The people of the busy West appreciate keenly the necessity of an intelligent knowledge of the world's daily doings, but they are too busy to waste valuable time in searching through a cumbrous " blanket sheet " newspaper for the real news of ait, literature, acience, religion, politics, and the thousand-and-one things which make up modern civ diration. They want news—all the news but they don't want it concealed in an over powering mass of the trivial and inconsequen-tial. 5 It is because THE CHICAGO DAILY

"It is a remarkably well made book for the price The peculiar shape makes the book structure y easy to read, which is a most valuable bing to the student. The clean cut, heavy faced type used for titles is a good feature and materi-ally lightens the task of the investigator. The accented syllable of every difficult word is plainly parked and the pronunciation, when it offers any fifticulties, is set forth phonetically. In a word, this popular work is most carefully edited and neatly and accurately manufactured." - American Bookmaker, New York.
