CONFESSED ON HIS DEATH-BED.

The Awful Crime Committed by a Swede in a Packing-House.

A prominent physician of Tocoma, Wash., has made a horrible and startling revelation, in which he alleges that he was called two months ago to the death-bed of a poor Swede named Lars Pedersen. He told the physician he wished his dying contession written, and it is as follows:

"Peterson worked in Armour's pork house in Chicago natil 1887, then he went to Sioux City to Silverhora's packing-house, where he worked until the spring of 1889, when he killed a man named Larson Harstrum, who worked with him elenning the floors in the killing-rooms. He stabled him many times, and his blood flowed down the gutter to the ertilizer, mixing with the blood of the swine killer that day. "He then put him in the chute and ran his body in among 10, 00 carcusses killed that day. Near morating he took the body to the chapping-blocks, cut it in pieces, covered it with salt and ran them to the fertilizing-rooms among pies of pork left fiber for months. He then burned the c.othes in the furnace. Pedersen lived in Sions City for two months after the murder and then came here?" onis ad-

HANS PETER JACOUSON, 12 years old, and bis sister, about five years old, were partly burned and partly sufficiented to death at their The B air educational bill, the bill for the one in Chicago. Their parents put them to ed at 7 o'clock, and then went to the theatre. are tensures which were defeated on test votes; By the explosion of a kerosene lamp the house caught fire, but the dames were not noticed until nearly midnight. A fireman rushed in-to the burning residence and carried out the they died in the rescuer's arms. Mrs. Jacob-son is in precarious condition.
