Billingburst, the intry manager, decline to make any state ent as to the actual lost incurred by the onden and Westminster Bank, but it is currently reported that the amount stolen is not ess than $750,000, and that it may be as much The bank officers, the city police authorities and Criminal Investigation Department of Scotland Yard are putting forth the utmost exertions in order to effect the capture of the thieves. Notice of the robbery has been sent to the police centres throughout the British Isles and on the continent, and the sailing of every passenger vessel is being watched. Notice of the robbery has also be a sent to all the banks upon which the bills were drawn, but the police theory is that no attempt will be made to change the bills in this country, but that the thieves will have recourse to the continent, where the presence of so many wealthy travelers from England and the inited States makes such transactions easier than in this country.

The robbery of the London and Westminster Bank recalls the fact that on February 16 last a similar daring bank robbery took place in the same ne ghborhood. Upon that occasion ant back robbery has taken place in the city. The police and bank officials are trying to keep the matter as quiet as possible, so that the entire facts in the case are not obtainable at present. It is known, however, that the institution that has suffered is the London and Westminster Bink (limited), No. 41 Lathbury, E. C., an important establishment, having over 15 branch houses in London. The money stolen, it would appear, consisted of a large tarcel of bills remitted from the country banks to the London and Westminster Bank. The thief or thieves must have cleverly watched for the proper opportunity to accomplish the robbery and to have gained access to an apartment near the main entrance to the bank. This spartment was easy of access from the street, and the parcel of bills is supposed to have been stolen while the bank
