EDITORIAL NOTES.

THE estimated number of people in New York daily is 2,000,000.

THE North Carolina State Alliance meets at Fayetteville, Aug. 13th.

UNEASINESS is felt in London for the safety of British troops in Egypt.

FRED DOUGLASS, negro lately appointed minister to Hayti, is said to be worth $100,000.

SULLIVAN is reported as infurious over the result of the battle, while Kilrain is all torn up.

MRS. TYLER, widow of President John Tyler, died suddenly in Richmond on last Wednesday.

THE people of the whole State feel an interest in the success of the encampment at Wrightsville.

THE State Line Alliance, of North Carolina, will discuss the desirability of ladies joining the Alliance.

POWER is always stealing from the many to the few. The people should constantly be on their guard.

THE richest countries of the world are not those where nature is most bountiful but where labor is most efficient.

IN making removals the President uses no superfluous word he simply writes "You are removed. B. Harrison."

THE Department of Agriculture reports an improvement in the condition of the cotton crop during the past month.

BUFFALO BILL has been engaged by the French government to teach 100 cavalry officers to ride in the American style.

IT is asserted that Dr. Dudley has been called in to apply the blocks of fire treatment to Montana.—Buffalo Courier.

THE wheat harvest in Kansas is said to be the largest ever gathered in that State. Some fields yielded 130 bushels per acre.

FIVE Alliances in Mecklenburg county, Va. saved $1,245.72 by purchasing their fertilizers through the county Alliance agent.

HENRY M. STANLEY, the African explorer, is expected back in London by next September when he will enter upon a course of lectures.

CLEVELAND said, "Public office is a Public Trust." Now we have it "Public office is a "Family Roost."—Greensboro North State.

IT is announced that General Fitz Lee will accept the Superintendency of the Virginia Military Institute when his term as Governor expires.

CERTAINLY within a ten mile radius around Charlotte the prospects for an abundant harvest are every where apparent.—Charlotte Chronicle.

DISPATCHES from Jackson, Miss., say Gov. Lowery is determined to bring Sullivan and Kilrain to justice. It is said that he will demand their extradition.

THE first bale of new cotton was sold in New York last Monday at 10 cents. It came from Georgia and will go to Liverpool.—Wilmington Star.

THE Rowan county, N. C. Alliance reduced the acreage of cotton and tobacco one fourth, and increased the acreage in corn and grasses one fourth.

"LABOR has built all the palaces that adorn the world, and yet has always dwelt in a hovel. Idleness has never created the most insignificant value and yet revels in luxury."

A TERRIBLE tragedy is reported from Pelouse W. T. A man killed his wife and children, and then killed himself, for the reason that he did not wish them to live longer in this sinful world.

THERE has been a falling off of nearly 75 per cent in the emigration to both countries in the last six months. The decrease was not from any particular nation, but from the whole European continent.

SENATOR INGALLS is credited with saying that everybody in Kansas is satisfied with prohibition. The prohibitionist have their law, and the drinkers have their whiskey.

PRESIDENT HARRISON should take warning by the mess Son Russell has made of Montana politics, and let the new States hold elections without further interference, unless he wants them all to go Democratic.—Philadelphia Times.

NOW it is said that the President has been slighted in New York. The United States Dispatch Boat with the Presidential party aboard was ignored as it passed the Navy yard. The captain slowed up expecting a salute, but not a gun was fired.

THE civil service law is one of those experiments which must be frequently made in the effort to bring about the best conditions in the conduct of government. This particular experiment is a dismal failure, and should be abandoned for something more practical and useful.—Charlotte Chronicle.

MISS HELEN GLADSTONE, daughter of the great English Statesman, and president of Newnham College Cambridge, contends that the full enfranchisement of women is the following words has no tendency to prevent her from participating in the legislature.
