THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE.

Meets and Passes Important Resolutions. Hold Your Cotton.

The National cotton committee of the Farmers Alliance sends greetings and important advice to the farmers of the South.

That is the substance of it.

The committee held a quiet meeting at the Kimball House, Atlanta, Ga., the result of which was the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That the National cotton committee recommend that the farmers of the South shall sell no cotton during the month of September, except what may be absolutely necessary to meet the obligations which are past due.
2. That the National cotton committee instruct each primary Alliance, Wheel, or Union, or some person appointed by him, to meet the president and secretary of his county Alliance, Wheel, or Union, on Saturday, the 25th of September, at the county site, for the purpose of receiving further instructions from the National cotton committee.
3. That each State secretary of every State be charged with the duty of placing these resolutions immediately before the respective county presidents in every county in the State, and charge all expenses of printing and postage to the National Alliance.
4. That every farmer be urged to exercise special care and caution in sheltering and protecting his cotton in bales from damaging weather, and also from lying on the ground.
5. That every newspaper in the South in sympathy with the interests of the farmers, is requested to publish these resolutions.

R. J. Sledge, chairman, Kyle, Texas; A. T. Hatcher, Greenville, La.; W. L. Lacy, Winona, Miss.; S. B. Alexander, Charlotte, N. C.; L. Featherston, Forest City, Ark.; M. L. Donaldson, Greenville, S. C.; M. J. C. Jones, Memphis, Tenn.; B. F. Kolb, Montgomery, Ala.; B. M. Hord, Nashville, Tenn.—National Executive Committee.

The JOURNAL is now, and always has been, in sympathy with the interests of the farmers, and consequently publishes these resolutions.

It is unnecessary for us to make extended remarks upon them, but we wish to emphasize the advice given.

The policy of holding back the crop for better prices is usually a good one, but it should never be done to the injury of creditors. The mortgage system, that prevails to such an extent, is a well-nigh necessary incident to the times in which we live. Whatever may be said of the folly of having inaugurated such a system, the fact is we are confronted by a condition and not a theory. The farmer who makes it a point to meet his obligations as they mature, establishes for himself a business reputation as valuable to him as bank securities, and such a man has very little to fear from his mortgagee. A good business man who holds a mortgage had much rather give reasonable indulgence to a reliable farmer than to force a sale by which property will be sacrificed. The National cotton committee have done right in recommending that the farmers of the South "shall sell no cotton during the month of September, except what may be absolutely necessary to meet the obligations which are past due."

The fourth resolution is an important one. As a general rule farmers expose their cotton too much. It is a great mistake to suppose that cotton is not injured by lying out after being packed, or by lying on the ground. Under the old system of packing in jute burlap the injury from these causes was considerable, but it will be greater when the cotton is packed in cotton cloth. The tendency of the covering to mould and mildew will be greater, and the existence of cotton cloth bagging an argument against its use. Besides, cotton that has been well protected is better and will bring a better price in the market.

With these few remarks we commend the resolutions of the National cotton committee to the favorable consideration of our farmers.

PERRY, who boasts that he carried 7,000 North Carolina negroes to Indiana to carry that State for Garfield, has not yet received his reward. We are curious to know what Harrison proposes to do about it. He and Dudley are a precious pair. It looks like they will have to "walk the streets" as Carson says, until Quay comes in, unless indeed, Clarkson should propose to pay them. —News and Observer.

The Boston Journal is exercised in mind because a candidate who was lately a high-tariff man is running on a tariff-reform platform in Ohio. The Journal may as well become used to such sights. Conventions to tariff reform are to occur everywhere. Nothing but politics has kept New England from being a tariff-reform region for the last half-dozen years. Politics will not hold her so a half-dozen years in the future. —Boston Herald.

PENNSYLVANIA is in line. Her Democratic State Convention adopts a platform for tariff reform, and demands free raw material.

CONGRESS.

An extra session may or not be called, but in any event it will not be long before the Congress will assemble.

It was thought that the tariff would be the leading subject for consideration, and that the silver question and naval affairs would receive early attention.

But Representative Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, declares that the great question for the coming Congress is the revision of the rules of the House. He says that the system of rules of the House of Representatives is right in the entire American system of government from top to bottom is wrong.

Lodge's declaration amounts to saying that the next House of Representatives is to be partisan, and all obstacles to party manipulation and partisan legislation are to be removed. There are to be no qualms of conscience because of the protests of reason, patriotism and regret, but the Republican party is to move right on to the accomplishment of its object.

The present rules have worked well. That there have been exceptional cases is admitted, but in the great majority of cases they have met the ends of justice and facilitated legislation.

One of the chief objects of the rules is the protection of the minority. There is no tyranny more oppressive than the tyranny that the majority may inflict upon the minority unless restrained by law. The rules now in force is the work of years, and not the product of any particular party. They are the result of patient enquiry and close investigation, and are endorsed by statesmen of long experience.

During the period of Democratic ascendancy, in the House of Representatives, the Republicans had no objection to the rules. There was no room for objection, on their part, for the rules protected them and the Democratic majority was willing that they should be protected. But, the majority in the House has changed sides, and the Republicans demand a change in the rules. They are not willing to accord to the Democratic minority the protection that was freely extended to them while the Democrats were in the majority.

The object of the Republicans is not limited to any particular measure, but it is evident that one of the purposes to be attained is the unseating of Democrats elected in their respective States and to install in their stead Republican competitors whose defeat at the polls has been ascertained and announced by the proper local authorities.

The New York Star says: "Mr. Lodge in the pretense of putting this partisan conspiracy on a high plane of statesmanship will deceive no one. Republicans as well as Democrats realize the true character of the Quay scheme to take 'with a mailed hand' all they can obtain from the result of the last election. Democrats will resist the effort to change the rules, and they will appeal, with confidence, to right-minded Republicans to refrain from depriving them of the fair play that Republicans secured by reliance on the rules which Mr. Lodge assails as spokesman of the Republican machine."

THE VERDICT UNANIMOUS.

W. D. Salt, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles and was cured of Rheumatism of 10 years standing. Another man, Druggist, Belleville, Ohio, affirms: 'The best selling medicine I ever handled in my 30 years' experience is Electric Bitters.' Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters cures all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at B. B. B.'s wholesale and retail drug store. Large size $3.00 per dozen, wholesale."

The world is made of such hard, flinty substances against which you hammer and hammer, but thought will be striking fire; see to it that the sparks do not burn you.

An Offensive Breath is most distressing, not only to the person afflicted if he have any pride, but to those with whom he comes in contact. It is a delicate matter to speak of it, but it has passed not only friends but lovers. Had I not used a bottle of B. B. B.'s Catarrh Remedy I could not have cured my wife of the worst case as thousands can testify.

ORANGE PERUVYERY.

Orange Peruvyery met last week at both Raleigh and Greensboro. This was the first meeting of the kind in the South since the late spring. We have never before three meetings of the kind in the South. Mr. Smith, D. D., removed from Washington, N. C., to take charge of the first Presbyterian church in Columbia, S. C., and Mr. H. Chester, president of the Orange Roads church, to go to the Franklin, Tenn. Presbyterian church, and Rev. P. H. Dalton, takes work in Concord Presbytery. Rev. J. H. Lacy, D. D., removed from Washington, N. C., to take charge of the first Presbyterian church in Lexington and High Point, and soon will ordain a minister in the Salisbury, or Scotland Neck, evangelistic circle.

That "in the midst of life we are in death," is a solemn and affecting truth, attested by every day's melancholy experience. We can only pray for the souls of those who have fallen before the Great Reaper, that eulogy of the dead rarely passes unheeded; but if a virtuous life, one of unconquerable sweetness and purity, formed the subject of this communication.

The late melancholy occurrence which robbed our society of one of its most cherished members, Miss Ann Maria Slover, so speedily following the loss of her husband, has struck many in deep affliction for the heavy blow.

"Like a shadow thrown softly and sweetly from a passing cloud. Death fell upon her."

It yet came at last, with unutterable grief, falling largely on the shoulders of those whose loss is irreparable, we cannot let the occasion pass by without some expression of the feelings which such a sad event is calculated to excite.

That "in the midst of life we are in death," is a solemn and affecting truth, attested by every day's melancholy experience. We can only pray for the souls of those who have fallen before the Great Reaper, that eulogy of the dead rarely passes unheeded; but if a virtuous life, one of unconquerable sweetness and purity, formed the subject of this communication.

TROUBLE WITH THE NEGROES.

Four of the Ringleaders killed While Resisting Arrest.

New Orleans, Sept. 4.—A special from Greenwood, Miss., and from present appearances it looks as though the sun of peace would separate the cloud of war. The sheriff of this county returned from Winter City, the seat of war, last evening, and reports everything quiet up there. Four of the ring leaders, Adolph Horn, Scott Morris, M. J. Dial and Jack Ford, were killed. The militia arrived at Winter City at 7 o'clock yesterday morning.

Upon the arrival of the troops it was learned that a party of about 100 negroes well armed with Winchester rifles were encamped near Cane Lake, a distance of 7 or 8 miles from Winter City. A reconnoitering party of citizens numbering about fifty men were organized and proceeded to interview the boldest of the negroes.

Part of the men were detailed to go in different directions and make a thorough search of the entire surrounding country, in order to discover their whereabouts.

A party while passing through the plantation of Mr. C. A. Lowrey, and upon Adolph Horn and Jack Ford, and they were commanded to surrender. Without regarding the command of the officers they drew their rifles and started to run, when they were shot down. Those who were very desperate and mischievous, and had been the principal actors of Cromwell and Thomas in aiding the negroes of this county. The other leaders were killed this morning while retreating arrested.

Thomas, Allan and Cromwell, the moving spirit of the insurrection, have not been arrested, but the whites and the better class of black negroes are determined to bring them to justice. Geo. Allan is the one who killed another negro last Saturday night on Townsboro's place for refusing to join his band, and it is believed he is still in this city. Cromwell is an ex-captain and one of the principal instigators of the riot.

The best feeling prevails between the whites and the better class of negroes, and when this troublesome element has been brought to justice the machinery of the State will move on as though nothing had happened.

Bill Fife is coming.

Mr. W. P. Fife, a prominent evangelist, will commence a meeting here next Sunday. He comes by invitation of the officers of the community, and has conducted meetings at several places in the State, and his efforts have been signally successful everywhere he has been. His meetings give him a warm welcome, and cordial support in his work. Looking for a revival of religion, and the moral reform of the people, the Baptist Association of Carteret county, N. C., has appointed a committee on the subject of arrangements for the series of meetings. The first service will be held in the Baptist church—Rockingham Rocker.
