THE President's English is a hobby-diction.

THE Democratic party is united, and when it is united New York is a Democratic State.—New York World.

SEVERAL cases of yellow fever are reported at Key West, Fla., but there is said to be no fear of the disease spreading.

THE Republican State Convention of Nebraska has passed unanimously a resolution endorsing Chicago as the place for holding the World's Fair.

We note with pleasure the enlargement of the Wadeboro Massenger-Intelligencer, and congratulate the people of Anson on having so good a paper.

The Raleigh Signal has resumed publication. It will be an independent Republican newspaper, to support the Administration when right, and oppose it when wrong.

We are indebted to Hon. Kemp W. Battle, President of the University of North Carolina, for a copy of his admirable address on the History of the Supreme Court of the State.

Of the seven hundred and ninety-nine men who have been educated at Spurgeon's Pastors College during the thirty-six years of its history, six hundred are active pastors.

The "posters" of the Goldboro Fair promise much. Much more is expected because of the gentleman having it in charge, and the community in which it is located. Success to Goldboro, and all its enterprises!

We have received the second number of the Monroe Register, published by M. A. Underwood and George M. Beasley, Editors and Proprietors. It is a large, well printed paper and is edited with ability. Our best wishes are extended to the Register.

"THERE is work that shows for this world in towers and steeples in palaces and ornaments, in or ornaments and endowments, in reports and statistics; there is other work which is as quiet as the approach of morning, but which is also as beneficent, and as fruitful of good."

THERE is truth worth pondering in that saying of Luther's. Every man should be a certain Christ unto his brother. This accords with the declaration of our Lord, "As thou hast loved me into the world, I have loved thee." The church is to be a permanent Christ to the world.—Christian Inquirer.

WE congratulate the Fayetteville Observer upon the success that has attended it in the past, as well as the prospect that spreads out before it. It is eminently worthy of the patronage of the progressive community which it so ably represents. Its first semi-weekly issue is before us and is highly creditable in every particular.

THE time has come when Congress must thoroughly investigate the practical operations of the so-called civil service law as administered by the so-called Civil Service Commission. If the hypocrisy of its workings has equalled the bungling of the open pretensions of its advocates and supporters, the light ought to be let on N. Y. Star.

At Sanbury, Pa., on last Tuesday a meeting of the Executive Committee of the State Service Pension party was held, and it was determined to place a candidate in the field for State Treasurer at the coming election in order to test the strength of the universal pension movement; so as to make a showing before the next Congress. The nomination was offered to several gentlemen and declined.

THE News and Observer says: "The Republican candidate for Governor of Massachusetts has declined a joint debate on the tariff, not being willing to follow Southern precedents and now Murat Halstead has declined a similar challenge extended by M. D. Haster, a manufacturer in Mansfield, Ohio. Halstead says the people do not take enough interest in the tariff to justify debate."

EVERY man has a hope of the other world, no matter how poor a Christian he may be. A man is never beaten as long as he fights. This is true of individuals, communities and nations. I sometimes tell the Northern people that I don't believe we consider ourselves whipped after all. They are sore as they try to whip them. A Christian is never whipped until he runs up the white flag to the devil, and says he'll never strike another lick for Christ and right.—Sam Jones.

I CAN imagine some of you may say to yourselves, "I wonder if Mr. Moody claims to understand all the Bible." I want to tell you in the very opening of this lecture that I do not, and if I did it would be pretty good evidence that it did not have any divine origin. I am glad there is a depth to that Bible I know nothing about; that there is height there I cannot climb to; I should live to be as old as Methuselah; I venture to say if I should live for ages on the earth I would only have touched its surface.—D. L. Moody.

MISSISSIPPI

Within the last few days Virginia and Mississippi have been remarkable for having at Confederate Gen. Grant the Republican candidates for Governor, the retirement of Chamberlain from the race in Mississippi, and the election of Virginia, the southern representative of Southern States in the United States Congress.

From the 15th of August to the 10th of September, the most notable event of the year was the retirement of Chamberlain from the race in Mississippi, and the election of Virginia, the southern representative of Southern States in the United States Congress.

There are first, the refusal of the county officials of Mississippi to allow him the use of the court houses in which to speak. He says they were closed against him, and he was forced to speak in the open air.

Another reason given by Gen. Chamberlain is that a military company paraded in a square where he was speaking, and that he was surrounded by a military force.

One of the best indications of the success of the National Democratic party in the next general election is the absolute agreement of Democrats in all sections of the country on the cardinal principles of the party.

The last reason given by Gen. Chamberlain is that a military company paraded in a square where he was speaking, and that he was surrounded by a military force.

OUR ALLIANCE COLUMN

The leading idea of the Farmers' Alliance is reform. The farmers of the South have followed the same track for twenty years. It is not in the right of reform. A warning abyss lies a short distance in front of them; they must turn to the right or be swallowed up.

A GREAT CRISIS. I suppose you, landlords have become landlords. Tenants have become farmers. Landlords have become farmers. Landlords have become farmers.

THE REMEDY. Form ourselves into organized bodies—having one object and that object must be "The improvement of the condition of the farmer."

THE FARMER'S ALLIANCE. I suppose you, landlords have become landlords. Tenants have become farmers. Landlords have become farmers.

THE ALLIANCE IS TO BE HEDDLED. In view of the fact, that it is a question of time, before the farmer will be able to get out of the "maneuvers," with a view especially to "bank movements."

THE ALLIANCE WILL BE MEASURED. The farmer will be measured by the yardstick of the market. The farmer will be measured by the yardstick of the market.
