Joseph F. Bussell Harrison are going to start a stock farm in the Red River Valley. What has induced Mr. Harrison to go into the cattle business? What new?

IN the city of Troy, N. Y., last Tuesday the Republicans swept the city. Would it not seem that Harrison is bringing about a new order of things. How wonderfully alike Republicans and Democrats are! As we write Republicans are warning the Democrats, and in the North and West Democrats are warning the Democrats against Grover.

EX-President Cleveland and party passed through Washington last Friday, and it is said he seemed greatly disappointed at not seeing us at the depot.—Wilson Mirror. That is a mistake. The editor of the Goldsboro Headlight was on the ex-President's car, and Mr. Cleveland walked in and took part in the conversation between him and the editor, so he could have been interrupted even if North Carolina had been at the edge of Nebraska for him.

A Boston, Mass., dispatch of the 7th says. Rev. Thomas Dixon, Jr., the brilliant young pastor of the Dudley Street Baptist Church, announced to his people today that he had accepted the call of the Twenty third Street Baptist Church, New York. Although but twenty five years old Mr. Dixon, who is a North Carolinian, was a lawyer and legislator before he was ordained to the ministry at Wake Forest College in Issue. He goes to New York with the intention of building up a popular church, and his admirers here expect to see him succeed. Mr. Dixon is a typical "Tar Heel," tall and dark, with aquiline features, fearless in debate of public questions and a lover of baseball. He will preach his last sermon here on next Sunday.

THE Daily Norfolk Virginian of Tuesday, April 9, says: The storm of Saturday night and Sunday appears to have affected Norfolk sorely beyond all other seaports, though future advices may show its effects in another light. The estimated damage in this immediate vicinity will probably range between $100,000 and $500,000. The heavy loss to our energetic and liberal people will elicit general sympathy, and yet it is satisfaction to our people that in other sections of Virginia and North Carolina escaped with comparatively small damage. The pluck, courage and enterprise of our people is a guaranty that they will regain their losses in due season. In the midst of their own suffering, they have room in their hearts for condolence for Savannah, because of the terrible devastating fire of Saturday night.

JERUSALEM.

What sacred memories cluster around Jerusalem! It is holy ground. Jerusalem has encountered many vicissitudes. The plow share of Time has run over its site, but its glory will remain as long as the human soul respond to beauty and melody, and the heart pass its tribute of worship and love on to the great Creator.

But it is not the magnificent city of Solomon and Herod's temple to which we wish to call your fond memories. Lying at anchor around the Hesperian Empire, that we are to-day, but of Jerusalem, one of the thousand places where the Arabian Consul draws his salary, and spends his time in revelry and riot.

The Washington Post has nominated Col. Elliot F. Shepard, of the New York Mail and Express, for Consul at Jerusalem. We have nothing to say against Col. Shepard. In his appointment the President would follow the following the precedent he has established, of giving the best places to members of the press, and we can not so far forget our duties to the brotherhood as even to wish for their disapproval. But perhaps Brother Shepard won't get the appointment, and, in that event, we shall present Mr. Charles Reisenstein, of New Berne, North Carolina, for appointment as Consul to Jerusalem. The President, or his friends, has indicated a desire to break the Solid South. Here is an entering wedge. Let Mr. Harrison succeed in making Mr. Reizenstein a Republican, by sending him to Jerusalem, and he will realize the pleasure and happiness that always follows success. Mr. Reizenstein is fully competent, and is entitled to recognition, for to him was largely due the success of the late Eastern Carolina Oyster, Fish, Game and Industrial Exposition. Then, too, he "Loves Jerusalem." It would be the delight of his heart to see it's glory again, "the joy of the whole earth." Besides, he would appreciate the salary as much as any man, and the leisure, incident to his office, would afford opportunity for the cultivation of his poetic fancy. Then only think what treasures he would bring to the new Land!

Please, Mr. Harrison, or Mr. Blaine, whichever may really be boss, send Mr. Reizenstein to Jerusalem.

DEADLY WEAPONS.

The carrying of deadly weapons concealed is condemned by the virtuous and the good of all communities. It is a practice hurtful to society and dangerous to individuals. It is indeed a rare thing that a valid excuse can be rendered for carrying about one's person a concealed weapon.

But man is a progressive animal, and while a little while ago it was easy enough to determine what was meant by "a concealed weapon," it is now difficult to determine.

A distinguished Judge—one whose learning has long adorned the judiciary of North Carolina—has decided that a clam is a deadly weapon, and no appeal has been taken from his decision, and should an appeal be taken the judgment of the Superior Court will be affirmed. It is possible that this adjudication might lead to the abolition of clams, but for the fact that "The Deadly Greenback" has been fired on and its extermination demanded. Current literature says:

"The last item of news from the laboratory is that the deadliest of bacteria live and multiply on the bank notes that we handle. Probably there is not a viler article that we ever touch than a bank note. Carried in the pockets of the most leprous and loathsome, it passes through the pocket of the refined. We would not think of taking a pocket handerchief that had made any such round without washing and fumigating. We could not be induced to put on the shirt of a tramp, but the money of the diseased and contaminating goes without a thought into our inner pockets. What disease we hug we do not think or care."

Now, we are in favor of the most rigid laws against deadly weapons, provided, that said law shall not apply to clams and greenbacks.

STICK TO THE LAW.

Stick to the law. It is right under all circumstances to obey the laws. If laws are not executed it is impossible for the people to discriminate between good and bad laws.

Ignorance is no excuse for crime. It is the duty of every citizen to know the laws that are in force in the community in which he lives, and abide by them. If the laws are oppressive or unwise their execution will bring them to light, so that they can be amended or repealed.

The city of Chicago is now in great commotion on account of the late municipal election having been declared void, because of a failure to observe the law in regard to it. The general law of the State provides that whenever all of the township lies within the limits of the city, the election shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in April, and that wherever the township is not included within the city limits, the election shall be held on the third Tuesday. "Under the decision of the Supreme Court, the city of Chicago does not entirely cover the township of South and West Chicago, and therefore the election, instead of being held on the first Tuesday in April, as it was, should have been held on the third Tuesday."

Thus matters are complicated, and the people confused. Will there be another election, and can the Democrats again sweep the city? We do not know, and we question if anybody knows.

We return to our text: Stick to the law. In it there is safety; without it there is no security.

THE CARDINAL AND THE CENTENNIAL.

Cardinal Gibbons has issued a circular letter to the clergy of Baltimore in relation to the approaching centennial celebration of the inauguration of George Washington. The letter is filled with patriotic sentiments elegantly expressed. Its concluding paragraphs are as follows:

To all it should be matter of profound satisfaction that the citizens of the United States, without regard to race or previous allegiance to any flag soever, are about to recognize the life and the achievements of the greatest man this western world has nurtured, as a gift of Almighty God to his own age, and as an exemplar to all the ages to be.

In order, therefore, to give expression to our heartfelt thanks for the civil and religious blessings thus far vouchsafed to us by the Giver of every perfect gift, and to pray that the spirit of patriotism which burned in the heart of Washington may continue to animate those to whom the destinies of our beloved country may be intrusted, you are invited, Rev. Dear Sir, to announce at a seasonable time beforehand a special service for the morning of April 30th, at 9 o'clock, or at any other hour most suitable for the congregation.

You are further requested at such service to make an address suggested by the occasion, closing with the "prayer for the authorities." As an additional expression of joy and thanksgiving, the church bells will be rung from 10 to 10:30 the same morning.

JAMES CARDINAL GIBBONS,
Archbishop of Baltimore.

The spirit of this letter is admirable, and we commend it to the true worshipers of God of every creed.

We are too apt to forget the superintending providence of God in national affairs, and it is proper that we, as a people, publicly recognize Him as our protector, benefactor and friend. "Righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people."
