The register of his forbids the export of the works of the old with, however, shows the fact to be that he vas born in 1807. He was educated at the College of Poligny, studied law in Paris and in due course was admitted as an advocate. He took part in the revolution of 1-30, and in 1848 was appointed commissary of the provisional government in his department, and the Jura. In the legislative body M. Grevy, while rerving the right of independent action generally, voted with the extreme left. He opposed the government of Louis Napoleon and pro-tested against the expedition to Rome. After the coup d'etat he withdrew from politics, but was in 1869 again returned as deputy for the Jura. On February 17, 1871, M. Grevy was elected president of the national assembly, in which most important and, at that time, tryig position he exhibited remarkable tact,

In 1873 he resigned his office, being succeeded by M. Buffet. In 1876 he was returned to the National Assembly by the arrondissement of Dole, in the Department of the Jura, and on the me ting of the chamber he was elected its president. He was re-elected by the new Chamber of Deputies on November 10, 1877, and again in January, 1879.

After the resignation of Marshal MacMahon, . Grevy was elec ed President of the French Republic for several years on January 10, 1879, when 553 votes were recorded in his favor, 99 being given to General Chanzy against his will, 5 for M. The killing occurred in a swamp near Archer, Fla. Murray called on Early about 4 o'clock and ordered him to go with him to Archer, where he said, he was going to "kid some crackers" and then leave Alachua county.

Early did not want to go, and said ice had o gun, but Murray took Early to t e latter's rother's house and made nim produce a double-barrel shotgun. Both baded with buckshot, and Early put 15 more in each barrel. The two then started towar: Archer. Having to pass through a swamp or the way, when they got into the swamp Early pretended he did not know the trail, and asked Murray to lead.

Murray took the lead and immediately Early poured the contents of both barrels into the back of Murray's head, killing him nstant y. Larly then notified the people a Archer, and a crowd went to the spot, brought
