Be Sure and Exhibit Them.

Mr. John Pearce writing us from Polkville says:

You say that the Prince of Wales will be at the Fair. In case he should miss connection I will send his boxes.

When to Kill Hogs

One of the successful farmers in Jones county writes about the proper time to kill hogs.

Oyster Pirates Seized

A letter from Mr. J. C. Thomas, of New Bern, written from Colquhoun, Feb. 11.

From the Baltimore Sun

This able and witty Southern daily speaks a word for our Fair, which will open about the week end.

A Model Farm

There is a need of the young men of North Carolina emigrating?

These gentlemen have under cultivation all the varieties of truck but give special attention to potatoes and cabbage and the raising of fine stock.

Our Schools

This is an age of enquiry. Old methods are falling into disuse wherever their places can be supplied with better ones.

Excursion trains will be run from Wilmington and New Bern.

From the Goldsboro Mercury-Sentinel

The Atlantic City, N. J. Review says: "We are indebted to Mr. F. Ulrich, of New Bern, N. C., for a copy of the program list of the third annual exhibition of the East Carolina Fair."

There are some town and country life in North Carolina, we are glad to say, where "hard times" is not the cry and the effect of short crops is not felt.

Bids for the Cutter

From the Baltimore Sun we find the following item relative to the new revenue cutter which is to be stationed at New Bern:

Superior Court Proceedings.

The February term of Craven county Superior Court convened Monday at 11 o'clock.

State vs. Eugene Boyd, col.; larceny; defendant pleaded guilty.

State vs. Charles Shepard, col.; larceny; defendant pleaded guilty.

A SAD SUICIDE.

Mr. J. J. Robertson cuts his throat almost from Far to Ear With a Razor.

When a servant attempted to remove Robertson from the room occupied by Mr. J. J. Robertson at the Gaston House no one answered the rap on the door and it was found to be locked.

Robertson was found lying on the floor, the head resting against the bedstead, the throat cut from ear to ear.

Shall Women Vote?

It is with fear and trembling that I come to discuss so grave a question: Shall women vote?

The question, "Shall Women Vote?" is one of the most important questions of the day.

The question, "Shall Women Vote?" is one of the most important questions of the day.
